Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

As previously reported, on June 28, 2016, First Midwest Bancorp, Inc., a Delaware corporation (“First Midwest”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the “Merger Agreement”) with Standard Bancshares, Inc., an Illinois corporation (“Standard”) and Benjamin Acquisition Corporation, an Illinois corporation and a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of First Midwest (“Merger Sub”). The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein, Merger Sub will merge with and into Standard (the “Merger”), with Standard as the surviving corporation in the Merger. Immediately thereafter, Standard will merge with and into First Midwest (the “Parent Merger” and, together with the Merger, the “Mergers”). Following the Parent Merger, at a time to be determined by First Midwest, Standard Bank & Trust Company, an Illinois state chartered bank and wholly owned subsidiary of Standard, will merge with and into First Midwest Bank, an Illinois state chartered bank and a wholly owned subsidiary of First Midwest, with First Midwest Bank as the surviving bank (the “Bank Merger”). The Merger Agreement was unanimously approved by the Board of Directors of each of First Midwest, Standard and Merger Sub. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the effective time of the Merger (the “Effective Time”), holders of Standard voting common stock and non-voting common stock will have the right to receive 0.435 of a share of First Midwest common stock, par value $0.01 per share (the “Per Common Share Consideration”), for each share of Standard common stock, subject to adjustment if certain environmental conditions and/or title defects exist with respect to Standard’s real property and the total after-tax cost to remediate and/or cure such conditions or defects is greater than $2,000,000.

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, at the Effective Time, each outstanding Standard stock settled right will be redeemed at a redemption price per stock settled right calculated as the amount by which the following clause (1) exceeds clause (2), where: (1) is the sum of (x) the product of the Per Common Share Consideration and $17.99 and (y) all cash dividends paid on a share of Standard common stock from February 22, 2013 until the Effective Time; and (2) is $4.65, accreting on a daily basis at a rate of 12% from February 22, 2013 until three days after the date on which (A) First Midwest has received all required regulatory approvals, (B) Standard has received all required approvals from its shareholders and (C) Standard has otherwise satisfied or is capable of satisfying its conditions to closing. In addition, at the Effective Time, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, each outstanding stock option to purchase shares of Standard common stock that is outstanding and unexercised as of immediately prior to the Effective Time (“Standard Stock Option”) will be cancelled and terminated and each Standard Stock Option will represent the right to receive from First Midwest an amount in cash equal to the excess, if any, of (1) the product of (A) the Per Common Share Consideration and (B) the per share volume weighted average price of the First Midwest common stock on NASDAQ from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the fifteen (15) trading days immediately preceding the closing date of the Merger over (2) the exercise price of such Standard Stock Option. As of the date of the Merger Agreement, Standard had 48,416,265 shares of outstanding voting common stock and non-voting common stock, 5,327,782 outstanding Standard Stock Options and 7,293,407 outstanding stock settled rights.

The Merger Agreement contains customary representations and warranties from both First Midwest and Standard, and each party has agreed to customary covenants, including, among others, covenants relating to (1) the conduct of First Midwest’s and Standard’s respective businesses during the interim period between the execution of the Merger Agreement and the Effective Time, (2) the obligation of Standard to call a meeting of its shareholders to adopt the Merger Agreement and certain other shareholder matters and to recommend that its shareholders adopt the Merger Agreement and such matters, (3) the obligation of First Midwest to call a meeting of its stockholders to approve the issuance of First Midwest common stock as consideration in the Merger and to recommend that its stockholders approve such issuance and (4) Standard’s non-solicitation obligations relating to alternative acquisition proposals. The completion of the Merger is subject to customary conditions, including, among others, (1) the adoption of the Merger Agreement and certain other shareholder matters by Standard's shareholders and the approval by First Midwest's stockholders of the issuance of First Midwest common stock in connection therewith, (2) authorization for listing on the NASDAQ of the shares of First Midwest common stock to be issued in the Merger, (3) the effectiveness of the registration statement on Form S-4 for the First Midwest common stock to be issued in the Merger, (4) the absence of any order, injunction or other legal restraint preventing the completion of the Merger, the Bank Merger or any other transaction contemplated in the Merger Agreement, (5) the receipt of required regulatory approvals, including the approval of the Federal Reserve and the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation and (6) that Standard's tangible common equity and consolidated loans at closing exceed minimum thresholds set forth in the Merger Agreement. Each party's obligation to complete the Merger is also subject to certain additional customary conditions, including (i) subject to certain exceptions, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the other party, (ii) performance in all material respects by the other party of its obligations under the Merger Agreement and (iii) receipt by such party of an opinion from its counsel to the effect that the Mergers, taken together, will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

The Merger Agreement provides certain termination rights for both First Midwest and Standard and further provides that a termination fee of $15 million will be payable to First Midwest by Standard in connection with the termination of the Merger Agreement under certain circumstances.

The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement, which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The representations, warranties and covenants of each party set forth in the Merger Agreement have been made only for purposes of, and were and are solely for the benefit of the parties to, the Merger Agreement, may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Merger Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors.

Accordingly, the representations and warranties may not describe the actual state of affairs at the date they were made or at any other time, and investors should not rely on them as statements of fact. In addition, such representations and warranties (1) will not survive consummation of the Merger, unless otherwise specified therein, and (2) were made only as of the date of the Merger Agreement or such other date as is specified in the Merger Agreement. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the parties' public disclosures. Accordingly, the Merger Agreement is included with this filing only to provide investors with information regarding the terms of the Merger Agreement, and not to provide investors with any other factual information regarding First Midwest or Standard, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses. The Merger Agreement should not be read alone, but should instead be read in conjunction with the other information regarding First Midwest, Standard, their respective affiliates or their respective businesses, the Merger Agreement and the Merger that will be contained in, or incorporated by reference into, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 that will include a Joint Proxy Statement of First Midwest and Standard and a Prospectus of First Midwest, as well as in the Forms 10-K, Forms 10-Q and other filings that First Midwest makes with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

Each Standard director and certain shareholders of Standard have executed voting agreements pursuant to which they have agreed to vote their Standard shares in favor of the Merger Agreement and the other shareholder matters to be approved at the Standard shareholder meeting. Shares subject to such voting agreements represent approximately 52.0% of the outstanding Standard voting common stock and 97.2% of the outstanding Standard non-voting common stock. The voting agreements entered into by certain principal shareholders of Standard (the "Principal Shareholders"), that hold approximately 51.4% of the outstanding Standard voting common stock and 97.2% of the outstanding Standard non-voting common stock, prohibit the transfer by the Principal Shareholders of shares of First Midwest common stock that they receive as consideration in the Merger for a period of 60 days following the closing of the Merger. The Principal Shareholders are also limited in their manner of transfer of the First Midwest common stock they hold to block trades and to brokerage transactions on any given day in an amount less than or equal to 20% of the average daily trading volume of the First Midwest common stock for the 20-trading day period immediately preceding the date of the transfer. Finally, the voting agreements entered into by certain of the Principal Shareholders include standstill obligations that are effective until the time that they hold less than 20% of the First Midwest common stock that they acquired in the Merger.
