Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 8, 2019, Autoliv, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that Mats Backman notified the Company of his intent to resign from his position as the Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President, Finance of the Company. Mr. Backman's resignation will be effective no later than the expiration of a six-month notice period, or July 8, 2019, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. His departure is not due to any disagreement between Mr. Backman and the Company relating to the Company's financial reporting or condition, policies or practices. Mr. Backman is entitled to his normal compensation through the duration of his employment. The Company has agreed to waive Mr. Backman's non-competition covenant and will not make any payments to him with respect to such covenant.

Christian Hanke, Vice President, Corporate Controller of the Company, will serve as the Company's Interim Chief Financial Officer after the departure of Mr. Backman while the Company completes its search process for a permanent Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Hanke, age 50, has served as the Company's Vice President, Corporate Controller since November 2016. Prior to that, Mr. Hanke served as Vice President Financial Controller Head of Non-US Accounting Operations and Financial Control of Nasdaq in Stockholm, Sweden from April 2013 to November 2016.

No new compensatory or severance arrangements were entered into in connection with Mr. Hanke's appointment as Interim Chief Financial Officer. There are no related party transactions between the Company and Mr. Hanke and no family relationships between Mr. Hanke and any of the directors or officers of the Company.

A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.
