Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition

On May 11, 2006, on the day following the filing of our Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2006, we issued a press release concerning the results of operations and financial condition of the company. The text of the press release is filed as an exhibit to this Form 8-K.

Item 3.01(a) Notice of Delisting or failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

We received written notification from the Nasdaq Stock Market on December 22, 2005 that the bid price of our common stock for 30 consecutive trading days had closed below the minimum $1.00 per share required for continued listing under Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(4). Pursuant to Nasdaq Marketplace Rule 4310(c)(8)(D), the Company was provided an initial period of 180 calendar days, or until June 20, 2006, to regain compliance. The Company will achieve compliance with the Rule if at any time before June 20, 2006 the bid price of the Company's common stock closes at $1.00 per share or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days.

If the Company's stock does not achieve this level of performance by June 20, 2006, the Staff will determine whether the Company meets the Nasdaq Capital Market initial listing criteria as set forth in Marketplace Rule 4310(c), except for the bid price requirement. FONAR currently complies with these requirements. Such being the case, the Company will be granted an additional 180 calendar days to comply. Following the second 180 day compliance period, the Company will still have the right to appeal delisting if its stock price has not recovered.
