2003 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS OF NAUTICA ENTERPRISES, INC.

PROXY STATEMENT OF THE BARINGTON COMPANIES GROUP

This proxy statement and the enclosed GREEN proxy card are being furnished to you, the holders of shares of common stock, par value $.10 per share, of Nautica Enterprises, Inc., a Delaware corporation, in connection with the solicitation by Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. and other entities participating with Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. for use at the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders of the Company, and at any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. The other entities participating with Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P. are Jewelcor Management, Inc., RCG Ambrose Master Fund, Ltd. and Ramius Securities, LLC who, together with Barington Companies Equity Partners, L.P., are referred to as the Barington Companies group.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying GREEN proxy card are first being furnished to the Company's stockholders on or about June 24, 2003.

The Barington Companies group is soliciting proxies to obtain representation on the Company's board of directors. Our goal is to elect two new and independent members to the Company's board of directors who will help guide the Company's board of directors in its pursuit to maximize shareholder value. The term independent as used in this Proxy Statement means the absence of any material relationship with the Company. Our nominees, William J. Fox and James A. Mitarotonda, are highly-qualified candidates who possess significant retail and consumer products industry, operating and financial experience. We believe that the value-added insight, energy and objectivity of our nominees will benefit the Company's existing board of directors in executing its strategic plan.

In connection with our solicitation of proxies for board representation, we are not seeking to replace the entire board of directors. However, we believe that there is limited independent shareholder representation on the current board of directors. In fact, the Company has announced in its proxy materials for the 2003 annual meeting that it "plans to name two new independent directors by the 2004 annual meeting." We are seeking additional, independent representation on the Company's board not next year, but now. We believe that the Company's board currently needs more independent voices to represent the interests of all stockholders. Moreover, we believe that the operating skills and managerial experience of our nominees will promote the maximization of shareholder value.

A vote in favor of our proposals at the 2003 annual meeting will result in the election of a complete eight member board of directors, consisting of our two nominees and six of the incumbent members of the board of directors. Our nominees, if elected, look forward to working with the other members elected to the Company's board at the 2003 annual meeting, in our efforts to produce the maximum value for all the Company's stockholders.

In our view, the current board of directors has failed to adequately address certain operational issues at the Company including a significant expense base, ineffective management of the Nautica brand and an unproven brand expansion and diversification strategy that has required significant capital investments. We believe these operational issues have reduced the Company's competitiveness and diluted the value of the Nautica brand in the retail marketplace. Although we support a number of the initiatives the current board of directors has taken in executing its strategic plan, we believe that their efforts to date have not produced the enhancements to shareholder value expected by stockholders. As a result, the Company's stock price has fallen approximately 47.2% during the two-year period ended June 6, 2003.

Given the operating challenges which the Company continues to confront, we felt that it was imperative to seek your support for a slate of highly-qualified nominees who intend to advocate the interests of all stockholders and work with those members of the Company's board of directors elected at the 2003 annual meeting in order to effectuate a plan that we believe will maximize shareholder value. Otherwise we would risk an unacceptable delay of a full year before our nominees could increase the number of independent members on the Company's board and present our proposed initiatives to enhance shareholder value to the Company's stockholders.

We believe the Company must promptly implement the following measures in order to enhance shareholder value:

- o reduce operating expenses in order to improve profitability and enhance cash flow;
- o formulate a more cohesive operating strategy to bolster its Nautica brand;
- o review the Company's use of capital in order to maximize returns on equity;
- o restructure executive compensation packages so that the interests of executive officers are aligned with those of the Company's stockholders and such individuals are rewarded for improvements in shareholder value;
- o review change of control provisions in certain Company contracts that may have the effect of limiting shareholder value; and

- o explore value-enhancing strategic initiatives, including the possible sale or merger of the Company.

Our nominees for director support these proposed actions and, if elected, will seek to implement them.

In addition, our nominees, if elected, intend to advocate a series of actions to promote corporate democracy and place control of the Company firmly in the hands of stockholders acting by majority vote. These actions include eliminating the stockholder rights plan adopted by the current board and allowing stockholders to act by written consent.

We believe the following operating problems and strategic issues will persist unless appropriate action is taken by the board of directors immediately:

- o significant selling, general and administrative expenses that have not been addressed by current senior management in light of the Company's reduced business prospects. The Company continues to invest in brand expansion initiatives, including marketing efforts and build-out of retail locations, which we believe have yet to yield positive results for stockholders.
- o unsuccessful development of a strategic plan by current senior management to improve persistent revenue stagnation within the Company's men's sportswear business and underperformance of its women's business. According to the Company's Form 10-K for fiscal year 2003, its men's sportswear line experienced a 9.2% decline in net sales from fiscal year 2002 to fiscal year 2003 and is expected to experience an additional decline of approximately 13% to 15% in fiscal year 2004. Similarly, based on statements made by the Company during its earnings conference call on May 1, 2003, its women's jeans and women's Earl Jean businesses are performing below profitability levels targeted by management.
- o inefficient deployment of capital by current senior management in its efforts to execute a brand expansion and diversification strategy that has been slow to yield returns to stockholders. Based on an expected after-tax charge of $6.0 million to $7.0 million announced by the Company in a press release dated April 7, 2003, we believe that the Company's attempt to develop the Nautica Europe business has not enhanced shareholder value. Similarly, the Company's attempt to enhance its retail exposure by opening a store in Rockefeller Center has proven unsuccessful, resulting in an after-tax charge of $6.5 million in fiscal year 2003. The Company, in fact, acknowledged in its May 1, 2003 earnings conference call, that it is remerchandising this store in an effort to drive traffic at this location. Further, as part of a brand diversification strategy, in 2001 the Company acquired Earl Jean, Inc., an upscale denim brand for approximately $65 million, which to date, in our view, has not yielded positive returns for stockholders. In addition, based on our discussions with the Company's management, its John Varvatos business, which was launched in 2000, has not performed at desired levels.

Edgar Filing: BARINGTON CAPITAL GROUP L P - Form DEFC14A

- o executive compensation packages which contain payment terms that are not aligned with the interests of the Company's stockholders; and
- o change of control provisions in certain contracts to which the Company is a party which, if triggered, could misalign the interests of the board of directors and stockholders and potentially limit shareholder value.

For these reasons, we are appealing directly to you -- the owners of the Company -- and asking you to vote your shares at the 2003 annual meeting in a way that sends the Company's current board of directors a clear message that you want to hold the board of directors accountable to you in fulfilling its fiduciary duty to enhance the value of the Company for all stockholders. In order for shareholder value to be maximized, the Company's operating results must be addressed at once. Our nominees intend to focus their efforts on the foregoing issues to improve the Company's performance and drive shareholder value.

At the 2003 annual meeting, we intend to seek your support for two highly-qualified and independent nominees for election to the Company's board of directors, William J. Fox and James A. Mitarotonda. These individuals possess strong operating, industry and financial skills that should benefit the Company in implementing its strategic plan. Moreover, these individuals will bring to the board additional independent voices that will represent the interests of all stockholders. We believe that the election of our nominees to the Company's board of directors, although only a minority of the eight-person board of directors, will help guide the Company's board of directors to fulfill its fiduciary duty to maximize value for all stockholders.

We also intend to vote the shares of common stock represented by the proxy to re-elect all of the Company's incumbent directors other than Charles H. Scherer and John Varvatos. Both of these individuals lack independence from the Company which we believe this board needs more of and that stockholders should demand.

A vote in favor of our proposals at the 2003 annual meeting will result in the election of a complete eight member board of directors, consisting of our two nominees and six of the incumbent members of the board of directors.

In addition to the election of directors, we are proposing to amend the Company's By-laws to allow stockholders who own 10% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock to call a special meeting of stockholders.

The Barington Companies group recommends that you vote

- o to elect each of our nominees and re-elect all the incumbent directors other than Messrs. Scherer and Varvatos; and
- o to adopt our proposed amendment to the Company's By-laws.

See "The Proposals" for a complete description of the actions that we propose. See "Information About The Barington Companies Group" and "Certain Other Information Regarding The Barington Companies Group Nominees" for information about the Barington Companies group and about our nominees.

INTRODUCTION

The Barington Companies group seeks to maximize value for all of the Company's stockholders. The Barington Companies group does not believe that the current board of directors and management have fulfilled their obligations to the stockholders of the Company to achieve this goal. Further, we believe that the current board of directors contains a limited number of independent members focussed on representing the interests of all stockholders and advocating the maximization of shareholder value. As a result, we believe that the current board of directors has been slow to address persistent operational issues at the Company, such as a high expense base, ineffective development of the Nautica brand and an unproven brand expansion and diversification strategy, which, in our opinion, have been detrimental to stockholders. In addition, we believe that the board of directors has approved certain contracts to which the Company is a party containing change of control provisions which may have the effect of limiting the rights of stockholders and have the potential to misalign the interests of the board of directors and stockholders. In our opinion, these missteps have weakened the Company's competitive position and diluted the value of the Nautica brand in the retail marketplace.

These actions by the current board of directors and management, coupled with the limited number of independent board members, in our view, have resulted in a material reduction in shareholder value. From June 6, 2001 to June 6, 2003, a period during which the Company made a significant investment in implementing its brand expansion and diversification strategy, the Company's stock price fell approximately 47.2% from $20.07 per share to $10.60 per share. During the same period, the stock price of four of the Company's competitors named in the Company's most recent Form 10-K, Kenneth Cole Productions Inc., Liz Claiborne, Inc., Polo Ralph Lauren Corporation and Tommy Hilfiger Corporation experienced percentage changes of (28.0)%, 32.5%, (6.7)% and (38.6)%, respectively. The Company's return on equity, defined as net income, excluding special charges, divided by stockholders' equity, fell from 16.2% in fiscal year 2001 to 8.9% in fiscal year 2003, based on information contained in the Company's Form 10-K for fiscal year 2003.

Under the leadership of the current board of directors and senior management, we believe the Company has:

- o been slow to establish an appropriate cost structure in light of the Company's reduced business prospects. According to the Company's Form 10-K for fiscal year 2003, selling, general and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales increased to approximately 36.7% in fiscal year 2003 from approximately 31.4% in fiscal year 2001. During the same period, total headcount increased 15.8% from 2,850 to 3,300, according to the Company's Form 10-K for fiscal years 2001 and 2003. As a result of the Company's sluggish revenue growth during the last two fiscal years, operating profit, excluding special charges, as a percentage of net sales, fell from approximately 11.5% in fiscal year 2001 to approximately 7.3% in fiscal year 2003. According to statements made by the Company during its earnings conference call on May 1, 2003, the Company expects selling, general and administrative expenses in both actual dollars and as a percentage of net sales to remain at fiscal year 2003 levels during fiscal year 2004.

- o been unsuccessful in addressing core strategic weaknesses at the Company that continue to dilute the value of the Nautica brand in the retail marketplace. We believe senior management has been unable to improve declines in net sales within the Company's men's sportswear line. According to the Company's most recent Form 10-K, net sales in the Company's men's sportswear business decreased 9.2% from fiscal year 2002 to fiscal year 2003 and are expected to decline further by approximately 13% to 15% during fiscal year 2004 due to ongoing pressure facing the men's collection business in department stores. We believe that continued competition in both the department store and specialty retail channels could result in markdowns at the retail level, which, in our opinion, will further dilute the value of the Nautica brand in the men's apparel market. The Company also has continued to experience weakness in its women's collections. In its earnings conference call on May 1, 2003, the Company acknowledged that its women's jeans business is not performing at profitability levels targeted by management. In addition, management stated on this call that its women's Earl Jean business is experiencing weakness.
- o ineffectively deployed the Company's capital on an unproven brand expansion and diversification strategy. The Company's efforts to develop the Nautica Europe business have not enhanced shareholder value. According to a Company press release dated April 7, 2003, the Company has decided to transition this business to a licensing arrangement and reduce its investment in Europe. As a result, the Company expects to incur an after-tax special charge of $6 million to $7 million relating to closure costs, impairment of goodwill, the writedown of fixed assets and the termination of certain lease obligations. The Company's efforts to create a greater brand identity through the operation of a Nautica full-price retail store have proven unsuccessful. In fiscal year 2003, the Company, according to its most recent Form 10-K, recorded an after-tax charge of $6.5 million to write down the assets associated with its Rockefeller Plaza Nautica store. Similarly, in 2001 the Company acquired Earl Jean, Inc., an upscale denim brand, for approximately $65.3 million, paying, according to the Company's Form 10-K for fiscal year 2003, in excess of 12 times the "estimated fair value of the net assets acquired." During its 2003 earnings conference call, the Company acknowledged that it is experiencing weakness in its U.S. based Earl Jean women's business. The Company's management has also informed us that the Company's John Varvatos business, which was launched in 2000, has not performed at desired levels.

- o failed to address executive compensation levels, which we believe are not aligned with stockholder interests. In our opinion, the compensation payable to the Company's executive officers should be restructured so that a meaningful portion of the annual cash salary expense is eliminated and replaced with equity-based compensation in the Company. We believe that eliminating a portion of this annual cash expense will reduce the Company's selling, general and administrative expenses and produce greater free cash flow. More importantly, we believe that tying the amount of compensation received by executives to specified improvement levels in shareholder value will help to maximize the value of the Company's stock.
- o approved change of control provisions in certain Company contracts that have the potential to misalign the interests of the board of directors and the stockholders and impair shareholder value. According to the Company's proxy statement for the 2003 annual meeting, the Company has entered into employment agreements with three of its senior executives providing that in the event of a change of control in the Company (defined to include any event which results in the members of the current board of directors no longer constituting a majority of the board of directors), each of such individuals has the right to receive a lump sum payment (aggregating approximately $9.3 million for all three executives) upon termination for employment other than for cause, disability or resignation for good reason. In addition, stock options previously granted to such individuals become fully vested and exercisable upon a change of control. We believe these provisions weaken the rights of stockholders to elect new members to the board of directors as the removal of incumbent members of the board of directors may trigger a significant payment by the Company and thereby reduce shareholder value. Further, in our view, change of control provisions are not the means to assure the continued service of valued employees. Rather, we believe that such employees should be rewarded appropriately for performance that increases shareholder value. According to the Company's proxy statement for the 2003 annual meeting, Mr. Varvatos's employment agreement further provides that if Mr. Sanders ceases to be employed by the Company during Mr. Varvatos's term of employment, the Company is obligated to spin-off or sell its subsidiary, John Varvatos Company, or make specified payments to Mr. Varvatos. We believe this provision could diminish shareholder value, as it limits the board of directors' ability to make executive changes at the Company and forces the Company to change its management or financial relationship with a subsidiary regardless of such subsidiary's operating or financial condition.

Our Platform

Edgar Filing: BARINGTON CAPITAL GROUP L P - Form DEFC14A

The Barington Companies group is focused on the goal of maximizing the value of the Company's stock. We believe that the Company's board of directors needs additional independent members to advocate the interests of stockholders and compel management to address persistent operational issues that have been detrimental to shareholder value. This is consistent with the Company's recently announced plan to name two, new independent members to its board of directors by the 2004 annual meeting. We believe it is important for shareholders to obtain additional independent directors now and not wait until the 2004 annual meeting.

We have selected nominees with broad industry, management and financial experience necessary to assist the board of directors in improving the Company's operating performance. They are committed to the principles of our platform, with the goal of establishing a results-oriented strategic plan to enhance stockholder value. In furtherance of these principles, if elected, our nominees intend to urge the Company's board of directors to take the following actions:

- o reduce the Company's operating expenses to improve profitability and enhance cash flow generation;
- o separate the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer at the Company;
- o revise the Company's strategic plan in order to enhance the Nautica brand and improve its competitive position in the retail marketplace;
- o evaluate the Company's use of capital to maximize returns on equity;
- o restructure compensation packages of selected executives at the Company to align their interests with those of stockholders;
- o review change of control provisions in selected Company contracts to align the interests of the board of directors and the stockholders; and
- o implement formal processes at the Company to explore value-enhancing strategic initiatives, including a possible sale or merger of the Company.

As part of our proposals, we intend to vote the shares of common stock represented by the proxy to re-elect all of the Company's incumbent directors other than Messrs. Scherer and Varvatos. For the following reasons, we believe that these individuals lack the independence and commitment that this board needs:

- o Mr. Scherer serves as managing partner of Hughes Hubbard & Reed LLP, a law firm that provides legal services to the Company. For the past three fiscal years ended March 1, 2003, the Company paid an aggregate of approximately $3.5 million to Hughes Hubbard for legal services. In addition, Samuel Sultanik, Esq., the brother-in-law of the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, is a partner of Hughes Hubbard.
- o Mr. Varvatos serves as President of the John Varvatos Company, a subsidiary of the Company. In its proxy statement with respect to the 2003 annual meeting, the Company acknowledged that Mr. Varvatos attended fewer than 75% of the Company's board meetings as a result of Mr. Varvatos's schedule. Institutional

Shareholder Services has recommended in its Proxy Alert dated June 10, 2003 relating to the Company that stockholders withhold their vote for Mr. Varvatos stating that "absences due to schedule conflicts is not a valid excuse."

In addition, our nominees will act to eliminate the burdens that the Company's charter documents and current board have imposed on the exercise of corporate democracy at the Company. These steps include:

- o termination of the Company's stockholder rights plan, which imposes draconian penalties on stockholders or stockholder groups that beneficially own or commence a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the Company's stock. Not only does such plan effectively prohibit accumulation of stockholdings in excess of this threshold, it may also have the effect of discouraging stockholders from collectively exercising their corporate democracy rights out of concern that they will be deemed to be a group owning 15% or more of the Company's shares. We note that while commentators and corporate governance experts disagree on the propriety and utility of stockholder rights plan, in some cases, such plans may result in increased value to stockholders in takeover situations. Nonetheless, we believe that any benefits of stockholder rights plans are outweighed by the burdens such plans impose on corporate democracy rights and the freedom of stockholders to act in a manner they perceive to be in their own financial interest; and
- o subject to stockholder approval, amending the Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation to eliminate the prohibition on stockholder action by written consent.

The Barington Companies group nominees will not be in a position, however, to effect any action, including any action referred to above, without the support of at least three or more of the incumbent members of the Company's board of directors. There can be no assurance that the incumbent members of the board of directors will vote with our nominees to take any of the actions described above.

While our nominees, if elected, will constitute only two of the eight members of the Company's board of directors, such individuals will represent two of the six, or 1/3, of the independent board members. As such, our nominees may be able to exercise substantial influence on the Company's board of directors and committees especially in light of the provisions of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the regulations promulgated by the SEC pursuant to this Act and the new corporate governance rules proposed by NASDAQ. These proposed rules will require that members of the audit, compensation and nominations committees of NASDAQ listed companies be comprised solely of independent directors.

THE PROPOSALS

The Barington Companies group is soliciting proxies from the holders of shares of common stock to (a) elect two nominees to the Company's board of directors and six of the eight current incumbent directors and (b) amend the By-laws to authorize stockholders who own, individually or in the aggregate, 10% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock, to call a special meeting of stockholders.

The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes cast in the election. The proposed amendment to the By-laws requires an affirmative vote of a majority of the shares outstanding on the record date for the 2003 annual meeting.

The Barington Companies group recommends that you vote for each of the proposals by checking the appropriate boxes and signing, dating and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card.

Election of Directors

Proposal No. 1 -- Election of the Barington Companies Group Nominees as Directors

Proposal No. 1 provides for the election of William J. Fox and James A. Mitarotonda to serve as directors until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders. See "Certain Other Information Regarding The Barington Companies Group Nominees" for information concerning the background and experience of Messrs. Fox and Mitarotonda.

Proposal No. 2 -- Election of Certain Company Nominees as Directors

Proposal No. 2 provides for the election of the Company's nominees other than Messrs. Scherer and Varvatos to serve as directors until the 2004 annual meeting of stockholders. See the Company's definitive proxy statement for the names, backgrounds, qualifications and other information concerning the Company's nominees.

Ratification of the Appointment of Independent Accountants (Company Proposal)

Proposal No. 3 -- Ratification of Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's Independent Certified Public Accountants

Proposal No. 3 provides for the ratification of the appointment by the Company's board of directors of Grant Thornton LLP as the Company's independent certified public accountants to examine the accounts of the Company for the fiscal year ending February 28, 2004. See "Auditors" for further information regarding Grant Thornton LLP.

Amendment of the By-laws

Proposal No. 4 -- Modification of Provision for Calling Special Meetings of Stockholders

Proposal No. 4 provides for the amendment of Section 3 of Article I of the By-laws to authorize stockholders who own, individually or in the aggregate, 10% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock, to call a special meeting of the stockholders. Delaware law provides that special meetings of the stockholders may be called by the board of directors or such other person or persons as may be authorized by the certificate of incorporation or the by-laws. Proposal No. 4 would grant to stockholders the ability to call special meetings. In particular, the amendment would delete the text of Section 3 of Article I of the By-laws and replace it with the following:

"A special meeting of the stockholders may be called at any time by the Chairman, the President or a majority of the board of directors of the Corporation, or by any stockholder or stockholders of record entitled to vote at such meeting, provided such stockholder or stockholders beneficially or of record own in the aggregate at least 10% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Corporation. If a special meeting is called, the person calling the meeting shall submit the request, specifying the time of such meeting and the general nature of the business proposed to be transacted, such request to be delivered personally, or sent by registered mail or by telegraphic or other facsimile transmission to the Chairman, the President or the Secretary of the Corporation. No business may be transacted at such special meeting other than such business specified in the request. The officer receiving the request shall cause notice to be given to the stockholders entitled to vote at such meeting, in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 of this Article I, that a special meeting be held at the time requested by such person(s) calling the meeting, provided that such meeting is not less than ten (10) or more than sixty (60) days after receipt of the request."

The Barington Companies group believes that giving the stockholders the right to call a special meeting will provide the stockholders with a means to promptly address any legitimate concerns they may have regarding the Company and their investment, and their interests as stockholders. In addition, we believe that such a provision will promote greater accountability to all stockholders of the Company on the part of each director and the rest of management.

General

Each of the Barington Companies group nominees has consented to being named herein as a nominee for director of the Company, and has agreed to stand for election as a director and to serve as a director, if elected.

Although the Barington Companies group has no reason to believe that any of the Barington Companies group nominees will be unable to serve as a director, if any Barington Companies group nominee is not available to serve, the Barington Companies group expects that the remaining Barington Companies group nominees, upon taking office, will fill the vacancy with an individual willing to consider and implement the Barington Companies group's proposals to maximize stockholder value. Although the Barington Companies group has no reason to believe that any of the Company's nominees will be unable to serve as a director, there can be no assurance that the Company's nominees will serve as a director if elected with any of the Barington Companies group nominees.

VOTING PROCEDURES

Who is entitled to vote?

If the Company's stock records show that you are a stockholder as of the close of business on the record date for the 2003 annual meeting, you are entitled to vote the shares of common stock that you held on such date. Even if you sell your shares after the record date for the 2003 annual meeting, you will retain the right to execute a proxy in connection with the 2003 annual meeting.

Edgar Filing: BARINGTON CAPITAL GROUP L P - Form DEFC14A

Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote for each matter to be voted upon.

Can I attend the meeting?

All stockholders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on May 29, 2003, the record date for the 2003 annual meeting, or their designated proxies, are authorized to attend the 2003 annual meeting. If your shares are held of record by a bank, broker or other nominee, you will need to obtain a "legal proxy" form from your bank or broker if you wish to vote at the 2003 annual meeting.

What constitutes a quorum? How will abstentions and broker non-votes be counted?

The holders of a majority of the Company's common stock outstanding and entitled to vote, present in person or represented by proxy, will constitute a quorum at the 2003 annual meeting. Votes cast in person or by proxy at the 2003 annual meeting will be tabulated by the inspector of elections appointed for the 2003 annual meeting to determine whether or not a quorum is present. The inspector of elections will treat abstentions as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but abstentions will neither be counted as votes for, nor the withholding of authority for, the election of directors, but will have the effect of a vote against all other matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.

Shares held by nominees for beneficial owners will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present if the nominee has the discretion to vote on at least one of the matters presented at the 2003 annual meeting, even if the nominee may not exercise discretionary voting power with respect to other matters and voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owner (a "broker non-vote"). Broker non-votes will not be counted as votes for, nor the withholding of authority for, the election of directors (Proposal Nos. 1 and 2), but will have the effect of a vote against all other matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.

How do I vote?

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered in the name of a brokerage firm or bank. If your shares are held by a broker, bank or other nominee (i.e., in "street name"), only your bank or broker can give a proxy with respect to your shares. You should receive a proxy card from your bank or broker which you must return in the envelope provided in order to have your shares voted. If you have not received a proxy card from your bank or broker, you may contact it directly to provide it with instructions on how you wish to vote. If you need assistance in dealing with your bank or broker, please contact D.F. King at (888) 869-7406 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

Voting by proxy for holders of shares registered directly in the name of the stockholder. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may vote your shares by marking, signing, dating and mailing the GREEN proxy card in the postage-paid envelope that has been provided to you by the Barington Companies group. To vote your shares in accordance with your instructions at the 2003 annual meeting, we must receive your proxy as soon as possible but, in any event, prior to the 2003 annual meeting.

Vote in person. If you are a registered stockholder and attend the 2003 annual meeting you may deliver your completed GREEN proxy card in person.

Edgar Filing: BARINGTON CAPITAL GROUP L P - Form DEFC14A

"Street name" stockholders who wish to vote at the 2003 annual meeting will need to obtain a "legal proxy" form from the broker, bank or other nominee that holds their shares of record and must bring that document to the meeting in order to vote in person at the 2003 annual meeting. If you need assistance, please contact D.F. King at (888) 869-7406 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

What should I do if I receive a proxy card which is not GREEN?

If you submit a proxy to us by signing and returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card, do NOT sign or return the proxy card or follow any voting instructions provided by the Company's board of directors unless you intend to change your vote, because only your latest-dated proxy will be counted.

Can I revoke my proxy instructions?

You may revoke your proxy at any time before it has been exercised by:

- o submitting a written revocation with the Corporate Secretary of the Company or D.F. King;
- o submitting a duly executed proxy bearing a later date with the Corporate Secretary of the Company or D.F. King; or
- o appearing in person and voting by ballot at the 2003 annual meeting as described above under "How do I vote? -- Vote in Person."

Any stockholder of record as of the record date of the 2003 annual meeting attending the 2003 annual meeting may vote in person whether or not a proxy has been previously given, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the 2003 annual meeting will NOT constitute revocation of a previously given proxy.

If you choose to revoke a proxy by giving written notice or a later-dated proxy to the Corporate Secretary of the Company, although you are not legally obligated to do so, we would appreciate if you would assist us in representing the interests of stockholders on an informed basis by sending us a copy of your revocation or proxy or by calling D.F. King, at (888) 869-7406 or collect at (212) 269-5550. Remember, your latest-dated proxy is the only one that counts.

Will other matters be voted on at the annual meeting?

We are not now aware of any matters to be presented at the 2003 annual meeting other than the election of directors, the ratification of the appointment of the Company's independent auditors and our proposal. If any other matters not described in the proxy statement are properly presented at the 2003 annual meeting, including matters incidental to the conduct of the 2003 annual meeting, proxies will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxy holders.

If I plan to attend the annual meeting, should I still submit a proxy?

Whether you plan to attend the 2003 annual meeting or not, we urge you to submit a proxy. Returning the enclosed GREEN proxy card will not affect your right to attend the 2003 annual meeting.

23

Edgar Filing: BARINGTON CAPITAL GROUP L P - Form DEFC14A

How will my shares be voted?

If you give a proxy on the accompanying GREEN proxy card, your shares will be voted as you direct. If you submit a proxy to us without instructions, our representatives will vote your shares in favor of each of the proposals. Submitting a GREEN proxy card will entitle our representatives to vote your shares in accordance with their discretion on matters not described in this Proxy Statement that may arise at the 2003 annual meeting, including matters incident to the conduct of the 2003 annual meeting. Unless a proxy specifies otherwise, it will be presumed to relate to all shares held of record on the record date for the 2003 annual meeting by the person who submitted it.

How can I receive more information?

If you have any questions about giving your proxy or about our solicitation, or if you require assistance, please call D.F. King at (888) 869-7406 or collect at (212) 269-5550.

Your vote is important. No matter how many or how few shares you own, please vote (i) to elect the Barington Companies group nominees and (ii) to amend the By-laws to authorize stockholders who own 10% or more of the Company's outstanding common stock to call special meetings, by marking, signing, dating and mailing the enclosed GREEN proxy card promptly.
