Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus

MERGER PROPOSED YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Dear Shareholder:

On March 29, 2017, Mid Penn Bancorp, Inc., or Mid Penn, Mid Penn Bank, and The Scottsdale Bank & Trust Company, or Scottsdale, entered into a merger agreement under which Scottsdale will merge with and into Mid Penn Bank, with Mid Penn Bank remaining as the surviving entity. Before we complete the merger, the shareholders of Mid Penn and Scottsdale must approve and adopt the merger agreement.

Mid Penn shareholders will vote to adopt the merger agreement and on the other matters described below at a special meeting of shareholders to be held at 9:00 a.m., local time, on November 17, 2017 at the Halifax Area Ambulance and Rescue Association, Inc., 31 Bunker Hill Road, Halifax, Pennsylvania 17032. Scottsdale shareholders will vote to adopt the merger agreement and on the other matters described below at a special meeting of shareholders to be held at 2:00 p.m., local time, on November 17, 2017 at the Pleasant Valley Country Club, 440 Pleasant Valley Road, Connellsville, Pennsylvania 15425.

If the merger is completed, Scottsdale shareholders will have the right to receive for each share of Scottsdale common stock they own, at their election, (i) $1,166 in cash or (ii) a ratio of a share (the Exchange Ratio) of Mid Penn common stock determined by dividing (y) $1,166 by (z) the 10 trading day per share volume-weighted average price of the Mid Penn common stock on the date that is five business days prior to the closing of the merger (the Average Price), provided that in no event may the exchange ratio be less than 38.88 or greater than 44.86, respectively. Scottsdale shareholders may also elect to receive a combination of cash and Mid Penn common stock. All such elections are subject to adjustment pursuant to the allocation and proration provisions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus whereby at least 90% of the shares of Scottsdale common stock outstanding as of the effective time of the merger (approximately 45,647 shares) will be exchanged for shares of Mid Penn common stock and up to 10% of the outstanding shares (approximately 5,071 shares) of Scottsdale common stock will be exchanged for cash (however, the percentage could be adjusted down to 85% in the event that shareholders perfecting their dissenters rights reaches 15% of the outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock), as further described in the attached joint proxy statement/prospectus. Cash will be paid in lieu of any fractional shares. If the merger is completed Mid Penn will issue between 1,774,724 and 2,275,209 shares of common stock and pay up to approximately $5,913,719 in cash in exchange for the outstanding shares of common stock of Scottsdale upon consummation of the merger, or an aggregate of approximately $59,137,188 in cash and stock. However, Mid Penn may adjust the merger consideration described above if Scottsdale exercises its right to terminate the merger if both (a) average of the daily closing sale prices of a share of Mid Penn common stock as reported on Nasdaq for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the later of (1) the date on which all regulatory approvals, and waivers, if applicable, necessary for consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement have been received or (2) the date of the meeting of Scottsdale shareholders is less than $19.50, and (b) the decrease in the price of Mid Penn common stock is more than 20% greater than the decrease in the SNL Small Cap Bank & Thrift Index during the same period.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, at least 90% of the total number of outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock will be converted into Mid Penn common stock, and the remaining outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock will be converted into cash. As a result, if more Scottsdale shareholders make valid elections to receive cash than is available as merger consideration under the merger agreement, those Scottsdale shareholders electing cash may have such over-subscribed consideration proportionately reduced and substituted with Mid Penn common stock. The material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Scottsdale shareholders will depend on whether cash, Mid Penn common stock, or a combination of cash and Mid Penn common stock is received in exchange for shares of Scottsdale common stock and are discussed in Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 86.

The common stock of Mid Penn trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol MPB and the common stock of Scottsdale trades on the OTC Pink Markets under the symbol SDLJ. On March 28, 2017, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed merger, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $27.25 per share. Based upon this price equaling the Average Price with respect to the stock consideration, upon completion of the merger, the exchange ratio would be 42.79. On September 29, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day prior to the printing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $29.40 per share, which would result in an exchange ratio of 39.92. If the Average Price of Mid Penn's common stock is between $25.99 and $29.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for Mid Penn common stock worth $1,166 based on the Average Price. If the Average Price for Mid Penn's common stock is below $25.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for 44.86 shares of Mid Penn common stock, valued at less than $1,166 based on the Average Price. The market price of both Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock will fluctuate before the completion of the merger, including from the Average Price; therefore, you are urged to obtain current market quotations for Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock.

The Mid Penn board of directors has determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Mid Penn and the Mid Penn board of directors unanimously recommends that the Mid Penn shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and FOR the approval of the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The Scottsdale board of directors has determined that the merger is advisable and in the best interests of Scottsdale and the Scottsdale board of directors unanimously recommends that the Scottsdale shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement and FOR the approval of the other proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SPECIAL MEETINGS

The following questions and answers briefly address some commonly asked questions about the merger (as defined below) and the shareholder meetings. They may not include all the information that is important to the shareholders of Mid Penn and Scottdale. Shareholders of Mid Penn and Scottdale should each read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes and other documents referred to in this document.

Questions about the Merger

Q: What is the merger?

A: Mid Penn, Mid Penn Bank and Scottdale have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated March 29, 2017, which is referred to as the merger agreement. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to, and is incorporated by reference in, this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The merger agreement contains the terms and conditions of the proposed business combination of Mid Penn Bank and Scottdale. Under the merger agreement, Scottdale will merge with and into Mid Penn Bank, with Mid Penn Bank remaining as the surviving entity. We refer to this transaction as the merger.

Q: Why am I receiving these materials?

A: This document constitutes both a joint proxy statement of Mid Penn and Scottdale and a prospectus of Mid Penn. It is a joint proxy statement because the boards of directors of both companies are soliciting proxies from their respective shareholders. It is a prospectus because Mid Penn will issue shares of its common stock in exchange for shares of Scottdale common stock in the merger.

Mid Penn is sending these materials to its shareholders to help them decide how to vote their shares of Mid Penn common stock with respect to the proposed merger and the other matters to be considered at the Mid Penn special meeting described in The Mid Penn Special Meeting, beginning on page 90.

Scottdale is sending these materials to its shareholders to help them decide how to vote their shares of Scottdale common stock with respect to the proposed merger and the other matters to be considered at the Scottdale special meeting described in The Scottdale Special Meeting, beginning on page 170.

Information about these meetings, the merger and the other business to be considered at the meetings is contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The merger cannot be completed unless shareholders of Mid Penn and Scottdale each approve the merger.

Q: Why is Mid Penn proposing the merger?

A: The Mid Penn board of directors, in unanimously determining that the merger is in the best interests of Mid Penn and its shareholders, considered a number of key factors that are described under the heading The Merger Mid Penn s Reasons for the Merger, beginning on page 56.

Q: Why is Scottdale proposing the merger?

A: The Scottdale board of directors, in unanimously determining that the merger is in the best interests of Scottdale and its shareholders, considered a number of key factors that are described under the heading The Merger Scottdale s Reasons for the Merger, beginning on page 43.

Q: What will Scottdale shareholders receive in the merger, and how will this affect holders of Mid Penn common stock?

A: Upon completion of the merger, Scottdale shareholders will be entitled to elect to receive, for each share of Scottdale common stock, subject to the election and adjustment procedures described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, (i) $1,166 in cash or (ii) a ratio of a share (the exchange ratio) of Mid Penn common stock determined by dividing (y) $1,166 by (z) the 10 trading day per share volume-weighted average price for Mid Penn common stock ending on the date that is five business days prior to the closing of the merger. At the closing of the merger, up to 10% of the outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock will be converted into the right to receive cash and the remaining outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock will be converted into the right to receive Mid Penn common stock. Because of the number of shares of Mid Penn common stock being issued in the merger, the percentage ownership interest in Mid Penn represented by the existing shares of Mid Penn common stock will be diluted. Mid Penn shareholders will not receive any merger consideration and will continue to own their existing shares of Mid Penn common stock after the merger.

Q: What equity stake will Scottsdale shareholders hold in Mid Penn immediately following the merger?

A: Following completion of the merger, assuming Scottsdale shareholders elect to convert 10% of the total outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock into cash and 90% of the total outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock into Mid Penn stock, current Mid Penn shareholders will own in the aggregate 69.9% of the outstanding shares of Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale shareholders will own approximately 30.1% of the outstanding shares of Mid Penn common stock.

Q: What is the value of the per share merger consideration?

A: On March 28, 2017, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed merger, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $27.25 per share. Based on this price equaling the Average Price with respect to the stock consideration, upon completion of the merger, the exchange ratio would be 42.79. On September 29, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day prior to the printing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $29.40 per share, which would result in an exchange ratio of 39.92. If the Average Price of Mid Penn's common stock is between $25.99 and $29.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for Mid Penn common stock worth $1,166 based on the Average Price. If the Average Price for Mid Penn's common stock is below $25.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for 44.86 shares of Mid Penn common stock, valued at less than $1,166 based on the Average Price. The market price of both Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock will fluctuate before the completion of the merger, including from the Average Price; therefore, you are urged to obtain current market quotations for Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock.

The following table shows (i) hypothetical Average Prices of Mid Penn common stock with respect to the stock consideration, upon completion of the merger, (ii) the corresponding exchange ratio, (iii) the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Scottsdale common stock, calculated by multiplying the applicable Average Price by an exchange ratio of Mid Penn common stock that Scottsdale shareholders would receive in the merger for each share of Scottsdale common stock, and (iv) the per share cash consideration.

Q: If I am a Scottdale shareholder, when must I elect the type of merger consideration that I prefer to receive?

A: If you are a Scottdale shareholder and wish to elect the type of merger consideration you receive in the merger, you should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the election form, which is being separately mailed to Scottdale shareholders concurrently with or immediately following the mailing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. You will need to sign, date and complete the election form and transmittal materials and return them to the exchange agent, ComputerShare, at the address given in the materials. The election deadline will be the date that is no later than five business days prior to the closing date for the merger. Because of the way the election and proration procedures work, even if you submit a properly completed and signed election form, it is still possible that you may not receive exactly the type of merger consideration you have elected. If you do not submit a properly completed and signed election form to the exchange agent by the election deadline, you will have no control over the type of merger consideration you may receive. If you hold shares in street name, you will have to follow your broker's instructions to make an election.

Q: If I am a Scottdale shareholder, am I guaranteed to receive the type of merger consideration that I elect?

A: No. If Scottdale shareholders elect to convert more than 10% of the total outstanding shares of Scottdale common stock into cash, then the exchange agent will follow the proration procedures outlined under the heading The Merger Agreement Consideration to be Received in the Merger and The Merger Agreement Proration Procedures to ensure that at least 90% of the aggregate merger consideration is paid in shares of Mid Penn common stock and the remaining consideration is paid in cash. We have been advised that Lawrence Keister & Company, which holds 25,804 shares of Scottdale common stock, will elect to convert more than 90% of their holdings of Scottdale common stock into shares of Mid Penn common stock.

Q: What happens if I am eligible to receive a fraction of a share of Mid Penn common stock as part of the stock merger consideration?

A: If the aggregate number of shares of Mid Penn common stock that you are entitled to receive as part of the stock merger consideration includes a fraction of a share of Mid Penn common stock, you will receive cash in lieu of that fractional share. See the section entitled The Merger Agreement Stock Election beginning on page 74 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Who will be the directors and executive officers of the combined company following the merger?

A: Following completion of the merger, the then current directors and executive officers of Mid Penn and Mid Penn Bank will continue in office. Additionally, Mid Penn will appoint Donald F. Kiefer, President and Chief Executive Officer and a director of Scottdale, or a mutually agreed upon qualified replacement candidate, to the board of directors of Mid Penn and Mid Penn Bank effective upon closing of the Merger.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: Subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the closing conditions described under the section entitled, The Merger Agreement Conditions to Completion of the Merger beginning on page 84 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including receipt of shareholder approvals at the respective special meetings of Mid Penn and Scottsdale, and receipt of regulatory approvals, we currently expect to complete the merger by the fourth quarter of 2017. It is possible, however, that factors outside of either company's control could result in us completing the merger at a later time or not completing it at all.

Q: What are the federal income tax consequences of the merger?

A: The merger has been structured to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which is referred to as the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to the completion of the merger that each of Mid Penn and Scottsdale receive a written opinion from their respective legal counsel to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. The federal tax consequences of the merger to shareholders of Scottsdale will depend primarily on whether they exchange their Scottsdale common stock solely for Mid Penn common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of Mid Penn common stock and cash. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares solely for Mid Penn common stock should not recognize gain or loss except with respect to the cash they receive in lieu of a fractional share. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares solely for cash should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares for a combination of Mid Penn common stock and cash should recognize gain, but not any loss, on the exchange. The actual federal income tax consequences to Scottsdale shareholders of electing to receive cash, Mid Penn common stock or a combination of cash and stock will not be ascertainable at the time Scottsdale shareholders make their election because it will not be known at that time how, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Scottsdale shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to Scottsdale shareholders can be complicated. Scottsdale shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder. For further discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, see Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger, beginning on page 86.

Table of Contents

Q: How do I vote my Mid Penn shares?

A: You may vote your Mid Penn shares by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card, by internet or by voting in person at the Mid Penn special meeting.

Voting by Proxy. You may vote your Mid Penn shares by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card. Your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you submit a properly executed and dated proxy, but do not specify a choice on one of the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, your proxy will be voted in favor of that proposal.

Voting by Internet. If you are a registered shareholder, you may vote electronically through the Internet by following the instructions included on your proxy card. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee, you may be able to vote via the Internet. If so, the voting form your nominee sends you will provide Internet instructions.

Voting by Phone. Use any touch-tone telephone to transmit your voting instructions up until 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time the day before the cut-off date or meeting date. Have your proxy card in hand when you call (888) 497-9677 and then follow the instructions.

Voting in Person. If you attend the Mid Penn special meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or may vote by completing a ballot that will be available at the meeting. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee and you wish to vote at the meeting you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your bank or brokerage firm. Please consult the voting form sent to you by your bank or broker to determine how to obtain a legal proxy in order to vote in person at the special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Because the merger cannot be completed without the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at the Mid Penn special meeting, every shareholder's vote is important.

Q: If my shares of Mid Penn common stock are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker CANNOT vote your shares on any proposal at the Mid Penn special meeting without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker as to how to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides to you.

Q: What if I fail to instruct my broker?

A: If you do not provide your broker with instructions, your broker generally will not be permitted to vote your shares on the merger proposal or any other proposal (a so-called "broker non-vote") at the Mid Penn special meeting. For determining the number of votes cast with respect to the merger proposal, only those votes cast for or against the proposal are counted. Any broker non-votes submitted by brokers or nominees in connection with the special meeting, will not be counted as votes for or against for determining the number of votes cast, but will be treated as present for quorum purposes.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the Mid Penn special meeting?

A: As of the Mid Penn record date, 4,240,754 shares of Mid Penn common stock were issued and outstanding, each of which will be entitled to one vote at the meeting. Under Mid Penn's bylaws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. If you vote by proxy, your shares will be included for determining the presence of a quorum. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are also included for determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: Assuming the presence of a quorum, what is the vote required to approve the matters to be considered at the Mid Penn special meeting?

A: The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, at the Mid Penn special meeting is required to approve the proposals to approve and adopt the merger agreement and to adjourn the Mid Penn special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, and any other matter that may properly come before the special meeting. Therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will not affect the outcome of the proposal to approve the merger or the adjournment proposal.

Q: Do I have appraisal or dissenters rights?

A: No. Under Pennsylvania law, holders of Mid Penn common stock will not be entitled to exercise any appraisal rights in connection with the merger.

Q: Can I attend the Mid Penn special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All shareholders, including shareholders of record and those who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of Mid Penn common stock can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership and you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke any proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date (if you submitted your proxy by Internet or by telephone, you can vote again by Internet or telephone), (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Mid Penn's Corporate Secretary, or (3) attending the special meeting in person and voting by ballot at the special meeting. Mid Penn's Corporate Secretary's mailing address is Mid Penn Bancorp, Inc., 349 Union Street, Millersburg, Pennsylvania 17061, Attention: Corporate Secretary.

Any shareholder entitled to vote in person at the special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, and such vote will revoke any previous proxy, but the mere presence of a shareholder at the special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy. A shareholder may change his or her vote up and until the time that votes are counted but not thereafter.

Q: How will proxies be solicited and who will bear the cost of soliciting votes for the Mid Penn special meeting?

A: Mid Penn has engaged [Georgeson LLC] (Georgeson) to act as the proxy solicitor and to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the Mid Penn special meeting of shareholders. Mid Penn has agreed to pay Georgeson approximately $6,500, plus reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, for such services and will also indemnify Georgeson against certain claims, costs, damages, liabilities, and expenses.

Mid Penn will bear the cost of preparing and assembling these proxy materials for the Mid Penn special meeting. The cost of printing and mailing these proxy materials will be shared equally between Mid Penn and Scottsdale. The solicitation of proxies or votes for the Mid Penn special meeting may also be made in person, by telephone, or by electronic communication by Mid Penn's directors, officers, and employees, none of whom will receive any additional compensation for such solicitation activities. In addition, Mid Penn may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners.

A: No. Other than the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, no additional matters can be presented for a vote at the special meeting.

Q: Are there risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote to approve the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should consider the risk factors set out in the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 33 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What if I hold stock of both Mid Penn and Scottdale?

A: If you hold shares of both Mid Penn and Scottdale, you will receive two separate packages of proxy materials. A vote as a Mid Penn shareholder for the merger proposal or any other proposals to be considered at the Mid Penn special meeting will not constitute a vote as a Scottdale shareholder for the merger proposal or any other proposals to be considered at the Scottdale special meeting, and vice versa. Therefore, please sign, date and return all proxy cards that you receive, whether from Mid Penn or Scottdale, or submit separate proxies as both a Mid Penn shareholder and a Scottdale shareholder as instructed.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have additional questions?

A: If you are a Mid Penn shareholder and have any questions about the merger, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares of Mid Penn common stock, or if you need additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact Georgeson, the proxy solicitor for Mid Penn at (888) 497-9677. Questions about the Scottdale Special Meeting

Q: What am I being asked to vote on at the Scottdale special meeting?

A: You are being asked to consider and vote on:

1. adoption of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this joint proxy statement/prospectus; and
2. adjournment of the Scottsdale special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Q: How does the Scottsdale board of directors recommend that I vote my shares?

A: The Scottsdale board of directors recommends that the Scottsdale shareholders vote their shares as follows:
FOR adoption of the merger agreement; and

FOR an adjournment of the Scottsdale special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Scottsdale and their affiliates had the right to vote 28,913 shares of Scottsdale common stock, or 57% of the outstanding Scottsdale common stock entitled to be voted at the Scottsdale special meeting. Each of the directors and executive officers of Scottsdale has agreed to vote all shares of Scottsdale common stock owned by him in favor of adoption of the merger agreement.

meeting. Please follow the instructions set forth on the proxy card or on the voting instruction form provided by the record holder if your shares are held in the name of your broker or other nominee.

Q: Who is entitled to vote at the Scottsdale special meeting?

A: Scottsdale shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 29, 2017, which is referred to as the Scottsdale record date, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Scottsdale special meeting.

Q: How many votes do I have?

A: Each outstanding share of Scottsdale common stock is entitled to one vote.

Q: How do I vote my Scottsdale shares?

A: You may vote your Scottsdale shares by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card or by voting in person at the Scottsdale special meeting.

Voting by Proxy. You may vote your Scottsdale shares by completing and returning the enclosed proxy card. Your proxy will be voted in accordance with your instructions. If you submit a properly executed and dated proxy, but do not specify a choice on one of the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, your proxy will be voted in favor of that proposal.

Voting in Person. If you attend the Scottsdale special meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person or may vote by completing a ballot that will be available at the meeting. If your shares are registered in the name of a broker or other nominee and you wish to vote at the meeting, you will need to obtain a legal proxy from your bank or brokerage firm. Please consult the voting form sent to you by your bank or broker to determine how to obtain a legal proxy in order to vote in person at the Scottsdale special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: Because the merger cannot be completed without the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock, every shareholder's vote is important.

Q: If my shares of Scottsdale common stock are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker CANNOT vote your shares on any proposal at the Scottsdale special meeting without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker as to how to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides to you. Please check the voting form used by your broker.

Q: What if I fail to instruct my broker?

A: If you do not provide your broker with instructions, your broker generally will not be permitted to vote your shares on the merger proposal or any other proposal (a so-called broker non-vote) at the Scottsdale special meeting. Because the affirmative vote of two-thirds of outstanding Scottsdale shares is necessary to approve the merger, any broker non-votes submitted by brokers or nominees in connection with the special meeting will in effect be a vote against the merger.

Q: What constitutes a quorum for the Scottsdale special meeting?

A: As of the Scottsdale record date, 50,718 shares of Scottsdale common stock were issued and outstanding, each of which will be entitled to one vote at the meeting. Under Scottdale s bylaws, the presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business at the special meeting. If you vote by proxy, your shares will be included for determining the presence of a quorum. Both abstentions and broker non-votes are also included for determining the presence of a quorum.

Q: Assuming the presence of a quorum, what is the vote required to approve the matters to be considered at the Scottsdale special meeting?

A: The affirmative vote, in person or by proxy, of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock is required to approve the merger agreement. Because the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the holders of outstanding shares of Scottsdale is required to approve the merger agreement, abstentions and broker non-votes with respect to the merger agreement will effectively act as no votes on such proposal.

Q: Do any of Scottsdale's directors or executive officers have interests in the merger that may differ from those of Scottsdale shareholders?

A: Scottsdale's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of Scottsdale shareholders generally. The members of Scottsdale's board of directors were aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating the merger agreement and the merger, and in recommending that Scottsdale shareholders approve the merger agreement. For a description of these interests, refer to the section entitled Interests of Scottsdale's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page 72 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: Do I have appraisal or dissenters' rights?

A: Yes. Under Pennsylvania law, Scottsdale shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger agreement and the merger and to receive a payment in cash for the fair value of their shares of Scottsdale common stock as determined by an appraisal process. This value may be more or less than the value you would receive in the merger if you do not dissent. If you dissent, you will receive a cash payment for the value of your shares that will be fully taxable to you. To perfect your dissenters' rights, you must follow precisely the required statutory procedures. See Scottsdale Shareholders Have Dissenters' Rights in the Merger beginning on page 69.

Q: Can I attend the Scottsdale special meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All shareholders, including shareholders of record and those who hold their shares through banks, brokers, nominees or any other holder of record, are invited to attend the special meeting. Holders of record of Scottsdale common stock can vote in person at the special meeting. If you are not a shareholder of record, you must obtain a proxy, executed in your favor, from the record holder of your shares, such as a broker, bank or other nominee, to be able to vote in person at the special meeting. If you plan to attend the special meeting, you must hold your shares in your own name or have a letter from the record holder of your shares confirming your ownership and you must bring a form of personal photo identification with you in order to be admitted. We reserve the right to refuse admittance to anyone without proper proof of share ownership and without proper photo identification.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before it is voted by (1) signing and returning a proxy card with a later date, (2) delivering a written revocation letter to Scottdale's Corporate Secretary, or (3) attending the special meeting in person and voting by ballot at the special meeting. The mailing address for Scottdale's Corporate Secretary is The Scottdale Bank & Trust Company, 150 Pittsburgh Street, Scottdale, Pennsylvania 15683, Attention: Robert B. Ferguson.

Any shareholder entitled to vote in person at the special meeting may vote in person regardless of whether a proxy has been previously given, and such vote will revoke any previous proxy, but the mere presence of a shareholder at the special meeting will not constitute revocation of a previously given proxy. A shareholder may change his or her vote up and until the time that votes are counted but not thereafter.

Q: How will proxies be solicited and who will bear the cost of soliciting votes for the Scottsdale special meeting?

A: Scottsdale will bear the cost of preparing and assembling these proxy materials for the Scottsdale special meeting. The cost of printing and mailing these proxy materials will be shared equally between Mid Penn and Scottsdale. The solicitation of proxies or votes for the Scottsdale special meeting may also be made in person, by telephone, or by electronic communication by Scottsdale's directors, officers, and employees, none of whom will receive any additional compensation for such solicitation activities. In addition, Scottsdale may reimburse brokerage firms and other persons representing beneficial owners of shares for their expenses in forwarding solicitation material to such beneficial owners.

A: No. Other than the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, no additional matters can be presented for a vote at the special meeting.

Q: Are there risks that I should consider in deciding whether to vote to approve the merger agreement?

A: Yes. You should consider the risk factors set out in the section entitled Risk Factors beginning on page 33 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q: What if I hold stock of both Mid Penn and Scottsdale?

A: If you hold shares of both Mid Penn and Scottsdale, you will receive two separate packages of proxy materials. A vote as a Scottsdale shareholder for the merger proposal or any other proposals to be considered at the Scottsdale special meeting will not constitute a vote as a Mid Penn shareholder for the merger proposal or any other proposals to be considered at the Mid Penn special meeting, and vice versa. Therefore, please sign, date and return all proxy cards that you receive, whether from Mid Penn or Scottsdale, or submit separate proxies as both a Mid Penn shareholder and a Scottsdale shareholder as instructed.

Q: Should I send in my Scottsdale stock certificates now?

A: No, please do NOT return your stock certificate(s) with your proxy. You will be provided separately an election form and instructions regarding the surrender of your stock certificates. You should then, prior to the election deadline, send your Scottsdale stock certificates to the exchange agent, together with your completed and signed election form.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have additional questions?

A: If you are a Scottdale shareholder and have any questions about the merger, need assistance in submitting your proxy or voting your shares of Scottdale common stock, or if you need additional copies of this document or the enclosed proxy card, you should contact:

Scottdale Shareholders Will Receive Shares of Mid Penn Common Stock and/or Cash in the Merger Depending on Their Election and Any Proration (page 73).

Upon completion of the merger, each outstanding share of Scottdale common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, will be converted into the right to receive either (i) $1,166 in cash or (ii) a ratio of a share of Mid Penn common stock determined by dividing (y) $1,166 by (z) the 10 trading day per share volume-weighted average price for Mid Penn common stock ending on the date that is five business days prior to the closing of the merger provided that in no event may the exchange ratio be less than 38.88 or greater than 44.86, respectively, which we refer to as the stock consideration. Scottdale shareholders may elect to receive all cash, all stock or cash for some of their shares and stock for the remainder of the shares they own. The total number of shares of Scottsdale common stock that will be converted into the cash consideration is up to 10% of the total number of shares of Scottsdale stock outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger, and the remaining shares of Scottsdale common stock will be converted into the stock consideration. As a result, if the aggregate number of shares with respect to which a valid cash election has been made exceeds these limits, shareholders who elected cash consideration that has been oversubscribed will receive a mixture of both cash and stock consideration in accordance with the proration procedures set forth in the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The value of the cash consideration is fixed at $1,166. On March 28, 2017, which was the last trading date preceding the public announcement of the proposed merger, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $27.25 per share. Based upon this price equaling the Average Price with respect to the stock consideration, upon completion of the merger, the exchange ratio would be 42.79. On September 29, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day prior to the printing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of Mid Penn common stock was $29.40 per share, which would result in an exchange ratio of 39.92. If the Average Price of Mid Penn's common stock is between $25.99 and $29.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for Mid Penn common stock worth $1,166 based on the Average Price. If the Average Price for Mid Penn's common stock is below $25.99 then each share of Scottsdale common stock will be entitled to be exchanged for 44.86 shares of Mid Penn common stock, valued at less than $1,166 based on the Average Price. The market price of both Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock will fluctuate before the completion of the merger, including from the Average Price; therefore, you are urged to obtain current market quotations for Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale common stock. The value of the stock consideration will fluctuate as the market price of Mid Penn common stock fluctuates before the completion of the merger. The market price of Mid Penn common stock at closing will not be known at the time of the Scottsdale special meeting and may be more or less than the current price of Mid Penn common stock or the price of Mid Penn common stock at the time of the Scottsdale special meeting or at the time an election is made.

The following table shows (i) hypothetical Average Prices of Mid Penn common stock with respect to the stock consideration, upon completion of the merger, (ii) the corresponding exchange ratio, (iii) the equivalent value of the merger consideration per share of Scottsdale common stock, calculated by multiplying the applicable Average Price by an exchange ratio of Mid Penn common stock that Scottsdale shareholders would receive in the merger for each share of Scottsdale common stock, and (iv) the per share cash consideration.

In Order To Make a Valid Election, Scottsdale Shareholders Must Properly Complete and Deliver the Election Form that Will Be Sent Separately (page 74)

Scottsdale shareholders will receive separately an election form, including transmittal materials, with instructions for making cash and stock elections. Scottsdale shareholders must properly complete and deliver to the exchange agent an election form along with their stock certificates (or a properly completed notice of guaranteed delivery). The election form will also include delivery instructions with respect to any shares they may hold in book-entry form. Scottsdale shareholders should NOT send their stock certificates with their proxy card.

Table of ContentsExpected Material United States Federal Income Tax Treatment as a Result of the Merger (page 86)

The merger is structured to be treated as a reorganization for United States federal income tax purposes. Each of Mid Penn and Scottsdale has conditioned the consummation of the merger on its receipt of a legal opinion that this will be the case. The federal tax consequences of the merger to shareholders of Scottsdale will depend primarily on whether they exchange their Scottsdale common stock solely for Mid Penn common stock, solely for cash or for a combination of Mid Penn common stock and cash. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares solely for Mid Penn common stock should not recognize gain or loss except with respect to the cash they receive instead of a fractional share. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares solely for cash should recognize gain or loss on the exchange. Scottsdale shareholders who exchange their shares for a combination of Mid Penn common stock and cash should recognize gain, but not any loss, on the exchange. The actual federal income tax consequences to Scottsdale shareholders of electing to receive cash, Mid Penn common stock or a combination of cash and stock will not be ascertainable at the time Scottsdale shareholders make their election because it will not be known at that time how, or to what extent, the allocation and proration procedures will apply.

This tax treatment may not apply to all Scottsdale shareholders. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to Scottsdale shareholders can be complicated. Scottsdale shareholders should consult their own tax advisor for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences that are particular to each shareholder.

Exceptions to these conclusions or other considerations may apply, some of which are discussed beginning on page 86. Determining the actual tax consequences of the merger to a Scottsdale shareholder can be complicated. For further information, please refer to Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger on page 86. Scottsdale shareholders should also consult their own tax advisors for a full understanding of the federal income tax and other tax consequences of the merger as they apply specifically to them.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (page 86)

The merger will be treated as a business combination using the acquisition method of accounting with Mid Penn treated as the acquiror under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, or US GAAP.

Following completion of the merger, assuming Scottsdale shareholders elect to convert 10% of the total outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock into cash and 90% of the total outstanding shares of Scottsdale common stock into Mid Penn stock, current Mid Penn shareholders will own in the aggregate 69.9% of the outstanding shares of Mid Penn common stock and Scottsdale shareholders will own approximately 30.1% of the outstanding shares of Mid Penn common stock. Scottsdale shareholders' ownership in Mid Penn would be proportionately greater if holders of more than 90% of Scottsdale's shares elected shares of Mid Penn common stock.

Ambassador's opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Scottsdale to engage in the merger, the form or structure of the merger, the relative merits of the merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Scottsdale or the effect of any other transaction in which Scottsdale might engage. Ambassador did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the merger by Scottsdale's officers, directors, or employees, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the compensation to be received in the merger by any other shareholder of Scottsdale.

The Mid Penn board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Mid Penn and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. The Mid Penn board of directors recommends that Mid Penn shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the agreement and plan of merger. The Scottsdale Board of Directors Recommends That Scottsdale Shareholders Vote FOR Approval and Adoption of the Agreement and Plan of Merger (page 172)

The Scottsdale board of directors believes that the merger is in the best interests of Scottsdale and its shareholders and has unanimously approved the merger and the merger agreement. The Scottsdale board of directors recommends that Scottsdale shareholders vote FOR approval and adoption of the agreement and plan of merger. The Scottsdale board also recommends that its shareholders vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies.

Scottsdale's Directors and Executive Officers Have Financial Interests in the Merger that May Differ from the Interests of Scottsdale Shareholders (page 72)

In addition to their interests as Scottsdale shareholders, the directors and certain executive officers of Scottsdale have interests in the merger that are different from or in addition to interests of other Scottsdale shareholders. For purposes of the relevant Scottsdale agreements and plans, the completion of the merger will constitute a change in control. These additional interests may create potential conflicts of interest and cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than a Scottsdale shareholder may view it. The financial interests of Scottsdale's directors and executive officers in the merger include the following:

the appointment, effective at the closing of the merger, of Donald F. Kiefer or a mutually agreed upon qualified replacement candidate to the board of directors of Mid Penn Mid Penn Bank and the payment of compensation to such individual in accordance with the policies of Mid Penn, which currently consists of the following payments to each of its non-employee directors: an annual retainer of $18,000, a fee of $500 for each board meeting attended, and between $500 and $300 for each committee meeting attended, depending on the committee;

the continued indemnification of current directors and executive officers of Scottsdale and its subsidiaries pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement;

the retention of certain executive officers of Scottsdale, and payment of compensation to such executive officers, pursuant to settlement agreements between Mid Penn and each of them that will become effective at the closing of the merger; and certain of Scottsdale's named executive officers will be entitled to severance, change-in-control or other benefits and payments upon the closing of the merger.

Scottsdale's board of directors was aware of these interests and took them into account in its decision to approve the agreement and plan of merger. For information concerning these interests, please see the discussion on page 72 under the caption The Merger Interests of Scottsdale's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger. For more information concerning the closing conditions of the merger, please see the discussion on page 77 under the caption The Merger Agreement Covenants and Agreements.

Scottsdale Shareholders' Dissenters' Rights to Appraisal Rights

Shareholders of Scottsdale will have appraisal or dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. See Scottsdale Shareholders Have Dissenters' Rights in the Merger beginning on page 69.

The Rights of Scottsdale Shareholders Will Change After the Merger (page 197)

The rights of Scottsdale shareholders will change as a result of the merger due to differences in Mid Penn's and Scottsdale's governing documents. The rights of Scottsdale's shareholders are governed by Scottsdale's articles of incorporation and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, Scottsdale shareholders will be governed under Pennsylvania law and Mid Penn's articles of incorporation and bylaws. A description of shareholder rights under each of the Mid Penn and Scottsdale governing documents, and the material differences between them, is included in the section entitled Comparison of Shareholders' Rights found on page 197.

Conditions That Must Be Satisfied or Waived for the Merger to Occur (page 84)

Currently, we expect to complete the merger by the fourth quarter of 2017. In addition to the approval of the merger proposal by the requisite vote of Mid Penn and Scottsdale shareholders and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals and expiration or termination of all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof, each as described herein, each party's obligation to complete the merger is also subject to the satisfaction or waiver (to the extent permitted under applicable law) of certain other conditions, including the effectiveness of the registration statement containing this joint proxy statement/prospectus, approval of the listing on the Nasdaq of the Mid Penn common stock to be issued in the merger, the absence of any applicable law or order prohibiting the merger, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party under the merger agreement (subject to the materiality standards set forth in the merger agreement), the performance by the other party of its respective obligations under the merger agreement in all material respects, delivery of officer certificates by the other party certifying satisfaction of the two preceding conditions and each of Mid Penn's and Scottsdale's receipt of a tax opinion to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Neither Scottdale nor Mid Penn can be certain when, or if, the conditions to the merger will be satisfied or waived, or that the merger will be completed.

No Solicitation of Other Offers (page 81)

Scottdale has agreed that it will not, and Scottdale will cause its subsidiaries and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, representatives, agents, and affiliates not to, between the date of the merger agreement and the closing of the merger, directly or indirectly:

initiate, solicit, induce or knowingly encourage, or take any action to facilitate the making of, any inquiry, offer or proposal that constitutes, relates or could reasonably be expected to lead to an alternative acquisition proposal;

recommend or endorse an alternative acquisition transaction;

participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding an alternative acquisition proposal, or furnish or afford access to information or data to any person;

release anyone from, waive any provisions of, or fail to enforce any confidentiality agreement or standstill agreement to which Scottdale is a party; or enter into any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent with respect to any alternative acquisition proposal or approve or resolve to approve any alternative acquisition proposal or any agreement, agreement in principle or letter of intent relating to an alternative acquisition proposal.

The merger agreement does not, however, prohibit Scottdale from furnishing information or access to a third party who has made an alternative acquisition proposal and participating in discussions and negotiating with such person prior to the receipt of shareholder approval if specified conditions are met. Among those conditions is a good faith determination by Scottdale's board of directors that the acquisition proposal constitutes or that could reasonably be expected to lead to a proposal that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, to Scottdale and its shareholders than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and is reasonably capable of being completed on its stated terms, taking into account all financial, regulatory, legal and other aspects of the proposal.

For further discussion of the restrictions on solicitation of acquisition proposals from third parties, see The Merger Agreement Agreement Not to Solicit Other Offers beginning on page 81.

We may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even after Scottdale or Mid Penn shareholder approval. In addition, either of us may decide to terminate the merger agreement, if (i) a court or governmental entity issues a final order that is not appealable prohibiting the merger, (ii) a bank regulator which must grant a regulatory approval as a condition to the merger denies such approval of the merger and such denial has become final and is not appealable, (iii) the shareholders of Mid Penn or Scottdale fail to approve the merger at their respective special meetings, or (iv) the other party breaches the merger agreement in a way that would entitle the party seeking to terminate the agreement not to consummate the merger, subject to the right of the breaching party to cure the breach within 30 days following written notice. Either of us may terminate the merger agreement if the merger has not been completed by March 31, 2018, unless the reason the merger has not been completed by that date is a breach of the merger agreement by the company seeking to terminate the merger agreement.

Mid Penn may terminate the merger agreement if the Scottsdale board of directors, in connection with the receipt of an alternative acquisition proposal, (1) enters into a letter of intent, agreement in principle or an acquisition agreement with respect to the alternative acquisition proposal, (2) fails to make, withdraws, modifies or qualifies its recommendation of the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Mid Penn, or (3) has otherwise made a determination to accept the alternative acquisition proposal.

Table of Contents

Scottdale may terminate the merger agreement if Scottdale receives an alternative acquisition proposal and has made a determination to accept the alternative acquisition proposal. Scottdale may also terminate the merger agreement within five days of the later of (i) the date on which all regulatory approvals, and waivers, if applicable, necessary for consummation of the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement have been received or (ii) the date of the meeting of Scottdale shareholders (the Determination Date), if Scottdale's board determines that each of the following have occurred:

the average of the daily closing sale prices of a share of Mid Penn common stock as reported on Nasdaq for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date (the Determination Date Market Value) is less than $19.50; and the decrease in the price of Mid Penn common stock is more than 20% greater than the decrease in the SNL Small Cap Bank & Thrift Index during the same period.

However, if Scottdale chooses to exercise this termination right, Mid Penn has the option, within five business days of receipt of notice from Scottdale, to adjust the merger consideration and prevent termination under this provision.

Termination Fee (page 85)

Scottdale will pay Mid Penn a termination fee of $2,365,500 if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Mid Penn because Scottdale has received an alternative acquisition proposal, and Scottdale (1) enters into a letter of intent, agreement in principle or an acquisition agreement with respect to the alternative acquisition proposal, (2) fails to make, withdraws, modifies or qualifies its recommendation of the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Mid Penn, or (3) has otherwise made a determination to accept the alternative acquisition proposal; or by Scottdale, if Scottdale receives an alternative acquisition proposal and has made a determination to accept the alternative acquisition proposal in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Expense Reimbursement Fee (page 85)

Scottdale will pay Mid Penn an expense reimbursement fee equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of Mid Penn's actual and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement or (ii) $500,000 if the merger is terminated by Mid Penn as a result of the failure of the shareholders of Scottdale to approve the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and, prior to the Scottdale shareholders' meeting, any person shall have proposed or publicly announced an acquisition proposal for Scottdale.

Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger (page 71)

Completion of the merger and the bank merger are subject to the receipt of all approvals required to complete the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the FRB), the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC) and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and Securities (the PDB).

Notifications and/or applications requesting approval may also be submitted to various other federal and state regulatory authorities and self-regulatory organizations. Mid Penn and Scottdale have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all required regulatory approvals. Mid Penn, Scottdale and Lawrence Keister & Company have filed applications and notifications to obtain these regulatory approvals.

Although we currently believe that we should be able to obtain all required regulatory approvals in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if we will obtain them or, if obtained, whether they will contain terms, conditions or restrictions not currently contemplated that will be detrimental to Mid Penn after the completion of the merger or will contain a materially burdensome regulatory condition. The regulatory approvals to which completion of the merger is subject are described in more detail in the section entitled The Merger Regulatory Approvals Required for the Merger, beginning on page 71.

Investigation by Scottsdale's Special Committee (page 71)

Shortly after the parties entered into the merger agreement, an employee and board member at Scottdale presented information to management of Scottdale and Mid Penn regarding a stock trade in the last quarter of 2016 by an individual who was alleged to have access to material inside information. This was relayed to the full Scottdale board of director which then took action by forming a committee, comprised solely of outside directors, which we refer to as the special committee, to investigate the allegations. The special committee was authorized to, and did, retain independent counsel, the Washington D.C. office of Murphy & McGonigle, which we refer to as M&M, to assist in the investigation. M&M had no prior relationship with Scottdale.

The special committee communicated to Scottdale and Mid Penn that two shares, acquired from a retiring Scottdale employee (not the trade that formed the basis of the original investigation), appeared to have been transacted in violation of applicable federal securities laws. As to that trade, the special committee report identified multiple mitigating circumstances including that this transaction was consistent with ordinary course of conduct for stock purchases from retiring employees and the purchaser, on its own volition, immediately after announcement of the merger, remitted additional cash to the seller to increase the amount paid to equal the stock value identified in the merger agreement.

This matter has been reported to the independent auditors of both Scottdale and Mid Penn and has been reported to the SEC by Scottdale. The special committee's investigation is described in more detail in the section entitled The Merger Investigation by Scottdale's Special Committee, beginning on page 71.

Risk Factors (page 33)

You should consider all the information contained in or incorporated by reference into this joint proxy statement/prospectus in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in the joint proxy statement/prospectus. In particular, you should consider the factors described under Risk Factors.
