Board and Committee Meetings

The Board of Directors held four regular meetings and nine special meetings during the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, and acted five times by unanimous written consent. The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, an Employee Stock Option Committee, a Compensation Committee and a Nominating Committee. With the appointment of Roger Noall in January 2003 as a new member of the Audit Committee, the Audit Committee now is comprised of three members. The Audit Committee reviews our disclosure controls and internal accounting procedures and consults with and reviews the services provided by our independent accountants. The Audit Committee is authorized to conduct such reviews and examinations as it deems necessary or desirable with respect to the practices and procedures of the independent accountants, the scope of the annual audit, accounting controls, practices and policies, and the relationship between us and our independent accountants, including the availability of our records, information and personnel. Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee did not meet as a formal committee during the last fiscal year. The Nominating Committee is generally responsible for establishing general qualification guidelines applicable to nominees to the Board of Directors, and for identifying, interviewing and recommending persons meeting such guidelines to serve as members of the Board of Directors. SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires our executive officers and directors, and persons who own more than 10% of a registered class of our equity securities, to file certain reports regarding ownership of, and transactions in, our securities with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such executive officers, directors and 10% stockholders are also required by Securities and Exchange Commission rules to furnish us with copies of all Section 16(a) forms that they file. Based solely on our review of the copies of such forms that we have received, or written representations from certain reporting persons, we believe that for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2002, all reporting persons complied with Section 16(a) filing requirements except that Randy Gottfried inadvertently filed an incorrect Form 3 with respect to his beneficial ownership of our equity securities which was corrected in a subsequent filing.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

Directors do not currently receive any cash compensation from Inktomi for their service as members of the Board of Directors, although they are reimbursed for expenses in connection with attendance at Board and Committee meetings. Under Inktomi's 1998 Stock Plan, nonemployee directors are eligible to receive stock option grants at the discretion of the Board of Directors or other administrators of the plan. In March 2002, the Board of Directors granted Greg Myers an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $4.18 per share in connection with his becoming a member of our Board of Directors. In April 2002, the Board of Directors granted Allen Gula an option to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock at an exercise price of $2.98 per share in connection with his becoming a member of our Board of Directors. In September 2002, the Board of Directors granted options to purchase 100,000 shares of Common Stock to each of Allen Gula and Greg Myers at an exercise price of $0.43 per share in connection with their continued service as members of the Board of Directors. EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS, TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE OF

CONTROL PLANS AND AGREEMENTS

Inktomi has an employment agreement with David C. Peterschmidt, its President and Chief Executive Officer. The agreement provides for an initial annual salary of $150,000. The agreement is for no specified length of term, and either party has the right to terminate the agreement at any time with or without cause. The agreement does not provide for any mandatory severance, although Inktomi has the right to continue to pay Mr. Peterschmidt his then current salary for up to 12 months following termination of employment, in which case Mr. Peterschmidt may not compete against Inktomi for such time period.

Inktomi had an employment agreement with Edward A. Hally, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Network Products. The agreement was for no specified length of term, and either party had the right to terminate the agreement at any time with or without cause. The agreement provided that if Mr. Hally was terminated without cause then he was entitled to continue receiving pay at his then current monthly salary for a period of six months from the date of termination. In April 2002, Mr. Hally signed a release in connection with his termination wherein Mr. Hally waived compliance with his employment agreement in return for (i) an 8 month paid leave of absence, (ii) the forgiveness of an employee loan made to Mr. Hally in the amount of $1,735,000, and (iii) a cash payment of $992,273 used to offset, in part, tax incurred by Mr. Hally in connection with the forgiveness of the employee loan.

Table of Contents

Inktomi had an employment agreement with Keyur Patel, Inktomi's Senior Vice-President and Chief Strategy Officer that provided for an initial base salary of $350,000. In addition, Mr. Patel was entitled to participate in Inktomi's Management Bonus Plan with a target annual bonus of 65% of his base salary, payable on a quarterly basis. The agreement was for no specified length of term and either party had the right to terminate the agreement at any time with or without cause. The agreement also provided that if Mr. Patel's employment was terminated (either by Mr. Patel or Inktomi) following an acquisition of Inktomi by a third party, or a change in Inktomi's CEO position, then Mr. Patel would be entitled to a lump sum payment equal to the amount of salary and bonus Mr. Patel would have received had he been employed through April 2003. In December 2002, Mr. Patel signed a release in connection with his termination wherein Mr. Patel waived compliance with his employment agreement in return for a lump sum payment of $245,808.

Under each of Inktomi's stock option plans, all shares under the options are immediately exercisable; however, as a condition of exercise, the optionee must enter into a stock restriction agreement giving Inktomi the right in the event of any termination of employment to repurchase all then unvested shares. Each of Inktomi's stock option plans also provide that each outstanding option will fully vest in the event an optionee is terminated from employment without cause within twelve months of a change of control of Inktomi.

Each of the executive officers of Inktomi have entered into Management Retention and Change of Control Agreements that provide for full vesting of all outstanding options and restricted stock in the event such executive is constructively terminated within twelve months of a change of control of Inktomi.

These loans are unsecured and are represented by full recourse promissory notes accruing interest at the rate of 6% per annum. Each loan, plus any accrued unpaid interest, will become due the earlier of either two years from the grant date of the individual loan or the date that our Chief Executive Officer leaves the Company. All after tax proceeds of compensatory bonuses and 50% of after tax proceeds from sales of Company stock must be used to pay down the loans outstanding. The first loans will become due in December 2003.

Each of our executive officers has entered into Management Retention and Change of Control Agreements that provide for full vesting of all outstanding options and restricted stock in the event such executive is constructively terminated within twelve months of a change of control of Inktomi.
