Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure

Under the Norwegian Securities Trading Act, a Cayman subsidiary of Hercules Offshore, Inc. (the “Company”) made a mandatory cash tender offer for all remaining shares of Discovery Offshore S.A. (“Discovery”) that were not owned by the Company or its affiliates. The offer expired on August 12, 2013, and the Company received valid acceptances of the offer with respect to 2,054,989 shares. As a result, the Company and its affiliates owned approximately 98.8% of Discovery's outstanding shares upon the expiration of the mandatory offer on August 12, 2013. The Company has exercised its rights to acquire the remaining shares pursuant to Luxembourg Law. Accordingly, as of August 15, 2013, the Company acquired as a matter of law the shares not tendered in the offer on the same terms as the offer and owns 100% of the shares of Discovery.

Discovery is a development stage company whose purpose is to own new ultra high specification jackup drilling rigs. As a result of the acquisition of Discovery, two ultra high specification rigs, Discovery Triumph and Discovery Resilience, are included in the Company's International Offshore segment.
