LOGIC Devices Incorporated

Notes to Condensed Financial Statements

(unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements reflect all adjustments that are, in the opinion of management, necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows of LOGIC Devices Incorporated (the Company) for the periods indicated.

The accompanying unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions for Form 10-Q, and, therefore, do not include all information and footnotes necessary for a complete presentation of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the Company, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. The Company has filed audited financial statements that include all information and footnotes necessary for such a presentation of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2010 and 2009, with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). It is suggested that the accompanying unaudited interim financial statements be read in conjunction with the aforementioned audited financial statements. In the opinion of management, the unaudited interim financial statements reflect all adjustments (consisting of normal and recurring accruals) necessary to make the results of operations for the interim periods a fair statement of such operations. The results of operations for the interim period ended December 31, 2010 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full fiscal year to end September 30, 2011.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. This contemplates that assets will be realized and liabilities and commitments satisfied in the normal course of business. We have incurred operating losses in the past four years and require additional funds to maintain our operations. The Company's continuance of operations is contingent on raising additional working capital, and on the increase of revenues from new product introductions. Accordingly, these factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company is currently negotiating with several parties to provide debt and equity financing sufficient to finance corporate operations and provide working capital for the next twelve months. Although there is no assurance that management's plans will be realized, management believes that the Company will be able to continue operations in the future. The financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets, or the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary in the event the Company cannot continue operating as a going concern.

2. Inventories

A summary of inventories follows:

Finished goods	733,900	690,200
	1,009,500	$ 963,600

3. Shareholders Equity and Related Party Transactions

The Company issues options to purchase common stock to its employees, certain consultants, and certain of its board members. Options are generally granted with an exercise price equal to the closing market value of a common share at the date of grant, have five- to ten-year terms and typically vest over periods ranging from immediately to three years from the date of grant. There are 1,070,000 authorized shares remaining for granting of future options.

The estimated fair value of equity-based awards, less expected forfeitures, is amortized over the awards' vesting period on a straight-line basis. Share-based compensation expense recognized in the statements of operations for quarter ended December 31, 2009 related to common stock option grants was $6,800 (fair value of $1.00 per share). There was no compensation expense related to common stock options in the quarter ended December 31, 2010 as no options were granted.

During the quarter ended December 31, 2010, the Company raised $175,000 through four private placements to the Company's president and chairman of the board, as detailed below:

	# of Shares	Amount
To chairman of the board, November 9, 2010	62,500	$ 50,000
To president, December 6, 2010	83,333	50,000
To chairman of the board, December 9, 2010	75,758	50,000
To president, December 27, 2010	39,062	25,000
	260,653	$ 175,000

These shares have not been registered with the SEC. However, the Company's president and chairman of the board received demand registration rights, subject to certain limitations, and unlimited piggyback registration rights, with respect to the shares. The Company is only obligated to use its best efforts to obtain an effective registration statement.

4. Earnings Per Share

Edgar Filing: LOGIC DEVICES Inc - Form 10-Q

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net income by the weighted average common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the net incremental shares that would be issued if dilutive outstanding stock options were exercised, using the treasury stock method. In the case of a net loss, no incremental shares would be issued because they are antidilutive. Stock options with exercise prices above the average market price during the period are also antidilutive.

There were 280,000 and 394,500 common stock options outstanding at December 31, 2010 and 2009, respectively. For the quarter ended December 31, 2009, the Company had 55,299 dilutive common shares as the weighted average price of the Company's common stock during the quarter was $1.39. No options were considered in calculating the diluted loss per share for the quarter ended December 31, 2010, as their effect would have been antidilutive. As a result, for the quarter ended December 31, 2010, the Company's basic and diluted loss per share are the same.

5. Subsequent Events

The Company raised $125,000 through private placements to the Company's president on January 13, 2011 (64,935 shares for $50,000) and January 25, 2011 (60,241 shares for $50,000) and to a board member on January 31, 2011 (27,778 shares for $25,000). These shares have not been registered with the SEC. However, the Company's president and board member received demand registration rights, subject to certain limitations, and unlimited piggyback registration rights, with respect to the shares. The Company is only obligated to use its best efforts to obtain an effective registration statement.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Reported financial results may not be indicative of the financial results of future periods. All non-historical information contained in the following discussion constitutes forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Words such as anticipates, appears, expects, intends, hopes, plans, believes, seeks, estimates, may, will, and variations of these words or similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve a number of risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to operating results, new product introductions and sales, competitive conditions, customer demand, capital expenditures and resources, manufacturing capacity utilization, and intellectual property claims and defense. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially are included in, but not limited to, those identified in "Item 1A Risk Factors" in the Annual Report on Form 10-K for our fiscal year ended September 30, 2009 and in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in such Annual Report on Form 10-K and in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. We undertake no obligation to publicly release the results of any revisions to these forward-looking statements that may reflect events or circumstances after the date of this report.

Results of Operations

For the quarter ended December 31, 2010, our net revenues decreased by $897,400 (81%) compared to the same quarter of fiscal 2010. This decrease was primarily the result of older products continuing to decline with newer products not making up the difference. We do not anticipate this revenue decrease trend to continue as the new products begin to contribute to revenues. We are seeing an increase in interest and inquiry regarding our newer products. In addition, bookings and quoting activity for military programs has recently increased.

Our cost of revenues for the quarter ended December 31, 2010 decreased $315,900 (73%) compared to the same quarter of fiscal 2010. This decrease is the result of the decrease in net revenues.

Research and development expenditures decreased $75,800 (28%) as we reduced staffing. In addition, there were higher prototype expenses in the prior fiscal year. Sales, general, and administrative expenditures decreased $21,300 (7%) compared to the same period of fiscal 2010. Unfortunately, there are many fixed operating expenses that we cannot reduce any further. In addition, our annual audit expenses are highest during this first quarter of fiscal 2011.

As a result of the lower net revenues not being offset by reductions in expenses, we have a net loss of $406,500 for the first quarter of fiscal 2011 compared to a net income of $83,600 in the same quarter of fiscal 2010.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash Flows

Despite a net loss of $406,500 for the quarter ended December 31, 2010, our net cash used by operations was $260,200, as some expenses were non-cash items, such as depreciation. We used $45,900 of cash to increase inventory for new products and $26,500 to reduce accrued payroll and vacation, while accounts receivable provided $66,400 of cash. During the quarter, we received $175,000 from private placements of our common stock while we invested $37,400 and $58,700 for capital expenditures and capitalized test software development, respectively.

While our net income for the quarter ended December 31, 2009 was $83,600, our net cash provided by operations was $310,700, primarily from the sale of existing inventory. During the quarter, we used $146,300 for capital expenditures, including mask tooling for new products.

Working Capital

Historically, due to order scheduling by our customers, up to 60% of our quarterly revenues are often shipped in the last month of the quarter, so a large portion of shipments included in our quarter-end accounts receivable are not yet due per our net 30 day terms. As a result, quarter-end accounts receivable balances are typically at their highest level for the respective period.

As a fabless semiconductor company with products having longer than normal product life cycles, our investment in inventories has been, and will continue to be, significant. Although high levels of inventory impact liquidity, we believe these costs are a less costly alternative to owning a wafer fabrication facility. Over the past few years, we have attempted to streamline our product offerings, in turn reducing our inventory levels. Going forward, we will need to produce more inventory for new product offerings, while selling off existing inventory. Therefore, our goal is to keep our inventory levels relatively consistent with their current state.

Financing

Cost reductions over the past few years have allowed us to generate enough cash from operations to fund current operations and capital expenditures. As we have multiple new products being introduced, our capital requirements have increased, while cash on-hand and cash from operations is not sufficient to meet these increased demands.

As such, our continuance of operations may depend on raising additional working capital, and on the increase of revenues from new product introductions. Accordingly, these factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company is currently exploring debt and equity financing to provide working capital for the next twelve months. There is no assurance that management's plans will be realized.

Impact of New Financial Accounting Standards

In January 2010, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued amended standards that require additional fair value disclosures. These disclosure requirements are effective in two phases. In the first quarter of 2010, we adopted the requirements for disclosures about inputs and valuation techniques used to measure fair value as well as disclosures about significant transfers. During this first quarter of 2011, these amended standards required presentation of disaggregated activity within the reconciliation for fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (Level 3). These amended standards do not affect our statements of operations or balance sheets.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk

We conduct all of our transactions, including those with foreign suppliers and customers, in U.S. dollars. We are therefore not directly subject to the risks of foreign currency fluctuations and do not hedge or otherwise deal in currency instruments in an attempt to minimize such risks. Demand from foreign customers and the ability or willingness of foreign suppliers to perform their obligations to us may be affected by the relative change in value of such customer or supplier's domestic currency to the value of the U.S. dollar. Furthermore, changes in the relative value of the U.S. dollar may change the price of our products relative to the prices of our foreign competitors.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

Based upon an evaluation as of December 31, 2010, our President and Chief Financial Officer concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective. There have been no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the quarter ended December 31, 2010 that materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Part II OTHER INFORMATION

Item 1. Legal Proceedings

From time to time, we receive demands from various parties asserting patent or other claims in the ordinary course of business. These demands are often not based on any specific knowledge of our products or operations. Because of the uncertainties inherent in litigation, the outcome of any such claim, including simply the cost of a successful defense against such a claim, could have a material adverse impact on us.

Item 1A. Risk Factors

There are no other material changes to the risk factors disclosed in our Form 10-K filed with SEC on December 27, 2010 for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2010.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

During the quarter ended December 31, 2010, the Company raised $175,000 through four private placements aggregating 260,653 shares of Common Stock to the Company's president and chairman of the board. In January 2011, the Company raised an additional $100,000 through two private placements aggregating 125,176 shares of Common Stock to the Company's president and $25,000 through one private placement of

Edgar Filing: LOGIC DEVICES Inc - Form 10-Q

27,778 shares of Common Stock to a Company board member. These private placements were to help fund operations.

Item 3. Defaults Upon Senior Securities
