Supplemental Disclosures

Amendment to the Merger Agreement

On May 8, 2013, CCPT II, the CCPT II Partnership, Spirit and the Spirit Partnership entered into an amendment to the merger agreement, which we refer to as the amendment. The following description of the amendment is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, reference to the full text of the amendment, which is attached to this supplement as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference. We urge you to read the amendment carefully and in its entirety. To the extent the following information is inconsistent with any information in the joint proxy statement/prospectus, the following information will amend and supersede the information in the joint proxy statement/prospectus:

Fractional Shares of Spirit Common Stock

At the effective time of the merger and by virtue of the merger, each share of Spirit common stock (other than shares of Spirit common stock owned by any wholly owned subsidiary of Spirit, CCPT II or any subsidiary of CCPT II, which will be cancelled) will be converted automatically into the right to receive 1.9048 shares of CCPT II common stock (which equates to an inverse exchange ratio of 0.525 shares of Spirit common stock for one share of CCPT II common stock). No fractional shares of CCPT II common stock will be issued. Instead of fractional shares, Spirit stockholders will receive cash, without interest, in an amount determined by multiplying the fractional interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the product of (i) the volume weighted average price of Spirit common stock for the 10 trading days immediately prior to the closing date, starting with the opening of trading on the first trading day to the closing of the second to last trading day prior to the closing date, as reported by Bloomberg and (ii) 0.525.

Fractional Shares of CCPT II Common Stock

At the effective time of the merger, CCPT II stockholders will continue to hold their existing shares of CCPT II common stock, except that any fractional share of CCPT II common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cancelled. Instead of fractional shares, CCPT II common stockholders will receive cash, without interest, in an amount determined by multiplying such fractional shares by the product of (i) the volume weighted average price of Spirit common stock for the 10 trading days immediately prior to the closing date, starting with the opening of trading on the first trading day to the closing of the second to last trading day prior to the closing date, as reported by Bloomberg and (ii) 0.525.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Treatment of CCPT II Stockholders

CCPT II stockholders will not recognize gain or loss in connection with the merger, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares. A CCPT II stockholder receiving cash in lieu of fractional shares will generally recognize gain (or loss) equal to the difference between the cash received and the stockholder's adjusted tax basis in the fractional share. Such gain or loss generally should be long-term capital gain (or loss) if the stockholder held the CCPT II fractional share for more than one year and otherwise will be short-term capital gain (or loss). CCPT II stockholders should consult their tax advisors as to the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign income tax consequences of the merger.

Litigation Relating to the Merger

With respect to the disclosures made in the joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding certain pending litigation related to the merger agreement up to and including April 2, 2013, the date of the definitive joint proxy statement/prospectus, the following information supersedes and replaces the section entitled "The Companies' Legal Proceedings" on page 43 and the section entitled "The Merger - Litigation Relating to the Merger" on page 240 and all similar disclosure appearing throughout the joint proxy statement/prospectus:

In connection with the merger, on March 5, 2013, a putative class action and derivative lawsuit was filed in the Circuit Court for Baltimore City, Maryland against and purportedly on behalf of Spirit captioned Kendrick, et al. v. Spirit Realty Capital, Inc., et al. The complaint was amended on April 26, 2013, and names as defendants Spirit, the members of the Spirit Board, the Spirit Partnership, CCPT II, and the CCPT II Partnership, and alleges that the directors of Spirit breached their fiduciary duties by engaging in an unfair process leading to the merger agreement, failing to disclose sufficient material information for Spirit stockholders to make an informed decision regarding whether or not to approve the merger, agreeing to a merger agreement at an opportunistic and unfair price, allowing draconian and preclusive deal protection devices in the merger agreement, retaining a self-interested and conflicted financial advisor, and by engaging in self-interested and otherwise conflicted actions. The complaint alleges that CCPT II, the CCPT II Partnership, and the Spirit Partnership aided and abetted those breaches of fiduciary duty. The complaint seeks a declaration that defendants have breached their fiduciary duties or aided and abetted such breaches and that the merger agreement is unenforceable, an order enjoining a vote on the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, rescission of the transactions in the event they are consummated, imposition of a constructive trust, an award of fees and costs, including attorneys' and experts' fees and costs, and other relief.

Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. Director Compensation Table

The following information supersedes and replaces footnote (2) to the table included in the section entitled "The Companies - Cole Credit Property Trust II, Inc. Director Compensation Table" on page 51:

- (2) Includes $151,500 in fees related to the CCPT II Special Committee. Excludes $150,000 in fees payable to each member of the CCPT II Special Committee, which was subsequently approved by the CCPT II Board as compensation for services of the CCPT II Special Committee.

Financing Related to the Merger

With respect to the disclosures made in the joint proxy statement/prospectus regarding debt financing which the Spirit Partnership has entered into in connection with the merger, the following information supplements the section entitled "Summary - Financing Related to the Merger" beginning on page 14 and the section entitled "The Merger Agreement - Financing Related to the Merger" beginning on page 264:

On April 26, 2013, the Spirit Operating Partnership entered into a commitment letter, which we refer to as the DB Commitment Letter, with Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., which we refer to as DBSI, on behalf of Deutsche Bank AG New York Branch. Subject to certain conditions set forth in the DB Commitment Letter, DBSI has agreed to provide $300.0 million of a $325.0 million senior secured revolving credit facility. The remaining $25.0 million, as well as an accordion feature allowing the Spirit Partnership to increase such facility by up to an additional $75.0 million, are each subject to acceptance of commitments from existing or new lenders. The DB Commitment Letter contemplates that the credit facility will be guaranteed by Spirit and all subsidiaries of the Spirit Partnership that own certain unencumbered properties. The proceeds of this loan facility would be available for general corporate purposes of the Spirit Partnership and its subsidiaries, including but not limited to working capital, capital expenditures and acquisitions. The revolving credit facility contemplated under the DB Commitment Letter would be an alternative source of funding to a portion of the financing commitments from Barclays, Deutsche Bank and MIHI described above but, until the actual funding thereof, the commitments under the DB Commitment Letter are not intended to replace any or all of the financing commitments from Barclays, Deutsche Bank and MIHI.

There can be no assurances, however, that the financings discussed above will be completed as they are subject to a number of conditions including, but not limited to, the execution of mutually agreeable documentation. The foregoing descriptions of the financings commitments and the DB Commitment Letter and the transactions contemplated by each are qualified in their entirety by reference to the complete terms and conditions of the definitive documentation to be negotiated and executed in connection therewith.

I. Amendments to Agreement.

(a) Section 3.1(d) of the Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Cole Common Stock. At and after the Company Merger Effective Time, each share of Cole Common Stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time shall remain issued and outstanding except that any certificate or book-entry share representing outstanding fractional shares of Cole Common Stock immediately prior to the Company Merger Effective Time shall be canceled and converted at the Company Merger Effective Time into the right to receive, cash, without interest, in an amount as set forth in Section 3.7.

(c) Section 3.7 of the Agreement is deleted in its entirety and replaced with the following:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, (a) each holder of shares of Spirit Common Stock converted pursuant to Section 3.1(b) who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Cole Common Stock and (b) each holder of a fractional share of Cole Common Stock converted pursuant to Section 3.1(d), shall receive, in lieu thereof, cash, without interest, in an amount equal to such fractional part of a share of Cole Common Stock multiplied by the product of (x) the VWAP of Spirit Common Stock multiplied by (y) 0.525.

Except as expressly amended hereby, each term, provision and Exhibit of the Agreement (i) is hereby ratified and confirmed, (ii) is hereby incorporated herein and (iii) will and does remain in full force and effect. This Amendment may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the Parties.

3. Authorship. The Parties agree that the terms and language of this Amendment are the result of negotiations between the Parties and their respective advisors and, as a result, there shall be no presumption that any ambiguities in this Amendment shall be resolved against any Party. Any controversy over construction of this Amendment shall be decided without regard to events of authorship or negotiation.

4. Severability. If any term or other provision of this Amendment is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced under any present or future Law, or public policy, (a) such term or other provision shall be fully separable, (b) this Amendment shall be construed and enforced as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never comprised a part hereof, and (c) all other conditions and provisions of this Amendment shall remain in full force and effect and shall not be affected by the illegal, invalid or unenforceable term or other provision or by its severance herefrom so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated by this Amendment is not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal or incapable of being enforced, the Parties hereto shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Amendment so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in a mutually acceptable manner in order that transactions contemplated by this Amendment be consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

5. Counterparts. This Amendment may be executed in counterparts, all of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the Parties and delivered (by telecopy, electronic delivery or otherwise) to the other Parties. Signatures to this Amendment transmitted by facsimile transmission, by electronic mail in portable document form (.pdf), or by any other electronic means intended to preserve the original graphic and pictorial appearance of a document, will have the same effect as physical delivery of the paper document bearing the original signature.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, each of the Parties hereto agrees that it will not bring any action, cause of action, claim, cross-claim or third-party claim of any kind or description, whether in law or in equity, whether in contract or in tort or otherwise, against, the Financing Sources in any way relating to this Amendment or any of the transactions contemplated by this Amendment, including any dispute arising out of or relating in any way to the Debt Financing or the performance thereof, in any forum other than the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, located in the Borough of Manhattan, or, if under applicable law exclusive jurisdiction is vested in the Federal courts, the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York (and, in each case, appellate courts thereof). The Parties agree that any of them may file a copy of this paragraph with any court as written evidence of knowing, voluntary and bargained agreement between the Parties irrevocably waiving any objections to venue or convenience of forum.

7. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR OTHER PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF THIS AMENDMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY (INCLUDING WITH RESPECT TO THE DEBT FINANCING). EACH PARTY HERETO (A) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (B) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT, BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVER AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 7.
