RENEWAL OF CONTINUING CONNECTED TRANSACTIONS

Reference is made to the announcement dated 29 October 2010 in relation to the continuing connected transactions entered into by CUCL with Unicom Group and Unicom New Horizon, respectively, including the transactions under the 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement.

The 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement will expire on 31 December 2013.

The Board announces that on 24 October 2013, CUCL and Unicom Group entered into the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement to renew the relevant continuing connected transactions under the 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement for a term of three years expiring on 31 December 2016.

Unicom Group is the ultimate parent company of the Company and, as at the date of this announcement, indirectly controls approximately 74.95% of the issued share capital of the Company through its shareholdings in Unicom BVI and Unicom Group BVI, which directly hold 40.93% and 34.02% of the issued share capital of the Company, respectively. As CUCL is a member of the Group and Unicom Group is a connected person of the Company, the transactions contemplated under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement constitute continuing connected transactions of the Company for the purpose of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

As the highest of the applicable percentage ratios (other than the profits ratio) in respect of the annual caps for each of the transactions contemplated under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement will, on an annual basis, be more than 0.1% but less than 5%, such continuing connected transactions are only subject to the reporting and announcement requirements set out in Rules 14A.45 to 14A.47 of the Listing Rules and the annual review requirements set out in Rules 14A.37 to 14A.40 of the Listing Rules and are exempt from the independent shareholders' approval requirements of Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

The Board (including the independent non-executive Directors but excluding the Directors who have abstained from voting) are of the opinion that the terms of the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement are on normal commercial terms, have been entered into in the ordinary and usual course of business of the Group and are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Shareholders as a whole. The Board (including the independent non-executive Directors but excluding the Directors who have abstained from voting) are also of the opinion that the annual caps for each of the transactions contemplated under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement are fair and reasonable.

1. INTRODUCTION

Reference is made to the announcement dated 29 October 2010 in relation to the continuing connected transactions entered into by CUCL with Unicom Group and Unicom New Horizon, respectively, including the transactions under the 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement.

The 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement will expire on 31 December 2013.

Table of Contents

The Board announces that on 24 October 2013, CUCL and Unicom Group entered into the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement to renew the relevant continuing connected transactions under the 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement for a term of three years expiring on 31 December 2016.

2. 2013 COMPREHENSIVE SERVICES AGREEMENT

(a) Introduction

Pursuant to the 2010 Comprehensive Services Agreement, Unicom Group and CUCL agreed to provide to each other or by one to the other services, including (i) telecommunications resources leasing; (ii) property leasing; (iii) value-added telecommunications services; (iv) materials procurement services; (v) engineering design and construction services; (vi) ancillary telecommunications services; (vii) comprehensive support services; and (viii) shared services.

On 24 October 2013, CUCL and Unicom Group entered into the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement to renew the above continuing connected transactions for a term of three years commencing on 1 January 2014 and expiring on 31 December 2016.

(b) Details of the Transactions Contemplated under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement

(1) Telecommunications Resources Leasing

Unicom Group has agreed to lease to CUCL:

- (i) certain international telecommunications resources (including international telecommunications channel gateways, international telecommunications service gateways, international submarine cable capacity, international land cables and international satellite facilities); and
- (ii) certain other telecommunications facilities required by CUCL for its operations.

The rental charges for the leasing of international telecommunications resources and other telecommunications facilities are based on the annual depreciation charges of such resources and telecommunications facilities provided that such charges would not be higher than market rates. CUCL will be responsible for the on-going maintenance of such international telecommunications resources. CUCL and Unicom Group will determine and agree which party is to provide maintenance service to the telecommunications facilities referred to in paragraph (ii) above. Unless otherwise agreed by CUCL and Unicom Group, such maintenance service charges would be borne by CUCL. If Unicom Group is responsible for maintaining any telecommunications facilities referred to in paragraph (ii) above, CUCL will pay to Unicom Group the relevant maintenance service charges which will be determined with reference to market rates, or where there is no market rates, be agreed between the parties and determined on a cost-plus basis. The net rental charges and service charges due to Unicom Group for the provision of the above telecommunications resources leasing will be settled between CUCL and Unicom Group on a quarterly basis.

(2) Property Leasing

CUCL and Unicom Group have agreed to lease to each other properties and ancillary facilities belonging to CUCL or Unicom Group (including their respective branch companies and subsidiaries).

The rental charges payable by CUCL or Unicom Group are based on market rates or the depreciation charges and taxes in respect of each property, provided that such rental charges will not be higher than the market rates. The rental charges are payable quarterly in arrears and are subject to review every year to take into account the then prevailing market rates of the properties leased in that year.

(3) Provision of Value-added Telecommunications Services

Unicom Group (or its subsidiaries) has agreed to provide the customers of CUCL with various types of value-added telecommunications services.

Table of Contents

CUCL will settle the revenue generated from the value-added telecommunications services with the branches of Unicom Group (or its subsidiaries) on the condition that such settlement will be based on the average revenue for independent value-added telecommunications content providers who provide value-added telecommunications content to CUCL in the same region. The revenue will be settled on a monthly basis.

(4) Provision of Materials Procurement Services

Unicom Group has agreed to provide comprehensive procurement services for imported and domestic telecommunications materials and other domestic non-telecommunications materials to CUCL. Unicom Group has also agreed to provide services on management of tenders, verification of technical specifications, installation, consulting and agency services.

In addition, Unicom Group will sell cable, modem and other materials operated by itself to CUCL and will also provide storage and logistics services in relation to the above materials procurement.

Charges for the provision of materials procurement services are calculated at the rate of:

- (i) up to 3% of the contract value of those procurement contracts in the case of domestic materials procurement; and
 - (ii) up to 1% of the contract value of those procurement contracts in the case of imported materials procurement.
- The charges for the provision of materials operated by Unicom Group are determined by reference to the following pricing principles:

- (A) the government fixed price;
- (B) where there is no government fixed price but a government guidance price exists, the government guidance price;
- (C) where there is neither a government fixed price nor a government guidance price, the market price; or
- (D) where none of the above is applicable, the price to be agreed between the parties and determined on a cost-plus basis.

The charges for the provision of storage and logistics services are determined by reference to the market price, which is determined by reference to the following:

- (I)

the price charged by an independent third party providing the services in the same or nearby location in an ordinary business transaction; or

- (II) the price charged by an independent third party providing the services in the PRC in an ordinary business transaction.

The service charges due to Unicom Group will be settled on a monthly basis.

(5) Provision of Engineering Design and Construction Services

Unicom Group has agreed to provide engineering design, construction and supervision services and IT services to CUCL. Engineering design services include planning and design, engineering inspection, telecommunications electronic engineering, telecommunications equipment engineering and corporate telecommunications engineering. Construction services include services relating to telecommunications equipment, telecommunications routing, power supplies, telecommunications conduit, and technical support systems. IT services include services relating to office automation, software testing, network upgrading, research and development of new business, and development of support systems.

Table of Contents

The charges for the provision of engineering design and construction services are determined by reference to the market price, which is determined by reference to the following:

- (i) the price charged by an independent third party providing the services in the same or nearby location in an ordinary business transaction; or
- (ii) the price charged by an independent third party providing the services in the PRC in an ordinary business transaction.

The service charges will be settled between CUCL and Unicom Group as and when the relevant services are provided.

(6) Provision of Ancillary Telecommunications Services

Unicom Group has agreed to provide ancillary telecommunications services to CUCL. These services include certain telecommunications pre-sale, on-sale and after-sale services such as assembling and repairing of certain telecommunications equipment, sales agency services, printing and invoice delivery services, maintenance of telephone booths, customers acquisitions and servicing and other customers services.

The charges payable for the provision of ancillary telecommunications services are determined by reference to the following pricing principles:

- (i) the government fixed price;
- (ii) where there is no government fixed price but a government guidance price exists, the government guidance price;
- (iii) where there is neither a government fixed price nor a government guidance price, the market price; or
- (iv) where none of the above is applicable, the price to be agreed between the parties and determined on a cost-plus basis.

The service charges will be settled between CUCL and Unicom Group as and when the relevant services are provided.

(7) Provision of Comprehensive Support Services

Unicom Group and CUCL have agreed to provide comprehensive support services to each other, including dining services, facilities leasing services (excluding those facilities which are provided under the paragraph headed Provision of Telecommunications Resources Leasing above), vehicle services, health and medical services, labour services, security services, hotel and conference services, gardening services, decoration and renovation services, sales services, construction agency, equipment maintenance services, market development, technical support services, research and development services, sanitary services, parking services, staff trainings, storage services, advertising services, marketing, property management services, information and communications technology services (including construction and installation services, system integration services, software development, product sales and agent services, operation and maintenance services, and consultation services).

The service charges are determined by reference to the following pricing principles:

- (i) the government fixed price;
- (ii) where there is no government fixed price but a government guidance price exists, the government guidance price;
- (iii) where there is neither a government fixed price nor a government guidance price, the market price; or
- (iv) where none of the above is applicable, the price to be agreed between the parties and determined on a cost-plus basis.

Table of Contents

The service charges will be settled between CUCL and Unicom Group as and when the relevant services are provided.

(8) Provision of Shared Services

Unicom Group and CUCL have agreed to provide shared services to each other, including, but not limited to, the following:

- (i) CUCL will provide headquarter human resources services to Unicom Group;
- (ii) Unicom Group and CUCL will provide central business support services to each other;
- (iii) CUCL will provide trust services related to the services referred to in paragraphs (i) and (ii) above to Unicom Group; and

(iv) Unicom Group will provide premises to CUCL and other shared services requested by its headquarters. In relation to the services referred to in paragraph (ii) above, CUCL will provide support services, such as billing and settlement services provided by the business support centre and operational statistics reports.

Unicom Group will provide support services, including telephone card production, development and related services, maintenance and technical support and management services in relation to the telecommunications card operational system.

Unicom Group and CUCL will share the costs related to the shared services proportionately in accordance with their respective total assets value, except that the total assets value of the overseas subsidiaries and the listed company of Unicom Group will be excluded from the total asset value of Unicom Group, and the shared costs proportion will be agreed between Unicom Group and CUCL in accordance with the total assets value set out in the financial statements provided to each other, as adjusted in accordance with their respective total assets value on an annual basis.

(c) Conditions to the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement Becoming Effective

The 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement will become effective (i) upon approval by the board of directors of the Company; (ii) upon approval by the general meeting of Unicom A Share Company; and (iii) after it has been duly signed and stamped by each of the Company and Unicom A Share Company.

Conditions (i) and (iii) above have been satisfied as at the date of this announcement. The general meeting of Unicom A Share Company is expected to take place on 29 November 2013.

(d) Reasons For and Benefits of the Transactions Contemplated under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement

The services to be provided by Unicom Group pursuant to the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement are essential to the on-going operation of the Group's business activities. The terms, conditions and charges of the services are determined in accordance with the appropriate tariffs and standards prescribed by the relevant PRC regulatory authorities and/or by reference to market rates and/or by reference to the cost of providing the respective services or facilities. Due to the long-standing cooperation between Unicom Group and the Group, Unicom Group has developed an in-depth understanding of the Group's general business needs and is therefore able to provide high quality services to meet the Group's demands. Accordingly, the service arrangements with Unicom Group under the 2013 Comprehensive Services Agreement will enable the Group to receive high quality services at competitive prices and in a timely manner.
