FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FOREST OIL ANNOUNCES AGREEMENT WITH SABINE OIL & GAS TO REVISE TRANSACTION STRUCTURE AND ADOPTION OF SHAREHOLDER RIGHTS PLAN

New structure requires only majority approval

Sabine and Forest economic interests post transaction remain 73.5% / 26.5%, respectively

Shareholder rights plan adopted to protect interest of Forest shareholders

DENVER, COLORADO July 10, 2014 Forest Oil Corporation (NYSE:FST) (Forest) today announced that it has reached an agreement with Sabine Oil & Gas LLC (Sabine Oil & Gas) to amend their previously announced merger agreement to protect the interests of their respective shareholders. The revised transaction structure does not change the economic terms of the transaction. Upon completion, current Forest shareholders will own approximately 26.5% of the economic interest in the combined businesses of Forest and Sabine Oil & Gas, the same as under the original merger agreement.

Under the terms of the amended merger agreement, Forest and Sabine Oil & Gas will combine their businesses through a revised transaction structure, where Sabine Investor Holdings, LLC and a related investment entity (together, the Sabine Investor Entities), the owners of Sabine Oil & Gas, will contribute their interests in Sabine Oil & Gas to Forest, in exchange for the issuance to the Sabine Investor Entities of common and preferred stock in Forest. As a result of the contribution and stock issuance (the Transaction), Sabine Oil & Gas will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Forest, the Sabine Investor Entities will hold common and preferred shares representing an aggregate 73.5% economic interest in Forest and the existing Forest common shareholders will hold an aggregate 26.5% economic interest in Forest. The 73.5% / 26.5% economic interest allocation is the same as under the original merger agreement.

In addition, through the issuance of preferred stock (the Series A Common-Equivalent Preferred Stock) to the Sabine Investor Entities, the Sabine Investor Entities will have approximately 80% of the combined voting interest in Forest. The Transaction is expected to be tax-free for the Forest shareholders and the Sabine Investor Entities, as was the case with the original transaction structure. The Series A Common Equivalent Preferred Stock will be convertible into Forest common stock at the option of the holder, and will convert automatically if the Sabine Investor Entities and their affiliates cease to own Forest shares representing two-thirds of the combined voting interest in Forest. The Series A Common-Equivalent Preferred Stock will be equivalent to Forest common stock, other than with respect to voting rights, and will have no special dividend rights.

The completion of the Transaction is conditioned upon, among other things, (i) the approval of the issuance of the equity consideration to the Sabine Investor Entities by holders of a majority of the shares of Forest common stock represented and entitled to vote at a special meeting of Forest shareholders and (ii) unless waived by Forest and the Sabine Investor Entities, the approval of an amendment to Forest's charter to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock (the Charter Amendment) by holders of a majority of the outstanding Forest shares.

The revised transaction structure is not expected to have any impact on the treatment of the existing indebtedness of Forest and Sabine Oil & Gas, as compared to the original transaction structure. As was the case with the original transaction structure, the completion of the Transaction will trigger change-of-control provisions in the indentures governing Forest's existing senior notes. These change-of-control provisions entitle holders of the Forest notes to receive 101% of the principal amount of the notes plus accrued interest with respect to each series of notes if they desire. Sabine Oil & Gas expects that any of Forest's notes that are not tendered pursuant to the change-of-control offers will remain outstanding following the transaction, subject to any opportunistic refinancing of such notes which may be pursued based on market conditions. Sabine Oil & Gas continues to have committed financing in place for both a $1 billion reserves based lending facility and to backstop the purchase of any Forest bonds that are redeemed as a result of the change-of-control provisions.

In connection with entering into the amended merger agreement, Forest also has adopted a shareholder rights plan and today declared a dividend of one right on each outstanding share of Forest's common stock. The rights plan is intended to prevent persons from acquiring beneficial ownership of 5% or more of Forest's common stock or, for investors that own in excess of 5% today, from increasing their beneficial ownership, but will not apply to and will not affect any shareholder that does not have a short -equivalent position with respect to Forest's debt. Forest is adopting the shareholder rights plan, in conjunction with the revised transaction structure, to address the concern that certain investors with short -equivalent positions in Forest's debt securities or similar derivative positions could attempt to negatively influence or manipulate the outcome of the shareholder vote related to the combination of Forest and Sabine Oil & Gas in order to drive down the trading prices of Forest's debt securities. Forest believes the shareholder vote should focus on the merits of the transaction.

Following the completion of the Transaction, Forest has agreed to submit to its shareholders for their approval a plan to reincorporate Forest from New York to Delaware, through a reincorporation merger. If the reincorporation merger is completed, Forest will continue as a wholly-owned subsidiary of a newly formed Delaware holding company, and holders of common and preferred shares in Forest would receive corresponding common and preferred shares in the new Delaware holding company.

Under the amended stockholder s agreement entered into by Forest and the Sabine Investor Entities, the Sabine Investor Entities are entitled to nominate a number of individuals to the Forest board of directors corresponding to their proportionate voting power in Forest stock, which is initially 80%, rounded to the nearest director. In order to ensure that the Sabine Investor Entities are able to nominate a number of directors proportionate to their 80% voting power, the number of directors on the board is being increased to 10. The other two individuals nominated to serve on the Forest board will be selected by the nominating committee, but under the stockholder s agreement, the Sabine Investor Entities have agreed to vote in favor of the election of such nominees.

The combined entity will still be headquartered in Houston, Texas, and will be led by Sabine s current executive management team. The transaction is expected to be completed in the fourth quarter of 2014.

Presentation slides detailing the new transaction structure are available in the Investor Relations section of Forest s website under Recent Presentations and on Sabine s website under Events / Presentations at <http://www.sabineoil.com>.

A summary of the key terms of the revised transaction structure compared to the original transaction structure is set forth in the table below:

Term Structure	Revised Transaction Structure Contribution of Sabine Oil & Gas and related holding companies to Forest by Sabine Investor Entities, in exchange for common and preferred shares of Forest.	Original Transaction Structure Combination of Forest and Sabine Oil & Gas under a newly formed public holding company (Holdco), through the simultaneous merger of a wholly owned subsidiary of Holdco with and into Forest and the contribution of Sabine Oil & Gas and related holding companies to Holdco by Sabine Investor Holdings, LLC.
Resulting Public Company following the Transactions	Forest Oil Corporation (NYSE: FST).	Sabine Oil & Gas Corporation, the newly formed Holdco entity (NYSE: SABO)
Impact on Securities Held by Existing Forest Shareholders	If approved by the Forest shareholders, the name of Forest will be changed to Sabine Oil & Gas Corporation as of the closing date, and the ticker correspondingly changed to SABO. Forest shareholders will retain their existing shares in Forest.	Forest shareholders would have received 0.1 shares of Holdco for each share of Forest common stock owned by such Forest shareholder.
Resulting Economic Ownership	No change.	Sabine Investor Entities would have owned a 73.5% economic interest in the combined company; existing Forest public shareholders would have owned a 26.5% economic interest in the combined company.
Resulting Voting Power	Sabine Investor Entities will hold 80% of the combined voting power in Forest; existing Forest public shareholders will hold 20% of the voting power in Forest.	Sabine Investor Entities would have held 73.5% of the voting power in the combined company; existing Forest public shareholders would have held 26.5% of the voting power in the combined company.

Legally Required Vote to Approve Transaction

A majority of the Forest common shares represented and entitled to vote at the Forest shareholder meeting.

Two-thirds of the outstanding Forest common shares.

Term Additional Waivable Approval Requirements	Revised Transaction Structure Unless waived by the parties, a vote of a majority of the outstanding Forest common shares approving the Charter Amendment will be required to complete the Transactions.	Original Transaction Structure None.
Impact on Outstanding Indebtedness	No change.	The completion of the Transactions will trigger change-of-control provisions in the indentures governing Forest's existing senior notes. These change-of-control provisions entitle holders of the notes to receive 101 percent of the principal amount of the notes plus accrued interest with respect to each series of notes.
Board and Executive Composition	Eight directors chosen by Sabine and two directors chosen by Forest. Sabine Oil & Gas executive management team will manage the combined company.	Six directors chosen by Sabine and two directors chosen by Forest. Sabine Oil & Gas executive management team will manage the combined company.
Financing Commitments; End Date Specified in Merger Agreement	No change, other than the end date under the amended merger agreement and the expiration of the amended commitment letters is December 31, 2014.	Sabine Oil & Gas had obtained financing commitment letters, which provided commitments for a new credit facility for the combined company to refinance the existing revolving credit facilities of Sabine and Forest and for bridge financing to finance the purchase of any Forest notes which are required to be purchased in connection a change of control offer. The end date under the merger agreement and the expiration of the commitment letters was November 1, 2014.
