- (1) To elect five Directors to hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until their respective successors have been duly elected and qualified;
- (2) To consider and approve a new Investment Advisory Agreement between the Fund and Rafferty Capital Markets, LLC;
- (3) To ratify the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Fund for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001; and

Questions and Answers

What proposals am I being asked to vote on?

You are being asked to vote on the following proposals:

1. The election of five Directors
2. To approve a new Investment Advisory Agreement
3. To ratify the appointment of independent public accountants

Have the Directors approved the Proposals?

Yes. The Board of Directors unanimously approved these proposals on February 6, 2000, and recommends that you vote to approve each proposal.

Why is the Fund having a Shareholder Meeting?

Under New York law, the Fund, as a New York corporation, must elect Directors annually. In addition, shareholders must approve the appointment of independent public accountants and investment advisory agreements.

When will the Shareholder Meeting be held?

A Shareholder Meeting will be held on April 10, 2001

Why does the Fund need a new investment advisory agreement?

The 1940 Act requires that shareholders approve investment advisory agreements. The Fund's old investment adviser, U.S. Trust Company of New York, decided last year that they did not want to serve as investment adviser to the Fund. They asked the Fund to find a new adviser, and the Fund has selected Rafferty Capital Markets, LLC. If the selection of Rafferty Capital Markets, LLC is approved, the Fund will terminate the agreement with U. S. Trust Company of New York.

Will the Fund pay greater fees to the new adviser?

No. The new investment advisory agreement is identical to the old investment advisory agreement, except for the name of the adviser and the date. There is no change in the fee provisions.

Why am I being asked to ratify the selection of the Fund's independent public accountants?

The 1940 Act requires that shareholders approve independent public accountants.

How do I vote my shares?

You can vote your shares by completing and signing the enclosed proxy card, and mailing it in the enclosed postage paid envelope. You may also vote your shares by phone at 1-800-_____. If you need assistance,

PROPOSAL 2
THE APPROVAL OF A NEW INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

General Information

United States Trust Company of New York, the Fund's current investment adviser, no longer wants to provide investment management services to the Fund. The Fund believes that this decision is not related to any particular Fund activity, including performance, but represents a business decision on the part of United States Trust Company of New York to focus on different areas of the financial services industry. The Directors seek shareholder approval of a new investment advisory agreement with Rafferty Capital Markets, LLC (the "New Adviser"). If approved, the Fund will terminate its current advisory agreement with United States Trust Company of New York and execute a new investment advisory agreement with the New Adviser.

In order to change investment advisors, a new investment advisory agreement must be approved by shareholder vote. Importantly, at the Meeting, shareholders are being asked to approve a proposed new advisory agreement between the Fund and the New Adviser (the "Proposed Advisory Agreement"). The Board of Directors, including a majority of the independent Directors, approved the Proposed Advisory Agreement at a meeting held on February 6, 2001. A form of the Proposed Advisory Agreement is attached as Appendix A. The Fund will not pay any additional advisory fees under the Proposed Advisory Agreement. If approved, the New Adviser will have the same duties and responsibilities and will receive the same compensation under the Proposed Advisory Agreement as United States Trust Company of New York does under the Fund's current investment advisory agreement.

The Current Advisory Agreement

The Fund's current investment adviser is United States Trust Company of New York (the "Current Adviser"), which has provided investment advisory and administrative services to the Fund since the Fund's commencement of operations on May 15, 1973. The current Advisory Agreement was approved by the Board of Directors on March 14, 2000 and ratified by the shareholders of the Fund on May 9, 2000 ("Current Advisory Agreement").

Under the Current Advisory Agreement, the Current Adviser formulates a continuing program for the management of the assets and resources of the Fund, provides a full range of advice and recommendations, including recommendations regarding specific securities to be purchased or sold by the Fund, and obtains and evaluates statistical, economic and other research information with respect to the economy, business, securities markets and types of securities, all in conformity with the Fund's investment objectives and policies. In addition to providing investment advisory services, the Current Adviser, at its own expense, provides portfolio trading facilities and makes available to the Fund appropriate executive, investment, clerical and other personnel as well as computer and other services for the conduct of its investment business and the administration of its affairs. The Current Adviser compensates all Fund personnel and officers (other than the President) and those Fund Directors who are officers or employees of the Current Adviser. The Current Adviser at its expense also provides the Fund with office space and facilities and business equipment and pays the cost of keeping the Fund's books and records.

For the services rendered and the expenses assumed by the Current Adviser under the Current Advisory Agreement, the Fund pays the Current Adviser an annual fee at the rate of 0.5% of the Fund's net asset value up to and including $100,000,000, 0.4% of such net asset value over $100,000,000 up to and including $200,000,000 and 0.3% of such asset value over $200,000,000. The investment advisory fee is computed quarterly on the basis of the net asset value as of last day of each quarter.

The Fund is responsible for the payment of all its expenses that are not specifically assumed by the Current Adviser under the Current Advisory Agreement. However, in the event in any year the sum of the Fund's expenses (including the Current Adviser's investment advisory fee but excluding interest, taxes and brokerage commissions relating to the purchase or sale of portfolio securities, the Fund's expenses of future public offerings of its shares and extraordinary expenses beyond the control of the Current Adviser) exceed 1 1/2% of the average value of the Fund's net assets during such year up to $30,000,000, plus 1% of the average value of the Fund's net assets during such year in excess of $30,000,000, the Current Adviser is obligated to reimburse the Fund promptly for such excess expenses. In addition, under the Current Advisory Agreement, the Current Adviser is not responsible for any mistake in judgment or in any event whatsoever except for lack of good faith or for any conduct on the part of the Current Adviser constituting a breach of fiduciary duty involving personal misconduct in respect of the Fund, so long as such judgment or other event does not constitute willful malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of the Current Adviser's duties or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the current Advisory Agreement.

Under the Current Advisory Agreement, the Current Adviser is not liable to the Fund for any error of judgment by the Current Adviser or any loss sustained by the Fund except in the case of a breach of fiduciary duty with respect to the receipt of compensation for services (in which case any award of damages will be limited as provided in the 1940 Act) or of willful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of duty.

The terms of the Proposed Advisory Agreement (including the investment advisory fee) are identical to the terms of the Current Advisory Agreement, except that the Proposed Advisory Agreement will continue in effect for two years after its first approval by shareholders, and thereafter from year to year, subject to its annual approval by the Board of Directors.

Description of the Proposed Advisory Agreement

A copy of the Proposed Advisory Agreement is attached to the Proxy Statement as Appendix A. The description of the Proposed Advisory Agreement that follows is qualified in its entirety by reference to Appendix A.

Under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the New Adviser would formulate a continuing program for the management of the assets and resources of the Fund, provide a full range of advice and recommendations, including recommendations regarding specific securities to be purchased or sold by the Fund, and obtain and evaluate statistical, economic and other research information with respect to the economy, business, securities markets and types of securities, all in conformity with the Fund's investment objectives and policies. In addition to providing investment advisory services, the New Adviser, at its own expense, would provide portfolio trading facilities and make available to the Fund appropriate executive, investment, clerical and other personnel as well as computer and other services for the conduct of its investment business and the administration of its affairs. The New Adviser would compensate all Fund personnel and officers (other than the President) and those Fund Directors who are officers or employees of the New Adviser. The New Adviser at its expense would also provide the Fund with office space and facilities and business equipment and pay the cost of keeping the Fund's books and records.

For the services rendered and the expenses assumed by the New Adviser under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the Fund would pay the New Adviser an annual fee at the rate of 0.5% of the Fund's net asset value up to and including $100,000,000, 0.4% of such net asset value over $100,000,000 up to and including $200,000,000 and 0.3% of such asset value over $200,000,000. The investment advisory fee would be computed quarterly on the basis of the net asset value as of last day of each quarter.

The Fund would be responsible for the payment of all its expenses, which are not specifically assumed by the Adviser under the Investment Advisory Agreement. However, in the event in any year the sum of the Fund's expenses (including the Adviser's investment advisory fee but excluding interest, taxes and brokerage commissions relating to the purchase or sale of portfolio securities, the Fund's expenses of future public offerings of its shares and extraordinary expenses beyond the control of the Adviser) were to exceed 1 1/2% of the average value of the Fund's net assets during such year up to $30,000,000, plus 1% of the average value of the Fund's net assets during such year in excess of $30,000,000, the New Adviser would be obligated to reimburse the Fund promptly for such excess expenses. In addition, under the Proposed Advisory Agreement, the New Adviser would not be responsible for any mistake in judgment or in any event whatsoever except for lack of good faith or for any conduct on the part of the New Adviser constituting a breach of fiduciary duty involving personal misconduct in respect of the Fund, so long as such judgment or other event does not constitute wilful malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of the New Adviser's duties or reckless disregard of its obligations and duties under the Proposed Advisory Agreement.

The Proposed Advisory Agreement will be dated April 11, 2001 (or the next day after receipt of shareholder approval). The Proposed Advisory Agreement would continue in effect for two years from April 11, 2001 and thereafter would continue from year to year provided such continuance is specifically approved at least annually (i) by the vote of a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting or by its Board of Directors or (ii) by the vote of a majority of the Directors of the Fund who are not parties to the contract or "interested persons" (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940) of the Fund, or the New Adviser. The Proposed Advisory Agreement is terminable on 60 days' written notice by any party thereto and will terminate automatically if assigned.

The Proposed Advisory Agreement would reserve to the New Adviser all rights to the use of the term "EIS" and the symbol used by the Fund, which appears on the Notice of Annual Meeting. The Proposed Advisory Agreement further provides that if the New Adviser (or an organization which has succeeded to the business of the New Adviser) ceases to be the investment adviser to the Fund, the Fund will cease to use in its name the term "EIS" or any name suggesting that the Fund is or has been advised by the New Adviser, and the use of such symbol.

The foregoing description of the Proposed Advisory Agreement does not purport to be complete but contains a summary of the material provisions thereof. The complete Proposed Advisory Agreement is attached as Appendix A.

No officer or member of the Fund is an officer, employee or shareholder of the New Adviser or owns securities or has any other material direct or indirect interest in the New Adviser or any other person controlling, controlled by or under common control with the New Adviser. The New Adviser renders investment advisory and related services to clients other than the Fund, including other investment companies, with similar or different investment objectives and policies.

The Evaluation by the Board of Directors

At a meeting held on February 6, 2001, the Directors of the Fund considered information with respect to whether the Proposed Advisory Agreement with the New Adviser was in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders. As in the past, the Board of Directors of the Fund considered the nature and quality of services expected to be provided by the New Adviser and information regarding fees, expense ratios and performance. In evaluating the New Adviser's ability to provide services to the Fund, the Directors considered the management experience and other information as to the New Adviser's business organization, financial resources and personnel. The Directors noted that the Proposed Advisory Agreement is substantially the same as the Current Advisory Agreement (except as noted above) and that the contractual advisory fee rate payable by the Fund under the Proposed Advisory Agreement would be identical to that payable under the Current Advisory Agreement. The Directors also considered that the New Advisor has voluntarily agreed to waive 0.25% on the first $100,000,000 of assets of the Fund. (The voluntary waiver by the New Advisor was arranged with Firststar Mutual Fund Services, LLC ("Firststar") so that Firststar can be compensated for fund administration and compliance, fund accounting, custody, and transfer agency services. Firststar will arrange separate service agreements for each of the above-mentioned services with the Fund.) With respect to the provisions of the Proposed Advisory Agreement regarding use of employees and affiliates of the Adviser, the Directors considered that such provisions would allow the Adviser to use the best talent within its organization to provide services to the Fund. Finally, the Directors considered that the provision permitting them to approve an amendment to the Proposed Advisory Agreement unless shareholder approval was required under the 1940 Act was permitted by current law and would provide the Fund with the flexibility to make non-material changes to the agreement without the expense of a shareholder vote.

Based upon its review, the Board of Directors of the Fund concluded that the Proposed Advisory Agreement with the New Adviser is reasonable, fair and in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders, and that the fees provided in the Proposed Advisory Agreement are fair and reasonable in light of the usual and customary charges made by others for services of the same nature and quality.

Approval of the Proposed Advisory Agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of (i) 67% of the Fund's voting securities, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the Fund's outstanding voting securities are present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting or (ii) a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities, whichever is less.

The Board of Directors of the Fund recommends that you vote FOR approval of the new investment advisory agreement.

TO RATIFY THE APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee of the Board of Directors recommends, and the Board of Directors of the Fund, including a majority of those Directors who are not "interested persons" of the Fund, has selected PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP to act as the independent certified public accountants of the Fund for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has no material direct or indirect financial interest in the Fund. Management expects that representatives of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP will be present at the Meeting with the opportunity to make a statement if they desire to do so and to respond to appropriate questions.

PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has served as auditors since April of 1995. During the year ended December 31, 2000, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP was engaged by the Fund: (1) to examine its financial statements as of December 31, 2000; (2) to assist and consult with the Fund in connection with the preparation of the Fund's reports on Forms N-SAR and N-2 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission; and (3) to assist and consult with the Fund on tax matters.

For audit services rendered in connection with the Fund, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has been paid $19,751. Audit services included auditing the Fund's year-end financial statements and review of financial statements. PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP has not performed financial information systems design and implementation services, or any other services, other than audit services for the Fund.

The ratification of the selection of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as auditors of the Fund requires the affirmative vote of the holders of (i) 67% of the Fund's voting securities, as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, present and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting, if the holders of more than 50% of the Fund's outstanding voting securities are present or represented by proxy at the Annual Meeting or (ii) a majority of the Fund's outstanding voting securities, whichever is less.

The Board of Directors recommends that you vote FOR ratification of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as the independent certified public accountants of the Fund.

PROPOSAL 4 OTHER MATTERS

The Board of Directors knows of no other matters to be presented at the Meeting other than those set forth in this Proxy Statement. If, however, any other business should properly come before the Meeting, the persons named on the accompanying proxy card will vote on such matters in accordance with their best judgment.

Part 3 - More on Proxy Voting:

Record Date

Only shareholders of record of the Fund at the close of business on the Record Date, February 21, 2001, are entitled to receive notice of the Meeting and may vote at the Meeting. As of the close of business on February 21, 2001, _____ shares of Common Stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Fund were issued and outstanding. Each share is entitled to one vote at the Meeting and each fractional share is entitled to a fractional vote. To the knowledge of the Fund, no person is the beneficial owner of more than 5% of the Fund's outstanding shares. Karpus Management Inc. d/b/a Karpus Investment Management, is the record owner of more than 5% of the Fund's shares, but the Fund understands that it is not the beneficial owner of those shares.

Quorum

At least 51% of the Fund's shareholders must be present at the Meeting in person or by proxy to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business by the Fund. If a quorum of shareholders is not present, the persons named as proxies will have the power to adjourn the Meeting. The Meeting shall be reconvened without additional notice within a period not to exceed 60 days from April 10, 2001, the date originally set for the Meeting. If a quorum is present, but sufficient votes to approve a proposal are not received, the persons named as proxies may propose one or more adjournments of the Meeting to permit further solicitation of proxies. Any such adjournment will require the affirmative vote of a majority of those shares voted at the Meeting. A shareholder vote may be taken on one or more of the proposals in this Proxy Statement prior to any adjournment if a quorum is present and sufficient votes have been received.

If a proxy represents a broker "non-vote" (that is, a proxy from a broker or nominee indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote shares on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or nominee does not have discretionary power) or if a proxy is marked with an abstention, the shares represented thereby will be considered to be present at the Meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum for the transaction of business but will not be voted. For this reason, abstentions and broker "non-votes" will have the affect of a "no" vote for purposes of obtaining the requisite approval of some of the proposals.

How Proxies Will Be Voted

If the accompanying proxy card is executed properly and returned, shares represented by it will be voted at the Meeting in accordance with the instructions on the proxy card. If no instructions are specified, shares will be voted for proposed Items 1, 2 and 3. Even if the enclosed proxy card is executed and returned, it may be revoked prior to its exercise by a signed writing delivered at the Meeting or filed with the Secretary of the Fund. You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the meeting, by submitting a new proxy card or by attending the Meeting and casting your vote in person.

When voting on a proposed adjournment, the persons named as proxies will vote all shares that they are entitled to vote with respect to each Item for the proposed adjournment, unless directed to disapprove the Item, in which case such shares will be voted against the proposed adjournment.

Proxy Solicitation

The cost of solicitation will be borne by the Fund. The solicitation is to be made primarily by mail. The Fund's officers and investment adviser and administrators may also solicit proxies by telephone, telegraph, facsimile or personal interview. Any shareholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by submitting to the Fund a written notice of revocation or a subsequently executed proxy or by attending the shareholder meeting and electing to vote in person.

If a proxy represents a broker "non-vote" (that is, a proxy from a broker or nominee indicating that such person has not received instructions from the beneficial owner or other person entitled to vote shares on a particular matter with respect to which the broker or nominee does not have discretionary power) or if a proxy is marked with an abstention, the shares represented thereby will be considered to be present at the Meeting for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum for the transaction of business but will not be voted. For this reason, abstentions and broker "non-votes" will have the affect of a "no" vote for purposes of obtaining the requisite approval of some of the proposals.

IF YOU DO NOT EXPECT TO ATTEND THE MEETING, PLEASE SIGN YOUR PROXY CARD PROMPTLY AND RETURN IT IN THE ENCLOSED ENVELOPE TO AVOID UNNECESSARY EXPENSE AND DELAY.
NO POSTAGE IS NECESSARY.

INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT made this _____ day of _____, 2001, by and between EIS FUND, LTD., a New York Corporation ( the "Company"), and Rafferty Capital Markets, LLC, a New York Limited Liability Company ( the "Adviser").

In consideration of the mutual promises hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The Adviser shall act as investment adviser for and shall make available trading desk facilities to the Company, subject to and upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. The Adviser may, in its discretion, provide such services through its own employees or the employees of one or more affiliated companies that are qualified to act as investment adviser to the Company under applicable law provided (i) that all persons, when providing services hereunder, are functioning as part of an organized group of persons; (ii) the use of an affiliate's employees does not result in a change in control or management of the Adviser under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "1940 Act"); and (iii) the use of an affiliate's employees has been approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.

2. In acting as investment adviser to the Company, the Adviser shall, on a non-discretionary basis, (a) formulate a continuing program to provide advice and recommendations for the management of the assets and resources of the Company in a manner consistent with the Company's investment objectives, policies and restrictions and the provisions of the 1940 Act and other applicable laws, and in this connection make specific recommendations and furnish advice to the Company regarding securities proposed for purchase and sale by the Company and the portion of its assets to be held in cash or cash equivalents in order to carry out such a program; (b) obtain and evaluate such research information relating to the economy, industries, businesses, securities markets and types of securities as it may deem necessary or useful in the discharge of its obligations hereunder or as may be reasonably requested by the Company; (c) generally take such other steps as the Adviser may deem necessary or appropriate in assisting in the implementation by the Company of such program, recommendations, advice and research information; and (d) make available to the Company, upon reasonable notice, officers, or investment personnel of the Adviser for consultation with the officers and directors of the Company in connection with the Company's investment objectives and policies and also furnish to or place at the disposal of the Company such of the information, reports, evaluations, analyses and opinions formulated or obtained by the Adviser in the discharge of its duties hereunder as the Company may, at any time or from time to time, reasonably request or as the Adviser may deem helpful to the Company.

3. In making available trading-desk facilities to the Company for the placement of purchase and sale orders to carry out portfolio transactions of the Company or for the clearance of transactions placed on behalf of the Company, orders acted upon by the Adviser will be done on a non-discretionary basis, and will be placed through such facilities consistent with the statements set forth under "Brokerage Commissions on Portfolio Transactions" in the Company's proxy statement dated April 5, 2000 (the "Proxy Statement"), receipt of a copy of which is hereby acknowledged by the Adviser. In accordance with the Company's investment policies, and as stated in the "Proxy Statement", the Company's investments are in debt securities, which are generally traded through Dealers acting for their own account, as principals and not as brokers; no brokerage commissions are payable in such transactions.

4. The Adviser shall permit the Company to use the Adviser's corporate address as the Company's address of record. From time to time, the Adviser agrees to provide office space for the Company, as reasonably requested, for such events as Company board meetings.

5. The Company shall pay or provide for the payment for its own account of all its expenses not specifically assumed by the Adviser as hereinbefore provided, which expenses shall include, without limitation, interest, taxes, brokerage commissions, compensation and expenses of directors of the Company, out-of-pocket expenses of officers of the Company in connection with any travel or other activities carried out on behalf of the Company other than in its office, legal and auditing expenses, fees and expenses of the custodian, transfer agent or other institutional agents, all expenses in connection with maintaining the registration of the Company under the 1940 Act and making reports thereunder and registering and qualifying the shares of Common Stock of the Company for issuance and sale under the Securities Act of 1933 and under "Blue Sky" laws of the various states, costs of engraving or printing the Company's stock certificates, the expenses of stockholders' meetings and of printing and mailing proxy materials, reports and notices to its shareholders, corporate filing fees, dues, fees and expenses relative to stock-exchange listings and for membership in trade associations and costs of fidelity bonds and other bonding or insurance coverage requisite to the operations of the Company.

6. For the services rendered and expenses assumed by the Adviser for the Company pursuant to this Agreement, the Company shall pay to the Adviser an annual fee at the rate of (a) 0.5% of the Company's net assets up to and including $100,000,000; plus (b) 0.4% of the Company's net assets over $100,000,000 up to and including $200,000,000; plus (c) 0.3% of the Company's net assets over and above $200,000,000 ( see attached Advisory Fee Schedule).

The Adviser agrees to a voluntary waiver of .25% (25 basis points on the first $100,000,000 of the Company's assets). The voluntary waiver by the Adviser has been arranged with Firststar Mutual Fund Services, LLC so that Firststar can be compensated for fund administration and compliance, fund accounting, custody and transfer agency services. Firststar will arrange separate service agreements for each of the above-mentioned services with the Company.

Said fees shall be computed by the Company, with the assistance of the Adviser and Firststar, quarterly on the basis of the net asset value as of the last day of each quarter, provided, however, that for the initial quarterly period and upon any termination of this Agreement before the end of any quarter the amount of the annual fee which shall be accrued by the Company for payment to the Adviser at the end of the initial quarter or date of termination shall be prorated according to the proportion such period bears to the full quarterly period. For the purpose of computing the annual fee, the Adviser and Firststar shall determine the value of the Company's net assets on the same basis as such net assets are determined for the Company's Annual report to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

7. If, in any calendar year, the sum of the expenses to be paid by the Company as provided in Section 5 hereof (other than interest, taxes and brokerage commissions relating to the purchase or sale of portfolio securities, expenses of any public offerings of the Company's Common Stock and extraordinary expenses beyond the control of the Adviser) plus the Adviser's fee as provided under Section 6 hereof shall exceed 11/2% of the average of the closing value of the Company's net assets, computed each week on the last day on which the New York Stock Exchange is open, during such year (or portion thereof, if applicable, as to the years during which the Agreement is commenced and terminated) up to and including $30,000,000 plus 1% of the average of the closing values of the Company's net assets (computed on the same basis) over $30,000,000, the Adviser shall promptly reimburse the Company for the amount of such excess expenses prior to the publication of the Company's annual report to shareholders in the next succeeding calendar year.

8. The Adviser shall at all times maintain a staff of officers and other trained personnel in order to enable it to perform its obligations under this Agreement. The Adviser agrees to use its best efforts to achieve the Company's objectives in acting as the non-discretionary investment adviser and to provide trading desk facilities and render administrative services to the Company as provided in this Agreement; but nothing herein contained shall be deemed to preclude the Adviser, at its expense and at no additional expense to the Company, from employing, retaining or otherwise availing itself of the services of other persons or organizations for the purpose of providing the Adviser or the Company with such services, advice or assistance as the Adviser may deem necessary, appropriate or convenient for the discharge of its obligations hereunder or, in its opinion, otherwise helpful to the Company.

The services of the Adviser to the Company are not to be deemed to be exclusive, and the Adviser shall be free to render investment-advisory, management, administrative or other services to others, including, without limitation, other investment companies with the same or different investment objectives and policies and to engage in other activities without limitation. It is understood and agreed that, to the extent permitted by law, officers or directors of the Adviser may serve as officers or directors of the Company, and that officers or directors of the Company may serve as officers or directors of the Adviser, and that, to the extent permitted by law, the officers and directors of the Adviser are not prohibited from engaging in any other business activity or from rendering services to any other person, or from serving as partners, officers, or directors of any other firm or corporation, including other investment companies with the same or different investment objectives and policies.

9. The Adviser shall be held harmless by the Company and shall not be subject to liability to the Company or to any stockholder of the Company for any mistake in judgement or in any event whatsoever except for the lack of good faith on the part of the Adviser or for any conduct on the part of the Adviser constituting a breach of fiduciary duty involving personal misconduct in respect of the Company, provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to protect or purport to protect the Adviser against any liability to the Company or to any stockholder of the Company to which the Adviser would otherwise be subject by reasons of an act or practice by the Adviser constituting willful malfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence in the performance of its duties, or reckless disregard to its obligations and duties hereunder.

No provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to protect any director or officer of the Company against any such liability to which he might otherwise be subject by reason of any willful malfeasance, bad faith or gross negligence in the performance of his duties or the reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his affairs.

10. This Agreement (unless terminated as hereinafter provided) shall continue in effect until the second anniversary of the date hereof, and thereafter from year to year; provided, however, that this Agreement shall be specifically approved at least annually by (a) a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company or the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities (as such term is used in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of the Company and (b) the vote of a majority of such directors who are not interested persons (as such term is used in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of any party of this Agreement, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such approval. If approval of the continuation of this Agreement is not obtained pursuant to the foregoing, this Agreement shall expire by its terms twelve (12) months after the date of the last approval.

No provision of this Agreement may be changed, waived, discharged or terminated orally, but only in writing signed by the party against which enforcement of the change, waiver, discharge or termination is sought, and no amendment of this Agreement shall be effective until approved by a majority of the Company's outstanding voting securities, if such vote is required by the 1940 Act, or by a majority of the Board of Directors of the Company who are not parties to this Agreement or interested persons of any such party, cast in person at a meeting called for the purpose of voting on such amendment.

In each event that the stockholders of the Company are asked to approve the continuation or amendment of this Agreement, the prior approval of a majority of the Board of Directors who are not interested persons (as such term is used in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of any party to this Agreement shall also be required.

11. This Agreement may be terminated at any time without the payment of any penalty (a) by the Company, upon sixty (60) days' notice in writing to the Adviser, provided such termination be authorized by resolution of the Board of Directors of the Company or by a vote of the majority of the outstanding voting securities ( as such term is used in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder) of the Company; or (b) by the Adviser upon sixty (60) days' notice in writing to the Company. (An affiliate of the Adviser may assume the Adviser's obligations under this Agreement provided that (i) the affiliate is qualified to act as an investment adviser to the Company under applicable law; (ii) the assumption will not result in a change of actual control or management of the Adviser under the 1940 Act; and (iii) the assumption of the Adviser's obligations by the affiliate is approved by the Board of Directors of the Company.)

12. This Agreement shall automatically and immediately terminate in the event of its assignment (as such term is used in the 1940 Act and the rules and regulations thereunder).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed on the day and year first above written.
