The MONY Group Inc. issued the following press release on February 18, 2004.

MONY ANNOUNCES IT WILL POSTPONE ITS STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

IN RESPONSE TO A DELAWARE CHANCERY COURT ORDER

MONY Will Set New Date for Special Meeting of Stockholders to Vote on Proposed Merger with AXA Financial

February 18, 2004 The MONY Group Inc. (NYSE: MNY) today announced that it has postponed its special meeting of stockholders to vote on its proposed merger with AXA Financial. The meeting was originally scheduled to be held on Tuesday, February 24, 2004. MONY expects to provide additional information with respect to the meeting shortly. MONY indicated that its decision to reschedule the meeting of stockholders was in response to an opinion issued on February 17, 2004 by the Delaware Court of Chancery requiring MONY to revise its proxy statement to include additional disclosure relating to its change-of-control agreements with its senior executives.

At the same time MONY noted that the Court rejected all of the plaintiff's other claims for supplemental disclosure and ruled that all of the other challenges to the proxy statement were unlikely to succeed at trial.

In this regard, the Court noted, among other things, that . . . the record shows the (MONY) Board acted reasonably in making its determination. The Board, whose members are financially sophisticated and knowledgeable about the insurance and financial services industry, relied on its knowledge of the industry and of potential strategic partners available to MONY.

In rejecting the argument that the Board's decision foreclosed other, potentially greater value-creating transactions, the Court further noted that . . . the Court finds a five-month market check more than adequate to determine if the price offered by AXA was the best price reasonably available

Additionally, the Court noted that:

- The Board actively supervised Roth's negotiations. And during this pursuit, Roth acted diligently in securing improvements for MONY.
- the Board's judgment was reasonable that the risks of a pre-agreement auction, as opposed to a post-agreement market check, outweighed the benefits.

Roth briefed the Board regularly on MONY's strategic alternatives and industry developments, and the Board was advised of alternatives to the Merger.

Forward-looking Statements

The foregoing contains forward-looking statements concerning MONY's operations, economic performance, prospects and financial condition. Forward-looking statements include statements expressing management's expectations, beliefs, estimates, forecasts, projections and assumptions and include all statements concerning MONY's operations, economic performance, prospects and financial condition for 2004 and following years. MONY claims the protection afforded by the safe harbor for forward-looking statements as set forth in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are subject to many risks and uncertainties. Actual results could differ materially from those anticipated by forward-looking statements due to a number of important factors including the following: satisfaction of the closing conditions set forth in the merger agreement among MONY, AXA Financial, Inc., and AIMA Acquisition Co., including approval of MONY's stockholders and regulatory approvals; a significant delay in the expected completion of the contemplated merger; MONY could experience losses, including venture capital losses; MONY could be subjected to further downgrades by rating agencies of our senior debt ratings and the claims-paying and financial-strength ratings of our insurance subsidiaries; MONY could be required to take a goodwill impairment charge relating to its investment in Advest if the market deteriorates; MONY could have to accelerate amortization of deferred policy acquisition costs if market conditions deteriorate; MONY could be required to recognize in its earnings other than temporary impairment charges on its investments in fixed maturity and equity securities held by it; MONY could have to write off investments in certain securities if the issuers financial condition deteriorates; recent improvements in the equities markets may not be sustained into the future; actual death-claim experience could differ from MONY s mortality assumptions; MONY could have liability from as-yet-unknown litigation and claims; larger settlements or judgments than we anticipate could result in pending cases due to unforeseen developments; and changes in laws, including tax laws, could affect the demand for MONY s products. MONY does not undertake to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise.
