Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

From time to time, Kensico has acquired Shares in the ordinary course of business for investment purposes and has held such Shares in such capacity.

On March 13, 2003, representatives of Kensico met with the Issuer s Board of Directors to discuss Kensico s concerns regarding the Issuer s future direction and certain actions that the Issuer should take in the near-term to enhance shareholder value. In light of the Issuer s current position as it searches for a new Chief Executive Officer, Kensico reiterated such concerns in a letter to the members of the Board of Directors of the Issuer dated April 7, 2003 (a copy of which is attached hereto as an exhibit to this Schedule 13D). In the letter, Kensico reiterated, among other things, that the Issuer is grossly overcapitalized with $450 million of net cash available, or more than $9.00 per share, and should make a substantial distribution of this cash to its shareholders.

In addition to the foregoing, Kensico may consider the feasibility and advisability of various alternative courses of action with respect to its investment in the Issuer, and Kensico reserves the right, subject to applicable law, (i) to hold its Shares as a passive investor or as an active investor (whether or not as a member of a group with other beneficial owners of Shares or otherwise), (ii) to acquire beneficial ownership of additional Shares in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, (iii) to dispose of all or part of its holdings of Shares, (iv) to take other actions which could involve one or more of the types of transactions or have one or more of the results described in Item 4 of this Schedule 13D, or (v) to change its intention with respect to any or all of the matters referred to in this Item 4. Kensico s decisions and actions with respect to such possibilities will depend upon a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the actions of the Issuer, market activity in the Shares, an evaluation of the Issuer and its prospects, general market and economic conditions, conditions specifically affecting Kensico and other factors which Kensico may deem relevant to its investment decisions.
