of changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). Such persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms filed by such persons.

Based on a review of the copies of these reports received by the Company and written representations from certain reporting persons that they have complied with the relevant filing requirements, the Company believes that all filing requirements have been complied with on a timely basis for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Director Independence

The Board has determined that Carlos C. Campbell, S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq., Richard D. Ruppert, MD, Kenneth J. Slepicka, and John D. Weil are “independent directors” as defined by listing standards for the Nasdaq Global Market. Concurrently with each regularly scheduled meeting of the Board, the independent directors have executive session meetings at which only the independent directors are present.

Committees of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors has three standing committees: an Audit Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee. The following table sets forth the three standing committees of the Board, the members of each committee during the last fiscal year and the number of meetings held by each committee.

Name of Director	Audit	Compensation	Nominating
Carlos C. Campbell	P	P	P
S. Walter Foulkrod, III, Esq.	P
John R. Hart			P
Richard D. Ruppert, MD	Chair	P
Ronald Langley			Chair
Kenneth J. Slepicka	P	P
John D. Weil		Chair
Number of Committee Meetings in 2006	6	2	1

The Audit Committee consists of Dr. Ruppert (Chairman) and Messrs. Campbell, Foulkrod, and Slepicka, none of whom has been or is an officer or employee of the Company. Each member of the Audit Committee in the judgment of the Board is independent as that term is defined in the listing standards for the Nasdaq Global Market. In 2006, this Committee met six times. The functions of the Audit Committee include reviewing the accounting principles and practices employed by the Company and its subsidiaries; meeting with the Company’s independent auditors to review their reports on their audits of the Company’s financial statements, their comments on the internal accounting controls of the Company and the action taken by management with regard to such comments; reviewing auditor independence; issuing an Audit Committee report to shareholders; and the appointment of the Company’s independent auditors. The Audit Committee has the authority, in its discretion, to order interim and unscheduled audits and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Board. A copy of the Committee’s Charter is posted on the Company’s website at www.picoholdings.com.

Audit Committee Financial Expert

Pursuant to Section 407 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Board of the Company has determined that Richard D. Ruppert, MD is qualified as an audit committee financial expert as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 407 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Dr. Ruppert is independent as defined in Regulation S-K, Item 407, of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The Nominating Committee will consider candidates recommended by shareholders, when submitted in writing along with the candidate's resume and any other relevant information. A copy of the Nominating Committee's Charter is posted on the Company's website at www.picoholdings.com.

ITEM 11. EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Overview

Our compensation programs are designed to support our business goals and promote both short-term and long-term growth. This section of the proxy statement explains how our compensation programs are designed and operate in practice with respect to the Company's Named Executive Officers. Our Named Executive Officers are the chief executive officer, chief financial officer, and the three most highly compensated executive officers in a particular year.

The Compensation Committee of the Board determines the compensation for our executive officers. Our executive officers have broad job responsibilities and policy making authority for the Company. The Committee reviews and determines all components of executive officers' compensation including making individual compensation decisions and reviewing and revising executive officer compensation as appropriate.

Our Compensation Philosophy and Programs

Our compensation philosophy centers around the principle of aligning pay and performance. Total compensation varies with individual performance and the Company's performance in achieving objectives. The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan is designed to ensure that executive compensation is aligned with the long-term interests of our shareholders. The Compensation Committee and our management team believe that compensation should help to recruit, retain and motivate the employees upon whom we will depend for current and future success. The following key design priorities that govern compensation decisions reflect our compensation philosophy:

- pay for performance
- recruitment, retention and motivation of the highest quality employees
- alignment with the interests of our various constituencies including shareholders and employees
 - promoting excellent corporate governance

Each element of compensation reflects one or more of the above design priorities. Total compensation for the Named Executive Officers consists of the following components: (i) base salary, (ii) annual incentive awards, (iii) long-term incentives, (iv) retirement benefits, and (v) insurance and other benefits.

The Role of the Compensation Committee in Determining Executive Compensation

The Compensation Committee of the Company is a standing committee. The Committee is composed entirely of independent Directors, determined in accord with Nasdaq Global Market listing rules. John D. Weil is Chairman of the Committee, and the other Committee members are Carlos C. Campbell, Richard D. Ruppert, MD, and Kenneth J. Slepicka.

The Compensation Committee oversees and administers the Company's executive compensation program. The role of the Committee is to oversee the Company's compensation and benefit plans and policies, administer the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (including reviewing and approving grants of awards under the 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan), and to review and approve annually the compensation and incentive awards paid to the Company's officers. The Committee is responsible for assuring that all of the executive compensation decisions of the Company are developed, implemented, and administered in a way that support the Company's fundamental philosophy that a significant portion of executive compensation should be linked to Company performance.

The Compensation Committee recognizes the importance of maintaining sound principles for the development, maintenance, and administration of compensation and benefit programs, and has taken steps to enhance the Company's ability to carry out its responsibilities. Examples of these steps include:

- The Compensation Committee has periodically retained independent compensation experts, when deemed necessary by the Committee. The Committee has in the past retained William M. Mercer, Incorporated and The Bankers Bank as independent compensation experts.

These independent compensation experts do not advise the Company's management, and do not receive any fees from the Company other than consulting fees for advice rendered to the Committee.

- In March 2007 the Compensation Committee adopted a Charter, which was subsequently unanimously approved by the Board. A copy of the Compensation Committee's Charter is posted on the Company's website at www.picoholdings.com.
- The Committee's members are appointed annually by the Chairman, and the appointments are ratified by the full Board.

The Compensation Committee meets on a regularly scheduled basis and as required. It reviews and approves the executive compensation program, including base salary and incentive awards. It reviews and approves individual executive officer compensation packages based on recommendations of the Company's Chief Executive Officer. As discussed below, the Committee, after consulting with The Bankers Bank in 2005, recommended that Ronald Langley, Chairman, and John R. Hart, President and Chief Executive Officer, be offered new employment agreements with the Company beginning January 1, 2006 for a period of five years. These Employment Agreements provide for the base salary, and a formula to determine an annual incentive award, for both Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart. No other Named Executive Officer of the Company has an employment agreement.

Goals of Compensation Program

The Compensation Committee attempts to align compensation of the Named Executive Officers with the value achieved by the Named Executive Officers ("NEOs") for the Company's shareholders. The Company's compensation program for the NEOs consists of a combination of (i) base salary, (ii) annual incentive awards, and (iii) long-term incentives designed to attract, retain, and motivate executives who will maximize shareholder value. The Committee considers individual and Company performance, as well as compensation paid by comparable companies.

The NEOs also participate in other employee benefit programs at the same levels of benefits which are available to all of the Company's employees, including health insurance, group life insurance, and the Company's 401(k) Plan.

Elements of Compensation

· Base Salary

As stated previously, the Compensation Committee, in consultation with The Bankers Bank, an independent compensation expert, developed new Employment Agreements for Ronald Langley, Chairman, and John R. Hart, President and Chief Executive Officer. Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart entered into these new Employment Agreements (together, the "Employment Agreements") beginning January 1, 2006 for a period of five years, i.e., through and including December 31, 2010. The base salary for the initial year, i.e., 2006, of each Employment Agreement was $1,075,000, and is subject to annual adjustment in January of each subsequent year.

The $1,075,000 base salary in each Employment Agreement is subject to annual adjustment in January of each year in the same percentage applicable to the Company's other staff members in an amount deemed adequate to provide for cost of living, subject to the Committee's approval, based on several major compensation studies.

The base salary for the other three NEOs - Richard H. Sharpe, Chief Operating Officer, Maxim C. W. Webb, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, and W. Raymond Webb, Vice President, Investments, is recommended to the Committee on an annual basis by the Company's Chief Executive Officer. None of Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, or Mr. Raymond Webb has an Employment Agreement. The Chief Executive Officer's recommendation is based on base salaries for comparable companies paid for positions of similar scope and responsibilities.

· Annual Incentive (Bonus) Awards

As recommended by the Compensation Committee's independent compensation consultant, The Bankers Bank, in 2005, the Employment Agreements of Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart each contain an identical incentive award, or bonus, provision. The incentive award is based on the growth of book value per share each fiscal year. An incentive award is earned by Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart when a pre-determined threshold is surpassed. Each Employment Agreement establishes this threshold as 80% of the S&P 500's annualized total return for the previous five calendar years. If the growth in book value per share of the Company in a fiscal year exceeds this threshold, the incentive award under each Employment Agreement is equal to 5% of the increase in book value per share multiplied by the number of shares outstanding at the beginning of the fiscal year.

For the incentive award based on 2006 performance, which was paid in March 2007, the threshold, i.e., 80% of the S&P's annualized total return for the five previous calendar years, including 2006, was 4.95%. Since the Company's book value per share increased by 14% in 2006 prior to the accrual of bonus incentive compensation, a bonus of $2,115,635 each was paid in March 2007 for 2006 to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart.

As previously stated, the three other NEOs - Richard H. Sharpe, Chief Operating Officer, Maxim C. W. Webb, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer, and W. Raymond Webb, Vice President, Investments do not have employment agreements. However, each year that an incentive award is earned under the Employment Agreements of Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart, the Company's Chief Executive Officer recommends to the Committee that a discretionary incentive award be paid to Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb.

The Chief Executive Officer's recommendation for past years has been that Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb each receive an incentive award based on the incentive formula in the Employment Agreements described above and in the same ratio of salary to bonus as paid to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart. The Chief Executive Officer's recommendations for incentive awards to Mr. Sharpe, Mr. Maxim C. W. Webb, and Mr. Raymond Webb are discretionary with the Chief Executive Officer and are subject to approval by the Committee.

· Long-Term Incentives

As recommended by the Committee, the Company utilized cash-settled stock appreciation rights beginning with the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program (the "Program") as approved by the Company's shareholders on July 17, 2003 to incentives directors, officers, consultants, and certain employees. The primary purpose of these stock appreciation rights was to encourage the holders of stock appreciation rights to increase shareholders' equity by providing a mechanism whereby the holders could participate in increased shareholders equity.

The Bankers Bank recommended to the Compensation Committee amending the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program and instituting the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program was amended on September 21, 2005 by the Compensation Committee. Pursuant to the Compensation Committee's action on September 21, 2005, all outstanding cash-settled stock appreciation rights were monetized to stop future appreciation; as a result, there are no outstanding cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program. Prior to the Committee's September 21, 2005 action to amend the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation Rights Program, all the cash-settled stock appreciation rights granted in the Program were fully vested.

The PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan ("Plan") was recommended by the Compensation Committee after consulting with The Bankers Bank. It was approved by the Company's shareholders on December 8, 2005. The Plan permits awards to be made by the Compensation Committee to participants in various forms including freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, stock options, restricted stock, performance awards, deferred compensation awards, and other stock-based awards. On December 12, 2005, the Compensation Committee awarded grants of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights to the NEOs, the nonemployee directors, and various other employees (see Outstanding Equity Awards at Fiscal Year End). The Compensation Committee believes that the Plan will closely align the interests of management with shareholders by incentivizing management to increase shareholders' equity and book value per share.

The purpose of the Plan is to advance the interests of the Company and its shareholders by providing a variety of incentives for employees, officers (including the NEOs), consultants, and nonemployee directors to increase shareholders' equity and provide a mechanism whereby the participants in the Plan will be able to participate in an increase in share price. The Plan seeks to achieve this by providing for grants of awards in various forms including stock options, freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights, restricted stock, performance shares, performance units, restricted stock units, deferred compensation awards, and other forms of stock-based awards, although it is not anticipated that all these forms of awards will be granted simultaneously.

The Committee awarded Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart the same number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2005 Plan as they had cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2003 Program, i.e., 838,356 each. The Committee, as recommended by the Company's Chief Executive Officer, increased the number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights awarded under the 2005 Plan to the other NEOs compared to the number of cash-settled stock appreciation rights under the 2003 Program.

· Retirement Plans

The Company maintains the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust, which complies with the provisions of the Employment Retirement Income Security Act. The NEOs have the opportunity to participate in this 401(k) Plan on the same basis as all other employees.

· Insurance and Other Benefits

The Company maintains health insurance, life insurance, dental insurance, vision insurance, and disability insurance for all employees, including the NEOs, on a nondiscriminatory basis. The Company also provides paid parking for employees in its La Jolla, California office.

The Compensation Committee has considered the provisions of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code and related income tax regulations which restrict the deduction for certain compensation paid to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and each of the four most highly compensated officers holding office at the end of any year. In view of the Company's compensation structure, the Committee believes that any amount of salary and bonus paid in excess of $1,000,000 to any one individual will not qualify for a corporate tax deduction for the amount over $1,000,000. The Compensation Committee will continue to monitor the Company's compensation structure in light of the provisions of Section 162(m).

The Compensation Committee has never established guidelines or requirements for ownership of the Company's stock. Therefore there is no policy relative to lodging the economic risk of such stock ownership.

The Compensation Committee has never engaged in benchmarking either total compensation or any material element of compensation.

The Compensation Committee meets as appropriate to discuss compensation, incentive awards, and grants under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan. The Company's Secretary, who is not an NEO, usually attends for the purpose of documenting the meeting. Once the Compensation Committee makes a decision, e.g., to institute a long-term incentive plan, the Company's NEOs will become involved and will work with outside legal and tax experts to design a plan, subject to the Compensation Committee's approval.

The Company has a severance policy applicable to all officers in which each officer who is terminated for other than cause will receive a severance payment equal to two weeks of salary for each full year of employment. However, this severance payment is not applicable to Mr. Langley and Mr. Hart; pursuant to the terms of their January 1, 2006 Employment Agreements, the termination payment provisions in each Employment Agreement are in lieu of the Company's standard severance payment.

All the Company's NEOs have the opportunity to defer compensation into deferred compensation plans established by the Company; see Nonqualified Deferred Compensation Table.

Compensation Committee Report

The Compensation Committee has reviewed and discussed the Compensation Discussion and Analysis above with management. Based on that review and discussion, the Compensation Committee has recommended to the Board, and the Board has approved, that this Report be included in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006.

(2) This refers to the incentive awards paid to the NEOs; please see the Compensation Discussion and Analysis in the Executive Compensation Report.

(3) This refers to awards granted by the Compensation Committee on December 12, 2005 under the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2005 Long-Term Incentive Plan (“Incentive Plan”). The Incentive Plan was approved by the Company’s shareholders on December 8, 2005. On December 12, 2005, the Compensation Committee granted the following number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights to the NEOs: Ronald Langley, 838,356; John R. Hart, 838,356; Richard H. Sharpe, 190,454; Maxim C. W. Webb, 163,799; and W. Raymond Webb, 60,000. The exercise price was established by the Compensation Committee as $33.76 for each freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation right, which was the closing price for the Company’s stock on the Nasdaq Global Market on December 12, 2005. Each freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation right was fully vested on December 12, 2005 and each expires on December 12, 2015. The dollar values shown in the Stock Awards column represent the full FAS 123R grant date fair value of the freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights awarded to the NEOs by the Compensation Committee on December 12, 2005. The number of shares to be issued to a NEO who exercises freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights will be based on the net exercise value (i.e., the market value price per share of the Company’s stock on the date of exercise, minus the exercise price of $33.76) times the number of freestanding stock-settled stock appreciation rights exercised, minus applicable taxes.

(4) This represents contributions made by the Company for the NEOs to the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust. None of the life insurance premiums paid by the Company for any one NEO exceeded $10,000 in 2006, 2005, or 2004 and the Company’s health insurance plans do not discriminate in favor of the NEOs and are available to all employees.

(5) This represents amounts attributable to cash-settled stock appreciation rights granted to the NEOs on July 17, 2003, pursuant to shareholder of the PICO Holdings, Inc. 2003 Stock Appreciation-Rights Program (the “Program”). On September 21, 2005, the Compensation Committee decided that amending the Program was in the best interest of the Company and its shareholders. Under the terms of the September 21, 2005 amendment to the Program, each holder of cash-settled stock appreciation rights, including the NEOs monetized the difference between his or her exercise prices for the cash-settled stock appreciation rights and the September 21, 2005 closing price of $33.23 for the Company’s stock on the Nasdaq Global Market. Prior to the Compensation Committee’s September 21, 2005 action to amend the Program, all cash-settled stock appreciation rights were fully vested. After September 21, 2005, no cash-settled stock appreciation rights were outstanding or available for grant under the Program. Based on the September 21, 2005 closing price on the Nasdaq Global Market for the Company’s common stock, the NEOs realized the following values when the cash-settled stock appreciation rights in the Program were monetized on September 21, 2005: Ronald Langley, $15,625,170; John R. Hart, $17,851,842; Richard H. Sharpe, $2,559,120; Maxim C. W. Webb, $1,315,491; and W. Raymond Webb, $583,360. Of these amounts the NEOs elected to defer the following amounts: Ronald Langley, $15,625,170; John R. Hart, $17,851,842; Richard H. Sharpe, $2,047,296; Maxim C. W. Webb, 1,315,491; W. Raymond Webb, $583,360. Also included are amounts contributed by the Company for the NEOs to the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust in the following amounts: Ronald Langley, $18,500; John R. Hart, $20,625; Richard H. Sharpe, $24,201; Maxim C. W. Webb, $27,034; W. Raymond Webb, $21,231.

(6) This represents contributions made by the Company for the NEOs to the PICO Holdings, Inc. 401(k) Employees Retirement Plan and Trust.

Each Employment Agreement provides for annual compensation of $1,075,000, subject to annual adjustment in January of each year in the same percentage applicable to the Company’s other staff members in an amount deemed adequate to provide for cost of living, subject to the Compensation Committee’s approval, based on several major compensation studies; see Executive Compensation Report.

(1) The Company permits the NEO's to defer salary, bonus, and other cash compensation, pursuant to federal rules. In 2006 Ronald Langley chose not to defer any compensation including the March 2007 bonus paid based on 2006 performance; John R. Hart chose to receive $500,000 in cash immediately and to defer the remainder of the March 2007 bonus paid based on 2006 performance; Richard H. Amounts reported in the Aggregate Earnings in 2006 represent earnings on assets subject to the Company's deferred compensation plan. Because such earnings are earned at rates that are not above market, these amounts are not reported as compensation for 2006 in the Summary Compensation Table. Amounts reported in the Aggregate Balance on December 31, 2006 column consist of deferred compensation which has been reported as compensation in prior years. The earnings on deferred compensation have not been reported as compensation in 2006, 2005, or 2004.

(3) The only contributions to deferred compensation for the NEOs are from their voluntary deferrals of salary, bonus, and other cash compensation. The Company does not make additional contributions.

(4)The Company does not have above-market or preferential earnings on its nonqualified deferred compensation.

(6)This includes bonuses paid in March 2007 based on the Company's performance in 2006.
