Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On April 20, 2010, BioDelivery Sciences International, Inc. (the Company) entered into a Securities Purchase Agreement (the SPA) with certain institutional investors (the Investors) relating to a registered direct public offering by the Company (the Offering) of 2,824,858 shares (the Shares) of the Company's common stock, par value $.001 per share (the Common Stock), and warrants (the Warrants) to purchase up to an aggregate of 1,412,429 shares of Common Stock (the Warrant Shares). The Shares are being sold at a price of $3.54 per share, and the Warrants have an initial exercise price of $4.67 per Warrant Share.

The closing of the Offering is expected to take place on or about April 23, 2010, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions. The net proceeds from the sale of the Shares and Warrants are expected to be approximately $9.86 million. No placement agent was utilized in connection with the Offering.

SPA

The SPA contains certain covenants that the Company is required to comply with and certain consent rights of the Investors, including:

the Company will be precluded from engaging in securities offerings for a period of 60 days from the closing of the Offering, subject to certain exceptions;

the Company has granted the Investors in the Offering a 12 month right, subject to certain exceptions, to participate in future financings of the Company up to an amount equal to 35% of such financings;

the Company will be precluded, for a period of 12 months from the closing of the Offering, to engage in any variable rate financing transactions;

the Company shall be required to maintain its status as a publicly listed and reporting company, subject to certain exceptions;

the Company shall be required to provide certain financial information to the Investors in the event that the Company is not a publicly reporting company in order to facilitate the use by the Investors of SEC Rule 144 to dispose of their securities; and the following actions will require the consent of the holders of two-thirds of the shares underlying the Warrants: (i) the Company's engaging in any reverse stock split; (ii) amending the SPA; and (iii) the Company's assignment of its rights and obligations under the SPA, subject to certain exceptions.

Warrants

The Warrants have a five year term from the date of issuance, are exercisable immediately from the date of issuance and include provisions governing the adjustments to the number of Warrant Shares exercisable thereunder upon stock dividends, stock splits and similar events, as well as full ratchet anti-dilution protection.

A Warrant may be transferred by a holder thereof in accordance with applicable securities laws. In order to validly exercise a Warrant, a holder thereof other than the original holder must, concurrently with or prior to the delivery of an exercise notice, provide the Company with definitive documentation conclusively evidencing, in the Company's reasonable discretion, that the person seeking to exercise the Warrant is the actual owner of the Warrant possessing the right to cause the exercise thereof.

In the event that the Company consummates certain fundamental transactions, including, without limitation, any merger, consolidation, sale or other reorganization event in which the Common Stock is converted into or exchanged for securities, cash or other property or the Company consummates a sale of substantially all of its assets, then following that event, the holders of the Warrants may be entitled to cause the repurchase of the Warrant by us for cash at the Black-Scholes value of the Warrant. Also, on the Company's distribution, pro rata to the holders of Common Stock, of assets or rights to purchase additional securities, the holders of Warrants shall be entitled to participate in such distributions as if the Warrants had been exercised (without regard to any limitations on exercise set forth therein).

The holders of the Warrants will not have the right to exercise any portion of the Warrant if the holder, together with its affiliates, would, subject to limited exceptions, beneficially own in excess of 4.99% of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after the exercise. The holder may elect to change this beneficial ownership limitation from 4.99% to up to 9.99% of the number of shares of Common Stock outstanding immediately after the exercise upon not less than 61 days prior written notice to the Company.

Before the exercise of their Warrants, except as provided for in the Warrant, holders of Warrants will not have any of the rights of stockholders, and will not be entitled to, among other things, vote or receive dividend payments or similar distributions on the shares purchasable upon exercise.
