ROYAL CARIBBEAN IMPROVES EARNINGS ESTIMATES

MIAMI - October 11, 2002 - Royal Caribbean Cruises Ltd. (NYSE, OSE: RCL) today

Edgar Filing: ROYAL CARIBBEAN CRUISES LTD - Form 6-K

provided an update on the current outlook for bookings and yields. During 2002, as booking patterns improved, analysts have raised their earnings estimates, which currently average $0.85 for the third quarter. Since the company's last update, bookings have continued to strengthen and costs have fallen. As a result, the company now expects reported third quarter earnings to be in the range of $0.98 to $0.99 per share, including a charge of $20 million, or $0.10 per share recorded in connection with a previously disclosed potential litigation settlement. The better-than-expected earnings are the results of an improved revenue environment and higher-than-anticipated cost savings. Net yields (net revenue per available passenger cruise day) for the quarter were down about 1.7% from the third quarter of 2001. The third quarter's lower costs were the results of the company's continued focus on cost savings, as well as the timing of certain expenses that will now be incurred in the fourth quarter.

Bookings for the fourth quarter continue to meet the company's expectations, but the pattern of customers booking their cruises late also continues. The fourth quarter is traditionally the weakest quarter and the most difficult to predict. The trend to later bookings exacerbates the difficulty of forecasting results. The company hopes to be able to absorb the impact of the previously mentioned shift in costs between quarters and still meet fourth quarter consensus. Management now anticipates that yields for the full year will be down about 1% to 2%. Full year earnings for 2002 are expected to be in the range of $1.55 to $1.60 per share, including the settlement charge referred to above. All figures mentioned do not include any amounts related to the proposed DLC combination with P&O Princess.

The company intends to provide more information on the outlook after it finishes the quarter's financial close. The company's earnings release will be issued on October 23, 2002. A conference call with analysts has been scheduled for 10 a.m. that day, and can be heard by all interested parties at the company's investor relations web site, www.rclinvestor.com.

Visual aids relating to the call also will be available at the web site. A replay of the webcast will be available at the same site for a month following the call.
