Item 5. Other Items.

On October 29, 2003, Boyd Gaming Corporation (the Company ) announced that it has reached an out-of-court settlement regarding the lawsuit previously filed by Astoria Entertainment, Inc., a Louisiana corporation ( Astoria ).

In November 1998, Astoria filed two different lawsuits against the Company and certain of its subsidiaries (together with the Company, collectively referred to as the Boyd Entities ). All federal claims against the Boyd Entities were dismissed with prejudice by the federal court on August 22, 2001. The state law claims brought in the federal lawsuit were dismissed without prejudice, allowing Astoria to assert these claims in the state court action. On October 4, 2001, the Boyd Entities appealed to the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals seeking dismissal of the state law claims with prejudice. On January 7, 2003, the Fifth Circuit ruled that the state law claims could proceed in state court.

On October 22, 2003, the Boyd Entities and Astoria entered into a settlement and release agreement whereby Astoria agreed to dismiss with prejudice all causes of action and claims it brought against the Boyd Entities and to release the Boyd Entities from any and all known and unknown claims. In consideration for such dismissal and release, the Company paid Astoria $375,000.
