Item 2. IDENTITY AND BACKGROUND

Wallace R. Weitz & Company ("Weitz & Co."), a Nebraska corporation, is an investment adviser registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended. Weitz & Co. provides investment advice to certain investment limited partnerships, individual advisory accounts and registered investment companies. The principal office of Weitz & Co. is One Pacific Place, 1125 South 103rd Street, Suite 600, Omaha, Nebraska 68124.

The Securities to which this statement relates were acquired on behalf of investment advisory clients of Weitz & Co., under sole discretionary authority granted to Weitz & Co by such advisory clients. None of the Securities are owned by or on behalf of Weitz & Co. or by any officer or director of Weitz & Co.

This statement is also being filed by Wallace R. Weitz, President and primary owner of Weitz & Co., in the event he could be deemed to be an indirect beneficial owner of the Securities reported by Weitz & Co. through the exercise of voting control and/or dispositive power over the Securities as a result of his official positions or ownership of the voting securities of Weitz & Co. Neither Weitz & Co. nor Mr. Weitz owns any Securities for its or his own account and each disclaims beneficial interest in any of the Securities reported in the statement.

Weitz & Co. and Mr. Weitz are referred to collectively in this statement as the "Reporting Persons".

During the past five years none of the Reporting Persons has been convicted in a criminal proceeding or been a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body involving any alleged violations of any securities laws.

Schedule I which is attached to this statement and incorporated herein sets forth the names, business addresses and principal occupations of each director and officer of Weitz & Co.

Schedule II which is attached to this statement and incorporated herein includes a letter sent by Weitz & Co. on May 19, 2009 to the management of Telephone & Data Systems, Inc.

clients and not the assets of Weitz & Co. None of the funds used to purchase the Securities were borrowed funds.

Item 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

The Securities reported in this statement were acquired in the ordinary course of business by Weitz & Co. on behalf of its investment advisory clients for investment purposes with the goal of capital appreciation. The Securities are reported by Weitz & Co. and Mr. Weitz, President of Weitz & Co. in the event that either should be deemed to be a member of a group under Section 13(d)(3) or the beneficial owner of the Securities under the provisions of subparagraph (b) of Rule 13d-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Beneficial ownership by Weitz & Co. and Mr. Weitz as members of a group or as beneficial owners is expressly disclaimed, as permitted by Rule 13d-4. Weitz & Co. may from time to time acquire additional Securities on behalf of advisory clients or dispose of all or a portion of the current holdings of Securities.

Weitz & Co. is engaged in the business of investment management and pursues an investment philosophy of identifying undervalued situations and acquiring positions in undervalued companies on behalf of its advisory clients. In pursuing this investment philosophy, Weitz & Co. analyzes the operations, capital structure and markets of companies in which its clients invest and continuously monitors the business operations of such companies through analysis of financial statements and other public documents, through discussion with knowledgeable industry observers, and with management of such companies, often at management's invitation.

Weitz & Co., as an investment adviser registered under Section 203 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 may elect to file securities ownership reports required by the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 on Schedule 13G. Weitz & Co. routinely uses Schedule 13G to report its beneficial ownership of securities purchased for its advisory clients. As a result of investment analysis and the occurrence of events, Weitz & Co. may desire to participate in discussions with management of a particular company or with third parties about significant matters in which Weitz & Co. may suggest possible courses of action to assist in building corporate intrinsic value per share or to cause a company's true economic value to be recognized. In such situations Weitz & Co. may elect to convert a filing on Schedule 13G to a filing on Schedule 13D in order to be more freely involved with management and to enter into discussions with third parties concerning possible strategic alternatives.

To obtain the necessary flexibility to have such discussions with management, other shareholders and third parties, Weitz & Co. is converting its ownership filing on Schedule 13G to a filing on Schedule 13D. Depending on such discussions and consideration of strategic alternatives, Weitz & Co. could support one or more of the actions described in subparagraphs (a) through (j) of Item 4 of Schedule 13D.

Item 5. INTEREST IN SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

- (a) The aggregate number of Securities owned beneficially by Weitz & Co. is 2,728,200 shares of common stock representing 5.1% of such Securities.

Ted and Walter:

Weitz & Company clients have been TDS shareholders for more than 15 years. We currently own roughly 2.7 million Special Common Shares. As holders of the Special Common, we do not have the right to vote directly on proxy statement Proposal 4 submitted by Southeastern Asset Management. Nonetheless, we would like to voice our support for this Proposal. Further, we agree that a Dutch tender for 20 million shares would be both a prudent and wise investment of shareholders' capital with the stock at these levels.

Thank you for your consideration of this suggestion.
