PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is being furnished by Curtiss-Wright Corporation (hereinafter called the "Corporation" or the "Company") on or about March 18, 2002 in connection with the solicitation of proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the foregoing Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Company's Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides that the holders of Class B common stock are entitled to elect at least 80% of the members of the board. As a result, the holders of Class B common stock are currently entitled to elect seven directors (the "Class B directors") and the holders of Common stock are currently entitled to elect one director (the "Common director").

As of March 5, 2002, the record date for determining the holders of stock entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting, there were 6,001,170 shares of Common stock ("Common stock") outstanding, and there were 4,382,102 shares of Class B common stock ("Class B common stock") outstanding constituting all the voting stock of the Corporation entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Each share of stock is entitled to one vote. Only holders of Class B common stock are entitled to vote in the election of the Class B directors, and only holders of Common stock are entitled to vote in the election of the Common director. A majority of the Class B common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and actually cast, will elect the Class B directors, and a majority of the Common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and actually cast, will elect the Common director. In all other matters submitted to a vote of stockholders, holders of Common stock and Class B common stock will vote together as a single class.

The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common stock and Class B common stock entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting for purpose of voting on the amendment to the 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan and the ratification of the appointment of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP as independent accountants for fiscal year 2002. The presence, in person or by properly executed proxy, of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of each class of stock entitled to vote at the meeting is necessary to constitute a quorum at the Annual Meeting for purposes of the election of each class of directors.

The proxy card provides space for a stockholder to withhold voting for any or all nominees for the board of directors, and to abstain from voting for the amendment to the 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan and the appointment of independent accountants. The election of directors requires a plurality of the votes cast by each class of stock. The approval of the amendment to the 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan and the appointment of the independent accountants require the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Common stock and Class B common stock, as a single class, present in person or represented by proxy. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the meeting. An abstention will be treated as a negative vote with respect to each matter other than the election of a director as to whom the stockholder abstained. As to broker non-votes, if a broker indicates on the proxy that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on a particular matter, the shares represented by the non-votes will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to that matter.

All shares of Common stock and Class B common stock which are entitled to vote and are represented at the Annual Meeting by properly executed proxies received prior to or at the Annual Meeting, and not revoked, will be voted at the Annual Meeting in accordance with the instructions indicated on such proxies. If no instructions are indicated (other than in the case of broker non-votes), such proxies will be voted as recommended by our board of directors. If any other matters are properly presented at the Annual Meeting for consideration, including, among other things, consideration of a motion to adjourn such Annual Meeting to another time and/or place (including, without limitation, for the purposes of soliciting additional proxies), the persons named in the enclosed forms of proxy and acting thereunder will have discretion to vote on such matters in accordance with their judgment.

Any proxy given pursuant to this solicitation may be revoked by the stockholder giving it at any time before its use by delivering to the Secretary of the Corporation at the above address of the Corporation, written notice of revocation or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or by attending the meeting and voting in person.

PERSONS MAKING THE SOLICITATION

This solicitation of proxies is made on behalf of the board of directors of the Corporation, and the cost thereof will be borne by the Corporation. The Corporation will reimburse brokerage firms and nominees for their expenses in forwarding proxy material to beneficial owners of the stock of the Corporation. In addition, a number of employees, officers and directors of the Corporation (none of whom will receive any compensation therefore in addition to his regular compensation) may solicit proxies. The solicitation will be made by mail and in addition, the telephone, telegrams, facsimile and other electronic communication and personal interviews may be utilized.

HOUSEHOLDING OF ANNUAL DISCLOSURE DOCUMENTS

The Securities and Exchange Commission recently approved a new rule governing the delivery of annual disclosure documents. The rule allows the Corporation to send a single set of our annual report and proxy statement to any household at which two or more stockholders reside if we believe that the stockholders are members of the same family. This rule benefits both stockholders and the Corporation. It reduces the volume of duplicate information received at your house and helps to reduce the Corporation's expenses. Each stockholder will continue to receive a separate proxy card. If your household received a single set of disclosure documents for this year, but you would prefer to receive your own copy, please contact our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, by calling their toll-free number, 1-800-416-3745. If you would like to receive your own set of the Corporation's annual disclosure documents in future years, please follow the directions below. Similarly, if you share an address with another Curtiss-Wright stockholder and together both of you wish to receive only a single set of the Corporation's annual disclosure documents, please follow these directions: Please contact our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, and inform them of your request by calling them, 1-800-416-3745, or writing to them at 6201-15th Avenue, Brooklyn, New York 11219.

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT OF STOCKHOLDER
PROPOSALS FOR 2003 ANNUAL MEETING

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Pursuant to regulations of the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), shareholders who intend to submit proposals for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy materials for the 2003 Annual Meeting must do so no later than November 26, 2002. This requirement is separate from the SEC's other requirements that must be met to have a shareholder proposal included in the Corporation's Proxy Statement. In addition, this requirement is independent of certain other notice requirements of the Corporation's Restated By-laws described immediately below. All shareholder proposals and notices should be submitted to Michael J. Denton, Secretary, Curtiss-Wright Corporation, 1200 Wall Street West, Lyndhurst, New Jersey 07071. The attached proxy card grants the proxy holders discretionary authority to vote on any matter raised and presented at the Annual Meeting. Pursuant to amended SEC Rule 14a-4(c)(1), the Corporation shall exercise discretionary voting authority to the extent conferred by proxy with respect to shareholder proposals received after February 8, 2003.

If a shareholder of record wishes to nominate directors or bring other business to be considered by shareholders at the 2003 Annual Meeting, such proposals may only be made in accordance with the following procedure. Under the Corporation's Restated By-laws, nominations of directors or other proposals by shareholders must be made in writing to the Corporation no later than January 26, 2003 and no earlier than December 26, 2002. However, if the date of the 2003 Annual Meeting is advanced by more than 30 days or delayed by more than 70 days from the anniversary date of the 2002 Annual Meeting, then such nominations and proposals must be delivered in writing to the Corporation no earlier than 120 days prior to the 2003 Annual Meeting and no later than the close of business on the later of (i) the 90th day prior to the 2002 Annual Meeting, or (ii) the 10th day following the day on which public announcement of the date of the 2003 Annual Meeting is first made.

All shareholder proposals and notices should be submitted to Michael J. Denton, Secretary, Curtiss-Wright Corporation, 1200 Wall Street West, Lyndhurst, New Jersey 07071. Please note that these requirements relate only to matters proposed to be considered for the 2003 Annual Meeting. They are separate from the SEC's requirements to have shareholder proposals included in the Corporation's 2003 Proxy Statement.

APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Holders of either class of Curtiss-Wright common stock are not entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware in connection with any of the matters discussed in this proxy statement.

RECAPITALIZATION

In November 2001, the Corporation completed its tax-free recapitalization of its common stock. The recapitalization permitted a tax-free distribution by Unitrin, Inc. ("Unitrin") to its shareholders of its approximately 44% equity position in the Corporation.

Unitrin owned approximately 4.4 million or 44% of the then outstanding shares of the Corporation. Under the recapitalization plan, and in order to meet certain tax requirements, these shares were exchanged for an equivalent number of shares of a new Class B common stock which are entitled to elect 80 percent of the Corporation's board of directors. Unitrin immediately distributed the Class B shares to its approximately 8,000 registered stockholders in a tax-free distribution. The holders of the remaining outstanding shares of the Corporation's Common stock are entitled to elect up to 20% of the Corporation's board of directors. Other than the right to elect directors, the two classes of common stock vote as a single class (except as required by law) and are equal in all other respects. The Class B common stock is also listed on the New York Stock Exchange.

Also in connection with the recapitalization, the Corporation's shareholders approved certain amendments to its Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws providing for, among other things, the elimination of the shareholders' ability to act by written consent or call a special meeting, and the requirement of a two-thirds vote of shareholders to amend certain provisions of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation. Copies of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation and By-laws are attached as Appendix C-1 and Appendix D-1, respectively, to the Corporation's Definitive Proxy Material on Schedule 14A, filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on September 5, 2001.

PROPOSALS 1 AND 2 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

At this Annual Meeting eight directors are to be elected, each to hold office until the next Annual Meeting and until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and shall qualify except as set forth below. Each nominee has been recommended for election by the committee on directors and governance of the board of directors and by the board. In the event that any such nominee should become unavailable for election, the persons named in the proxy may vote for the election of a substitute nominee. However, the board of directors has no reason to believe that any of the nominees described below will be unavailable for election.

Pursuant to the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, record holders of the Class B common stock are entitled to elect 80% of the members of the board of directors (rounded upwards, if necessary) and holders of the Common stock are entitled to elect the remaining directors (but in no event less than one director). In connection with the Unitrin divestiture of its 44% interest in the Corporation in November 2001, the board of directors fixed the number of directors at eight, one of whom is elected by the holders of Common stock and seven of whom are elected by the holders of Class B common stock. Prior to November 2001, the board consisted of eight directors. The following table shows the members of the different classes of the board of directors. The board of directors has the ability to change the size and composition of the board of directors. However, to ensure that there will be at least one Common stock director at all times, the board of directors may not consist of fewer than five members.

TERM OF OFFICE

The eight nominees listed are to serve one-year terms of office, are currently directors of the Company and have indicated their willingness to serve. However, if any nominee is unable or declines to serve as a director at the time of the Annual Meeting, proxies will be voted for the nominee designated by the present board to fill the vacancy. The term of office of each person elected as a director will continue until the 2003 Annual Meeting or until a successor has been elected and qualified.

Based solely on its review of copies of filings under Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act, as amended, received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons, the Corporation believes that during fiscal year 2001, all Section 16(a) filing requirements were met.

OPERATION OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

During 2001 the board of directors held nine meetings. All of the directors attended at least 94% of the aggregate of all meetings in 2001 of the board of directors and committees on which they served.

The audit committee, presently consisting of Messrs. William W. Sihler, James B. Busey IV and Ms. S. Marce Fuller, met five times during 2001. The committee's functions include the following: serving as an independent and objective party to monitor the Corporation's financial reporting process and internal control system; reviewing and appraising the audit efforts of the Corporation's independent accountants; providing an open avenue of communication among the independent accountants, the Corporation's financial and senior management and the board of directors; and making recommendations to the board as to the nomination of independent accountants for appointment by the stockholders. The audit committee acts under a written charter first adopted and approved by the board of directors in April 2000. Each of the members of the audit committee is "independent" as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards. A copy of the audit committee's charter is attached as Appendix 1 to the Corporation's Definitive Proxy Materials filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 19, 2001.

The executive compensation committee, presently consisting of Messrs. John R. Myers, William B. Mitchell, and J. McLain Stewart, met four times during 2001. This committee reviews compensation of elected officers prior to submission to the board; establishes specific awards to be made to individuals under the Corporation's Modified Incentive Compensation Plan and the Corporation's 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan; and reviews the establishment and/or amendment of executive compensation plans.

The committee on directors and governance (formerly known as the nominating committee), presently consisting of Messrs. J. McLain Stewart, James B. Busey IV, David Lasky, and John R. Myers, met one time in 2001. Consistent with the change of the committee's name, the committee's responsibilities as expanded include the following: (i) recommending to the board of directors nominees for election as directors; (ii) establishing procedures for identifying candidates for the board and periodically reviewing potential candidates; (iii) recommending to the board criteria for board membership; (iv) developing recommendations to enhance the board's effectiveness; and (v) reviewing and making recommendations relating to the board's compensation. Any stockholder may recommend nominees to the committee for consideration by writing to the Secretary of the Corporation. Such submission should include the full name and address of each proposed nominee, a statement of his or her business experience and qualifications and a written statement from the proposed nominee consenting to his or her nomination and agreeing to serve if elected.

REPORT OF AUDIT COMMITTEE(1)

In fulfilling the oversight responsibilities, the audit committee reviewed the audited financial statements in the Annual Report on Form 10-K with management, including a discussion of the quality, not just the acceptability, of the accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity of disclosures in the financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2001.

The audit committee reviewed with the independent accountants, who are responsible for expressing an opinion on the conformity of those audited financial statements with generally accepted accounting principles, their judgments as to the quality, not just the acceptability, of the Corporation's accounting principles and such other matters as are required to be discussed with the audit committee under generally accepted auditing standards. In addition, the audit committee discussed with the independent accountants their independence from management and the Corporation including the matters in the written disclosures required by the Independence Standards Board and considered the compatibility of nonaudit services with the auditors' independence. The audit committee also discussed with the auditors the matters set forth in the Statement of Auditing Standards No. 61.

The audit committee discussed with the Corporation's internal and independent auditors the overall scopes and plans for their respective audits. The audit committee met with the internal and independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss the results of their examinations, their evaluations of the Company's internal controls, and the overall quality of the Corporation's financial reporting.

Based upon these reviews and discussions, the audit committee recommended to the board of directors that the audited financial statements be included in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC.

EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

REPORT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

The executive compensation committee (the "Committee") of the board of directors is responsible for the administration of the executive compensation program of the Corporation. The committee is composed of three independent non-employee directors who are not eligible to participate in the Corporation's compensation plans for employees.

In 2001, the compensation of the executive officers of the Corporation consisted of salary, cash bonus awards under the Modified Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Bonus Plan") of the Corporation and non-qualified stock options and performance units pursuant to the Corporation's 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan ("1995 LTI Plan"). The amount of compensation for each of these elements is arrived at through consideration of a number of objective and subjective factors.

SALARY

Officer salaries are subject to annual review by the committee and are adjusted on the basis of competitive salary ranges for the officers' positions, individual performance and the officers' contributions to the Corporation. Also considered in 2001 were survey data related to compensation of officers in the Corporation's peer group of companies, the recommendations of the Corporation's compensation consultant as to appropriate target salary levels for the Corporation's officers, and each officer's years of service and total compensation received in 2000 and 1999. A number of objective financial measures of performance, corporate or business unit, as appropriate, were also considered. The board acts upon the recommendations of the committee as to salary adjustments. In determining Mr. Benante's salary, the committee took into account the compensation paid by other corporations of similar size and nature and Mr. Benante's years of service and other non-salary compensation. The committee also considered specific measures of corporate performance, including return on assets, return on capital employed, return on equity, and operating cash flow, both for the full years 2000 and 1999, and on a year-to-date basis, for 2001. In 2001, Mr. Benante's annual salary rate was established to be in line with the salaries paid by other corporations of similar size and nature to their chief executive officers of similar years of service.

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form DEF 14A

BONUS

Since 1998, the Corporation's Bonus Plan has been structured to align the awards granted under the Bonus Plan with the performance of the Corporation and its business units as well as to place a value on individual achievements. Payments under the Bonus Plan are made both to officers and to a broad group of other key employees. The amount of the annual bonus paid to each participant, including Mr. Benante, under the bonus plan is based on the attainment of performance objectives agreed to by senior management, and the committee early in the fiscal year. The 2001 bonus awards were made early in the year, and were based on performance during 2000. Early in the year, each participant in the Bonus Plan is notified of a pre-set bonus range, including a threshold level below which no bonus will be paid, a target at which the full "contemplated" bonus would be paid and a maximum award level above the target level. The threshold level is pre-set at approximately 50% of the target and the maximum is set at 200% of the target. Sixty percent (60%) of each bonus award is based on a pre-established quantitative objective ("business unit's operating earnings") and forty percent (40%) on pre-established individual qualitative objectives. A target level of operating earnings was proposed by senior management and approved by the committee. In addition to the quantitative factor, the committee also considered the success of participants in attaining their pre-agreed qualitative performance objectives for the year. The qualitative objectives are non-financial in nature, but are measurable and weighted as appropriate to their relative importance to the success of the Corporation.

LONG-TERM INCENTIVE AWARDS

In 2001 the awards made under the 1995 LTI Plan consisted of performance units and stock options. Made to a broad group of key employees in addition to corporate officers, they are intended to attract and retain highly qualified key employees and to provide those employees with an additional incentive to work over a longer period toward increasing the value of the Corporation and improving the results of the business units with which they are associated.

In determining the 2001 long-term incentive target awards the committee

considered the effect that the efforts of the recipients could have on the growth of the Corporation and their value to the business. In awarding target awards in performance units to its key employees and executive officers, the committee considered specific objectives relating to increases in the gross average annual sales of the individual business unit or the Corporation as a whole, as appropriate, over a three year period ending December 31, 2004, and to the average annual return on capital, as defined, during the same period for the respective organizations. The committee also considered the amount of 2001 and 2000 base pay, the annual bonus received by the awardees in each of those years and the 2000 stock options and performance unit awards that each had received.

In awarding stock options to its key employees and executive officers, the committee considered the effect such persons' efforts could have on the growth of the Corporation. Options were granted with an exercise price of 100% of the market price on the date of grant. Except for those options granted to the Executive Vice Presidents of the Corporation, the options are exercisable to the extent of one third of the total number of shares covered beginning on the first anniversary of the grant, two thirds from the second anniversary and in full after the third anniversary. Options granted to the Executive Vice Presidents are fully exercisable after the third anniversary of the grant date provided that the respective business unit of each Executive Vice President meets certain defined financial criteria established by the committee. In the event a business unit does not achieve the established financial criteria, the options do not vest and are forfeited. The committee does retain discretion to make changes to the vesting parameters.

While to some degree grants were based on subjective factors relating to the performance of individuals, in 2001 the committee continued the practice of having 1995 LTI Plan awards bear a relationship to base salary, based on the target percentages previously suggested by the Corporation's compensation consultant. Recommendations previously supplied by the Corporation's compensation consultant also confirmed that awards of the size granted under the 1995 LTI Plan were fair and reasonable and consistent with corresponding awards made by other corporations.

In making a target award of long-term incentive compensation to Mr. Benante, the committee considered factors beyond those applicable to other officers. The committee made this award to Mr. Benante to provide a further incentive for him to continue his efforts to advance the interests of the Corporation. Mr. Benante's dedication to the strategic planning process and the progress that continues to be made in identifying and exploring growth opportunities were considered, as was the impact Mr. Benante's efforts could have on future growth. The committee also considered the compensation awarded other chief executive officers, as reported by a compensation consultant advising the Corporation with respect to its overall executive compensation program. A number of objective financial measures of corporate performance were also considered.

PERFORMANCE UNITS

Pursuant to the Corporation's 1995 LTI Plan, the executive compensation committee of the board of directors awarded performance units in November 2001 to its executive officers, senior managers and other key employees.

Performance units are denominated in dollars and payable in cash three years after their award date, contingent upon attaining an average annual return on capital and an average annual growth rate based upon objectives established by the executive compensation committee of the board of directors. Awards to employees of the Corporation's business units are based on the extent to which these objectives are achieved by the business unit, or units, with which the employees are affiliated. Awards to employees of the corporate office are based on the extent to which the Corporation as a whole achieves these objectives.

The values shown below reflect the potential value at a target value of one dollar per unit payable at the end of the three-year performance period if the Corporation's average return on capital and average annual growth rate objectives are attained. The chart also reflects the fact that each unit may prove to be worth a maximum of approximately two dollars if both performance targets are substantially exceeded, or nothing at all, depending upon the extent to which the performance targets are not met.

- (1) The performance units are denominated in dollars and are contingent upon satisfaction of performance objectives keyed to profitable growth over a period of three fiscal years commencing with the fiscal year following such awards. Based upon the satisfaction of performance objectives, the value of the units is determined by comparing the number of units to the extent to which objectives were satisfied and assigning a percentage from a pre-established matrix. The maximum percentage available is 203%. If retirement occurs at age sixty-five or thereafter, the performance units are still payable to the employee over the three years following the date of retirement, prorated for the period of employment prior to retirement.
- (2) Mr. Tynan commenced his employment with the Company on May 31, 2000.

- (1) Options were granted with an exercise price of 100% of the market price on the date of grant. The options are usually exercisable to the extent of one third of the total number of shares covered beginning on the first anniversary of the grant, two thirds from the second anniversary and in full after the third anniversary. The options awarded to Messrs. Nachman, Yohrling and Napoleon on November 20, 2001 vest in their entirety on November 20, 2004 only upon the achievement of certain financial goals by their respective business units. The options are not transferable other than upon the death of the optionee, in which case they are transferable pursuant to a designation of the optionee, or by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. If the optionee terminates his or her employment the option expires upon such event; however, if employment is terminated by early retirement under a retirement plan of the Corporation, the option may be exercised within three months following the date of retirement. If retirement occurs at age sixty-five or thereafter, the option may be exercised within three years of the date of retirement but no later than ten years following the option grant date.

- (2) These values were calculated using the Black-Scholes option pricing model. The Black-Scholes model is a complicated mathematical formula, which is widely used and accepted for valuing traded stock options. The model is premised on immediate exercisability and transferability of the options. This is not true for the Corporation's options granted to executive officers and other employees. Therefore, the values shown are theoretical and are not intended to reflect the actual values the recipients may eventually realize. Any ultimate value will depend on the market value of the Corporation's stock at a future date. In addition to the stock price at time of grant and the exercise price, which are identical, the following assumptions were used to calculate the values shown: expected dividend yield (1.37 percent, the current yield of the Corporation's common shares on the grant date), expected stock price volatility (24.18 percent, the most recent volatility for the month-end stock prices of the Corporation's common shares for the preceding 3 years), risk-free rate of return (4.66 percent equal to the yield on a 7-year U.S. Treasury bond on the option grant date), and expected exercise of options within seven years from the date of the grant.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Pursuant to a policy designed to retain key employees established by the Corporation's board of directors in 1977, the Corporation has at-will severance agreements with Messrs. Benante, Nachman, Yohrling, Napoleon and Tynan, as well as a number of other key employees, which provide for the payment by the Corporation of severance pay, in the case of involuntary termination of employment other than for cause, in an amount equal to one year's base salary and bonus at the time of termination, as well as the continued availability of certain employee benefits, for a period of one year following termination. The at-will severance agreements provide that such severance pay and benefits also would be made available in the case of voluntary retirement or termination of employment, which is the direct result of a change in the terms or conditions of employment, including a reduction in compensation or in job responsibilities. At the option of the employee, said amount of severance pay may be paid over the two-year period following such termination, in which case such employee benefits would continue in effect for the same period. Under the at-will severance agreements, the payment of severance pay, and the availability of benefits, is contingent upon a number of conditions, including the employee's performance of his agreements with respect to providing consulting services, releasing the Corporation from any employment related claims, and not entering into competition with the Corporation.

The Company entered into a Mutual Separation Agreement with Mr. Robert A. Bosi, formerly the Corporation's Vice President -- Finance on November 12, 2001. Pursuant to this Agreement, Mr. Bosi resigned as an employee of the Company as of November 12, 2001, and the Company agreed to (i) pay Mr. Bosi his base salary of $196,000 for seventeen months (the "Severance Period"); (ii) pay Mr. Bosi his full target bonus of $87,500 for fiscal 2001 (iii) permit Mr. Bosi to continue to vest in his stock options through the Severance Period; and (iv) permit Mr. Bosi to continue to participate in the Company's group medical and dental programs and life and disability insurance programs in accordance with the terms of such plans as applicable to employees generally, until the sooner of the conclusion of the Severance Period or his eligibility for such benefit at a new employer. In the event that Mr. Bosi violates his nondisclosure and confidentiality obligations to the Company, his right to receive the benefits listed in (i) and (iii) shall terminate and he shall be required to repay any amounts received under (i) and (ii) during the Severance Period.

The Company also entered into a Mutual Separation Agreement with Mr. Brian D. O'Neill, formerly the Corporation's General Counsel and Corporate Secretary on June 4, 2001. Pursuant to this Agreement, Mr. O'Neill resigned as an employee of the Company as of June 4, 2001, and the Company agreed to (i) pay Mr. O'Neill his base salary of $160,000 for seventeen months (the "Severance Period"); (ii) permit Mr. O'Neill to continue to vest in his stock options through the Severance Period; and (iii) permit Mr. O'Neill to continue to participate in the Company's group medical and dental programs and life and disability insurance programs in accordance with the terms of such plans as applicable to employees generally, until the sooner of the conclusion of the Severance Period or his eligibility for such benefit at a new employer. In the event that Mr. O'Neill violates his nondisclosure and confidentiality obligations to the Company, his right to receive the benefits listed in (i) and (ii) shall terminate and he shall be required to repay any amounts received under (i) during the Severance Period.

Consistent with the Corporation's policy designed to retain key employees, the Corporation also has Change in Control severance protection agreements with Messrs. Benante, Nachman, Yohrling, Napoleon and Tynan. The agreements with Messrs. Benante, Nachman, Yohrling, and Napoleon provide for payment of severance pay equal to three times the sum of the executive's base salary and average annual bonus over a three-year period and the continued availability of certain employee benefits for a period of two years following termination of employment, in each case if employment is terminated within twenty-four months following a change in control of the Corporation. The Corporation's Change in Control severance protection agreement with Mr. Tynan provides for payment of severance pay equal to two times the sum of his base salary and average annual bonus over a two-year period, and the same benefits as described above. Mr. Benante's agreement also differs from those of Messrs. Nachman, Yohrling, Napoleon, and Tynan in that Mr. Benante may voluntarily terminate his employment with Curtiss-Wright for any reason after the first year of service following a change in control, and still obtain the benefits provided for under the agreement.

All Change in Control severance protection agreements provide for the vesting of all benefits accrued through the termination of employment in the Corporation's Retirement and Retirement Benefits Restoration Plans; provided however, that if vesting under any such Plan is not permitted by applicable law, an actuarially determined lump sum shall be paid in an amount equaling the non-vested benefit under the applicable Plan. All Change in Control severance protection agreements further provide that upon a change in control any previously awarded performance units under the Corporation's 1995 LTI Plan shall be paid on a pro-rata basis for the period of employment and that previously awarded stock options shall become fully vested and exercisable. The severance pay and benefits under the Change-in-Control severance protection agreements are in lieu of any that would be provided under the Corporation's at-will severance agreements previously discussed above.

RETIREMENT PLAN

The Corporation's Retirement Plan (the "Retirement Plan") is a tax qualified, defined benefit, trustee plan. The Plan is non-contributory and covers most employees, including the Corporation's executive officers. On September 1, 1994, the Corporation amended the Retirement Plan. Benefits accrued as of August 31, 1994 were transferred into the amended Retirement Plan. As of September 1, 1994 the following monthly pension benefits had been accrued: Martin R. Benante, $137; Gerald Nachman, $11,885; George J. Yohrling, $2,559; and Joseph Napoleon, $2,261. Mr. Tynan commenced employment with the Corporation on May 31, 2000 and therefore did not accrue a monthly pension under the Retirement Plan prior to September 1, 1994. These benefits are indexed to reflect increases in compensation, as defined, from that date forward. The Retirement Plan as amended provides for an annual benefit at age 65 of 1.5% times the five year final average compensation in excess of social security covered compensation plus 1% of the five year final average compensation up to social security covered compensation, in each case multiplied by the participant's years of service after September 1, 1994, not to exceed 35. In addition, a participant earns a pay-based cash balance credit equal to 3% of his or her compensation.

In April 1999, the Corporation entered into supplemental retirement agreements with Messrs. Nachman and Yohrling. The agreements provide certain enhanced retirement benefits on an annual basis for as long as Messrs. Nachman and Yohrling remain in the employ of the Corporation. A copy of a Standard Supplemental Retirement Agreement is attached as Exhibit (10) to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ending June 30, 2000, filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on August 14, 2000. The Corporation recently renewed both agreements in accordance with their respective terms and conditions with Mr. Nachman and Mr. Yohrling. As of February 1, 2002, Mr. Nachman had accrued an additional monthly benefit of $3,000 and Mr. Yohrling had accrued an additional monthly benefit of $1,500.

The chart below illustrates the estimated aggregate amount of annual benefits on a straight life annuity basis attributable to service on or after September 1, 1994 that would be payable on retirement at age 65 to an employee in the compensation classification specified, under various assumptions as to compensation and years of service. The current compensation covered by the Retirement Plan is substantially equivalent to the cash compensation reported under the headings entitled "Salary" and "Bonus" on page 17 of this Proxy Statement for the executive officers listed there.

Under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 ("ERISA"), many employees elect a survivor option payable to the employee's spouse and, as a consequence, the amount actually received on retirement by such employee would be less than indicated above. The Internal Revenue Code provides that effective January 1, 2001 the maximum allowable annual benefit under the Retirement Plan is $160,000 (adjusted for each year of employment beyond age 65) and the maximum allowable annual compensation that may be included in the calculation of a benefit under the Retirement Plan is $200,000. These limits are substantially lower than the maximum amounts shown above. Accordingly, the Corporation maintains a Retirement Benefits Restoration Plan (the "Restoration Plan") whereby all participants in the Retirement Plan whose benefits or compensation under the Retirement Plan would exceed the limitations imposed by the Internal Revenue Code will receive a supplemental retirement benefit equal to the excess of the benefit which would have been payable to them under the Retirement Plan but for said limitations, over the amount payable under the generally applicable formulas of the Retirement Plan, given said limitations. Such supplemental benefit is not funded. The amounts set forth above include amounts payable pursuant to the Restoration Plan. Benefit amounts are not subject to reduction for any Social Security benefits to which Plan participants may be entitled. Credited years of service under the Retirement Plan at December 31, 2001 are as follows: Gerald Nachman, 27 years; George J. Yohrling, 25 years; Martin R. Benante, 23 years; Joseph Napoleon, 32 years; and Glenn E. Tynan, 2 years. For each of these persons as of said date, credited service for purposes of the pay-based cash balance credit referred to above includes seven years and four months under the preceding chart.

In the event of a change in control, the Corporation has agreed to fund a "Rabbi" trust agreement between the Corporation and PNC Bank, N.A. dated January 30, 1998, which provides for the payment of the Corporation's obligation under the Restoration Plan referred to in the preceding paragraph.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Currently all directors, excluding Mr. Lasky, who are not also employees of the Corporation receive an annual director's fee of $20,000 and meeting fees of $1,200 for every board and committee meeting attended. Additionally, an annual retainer for the chairman of committees is paid at the rate of $3,000 per annum. The board of directors also operates under a fee structure, not to exceed $2,000 per day, for non-employee directors who provide services to the Corporation beyond the normal duties of the director. Any such services must be authorized in advance by the board of directors and requested by the chairman of the board. Pursuant to the 1996 Stock Plan for Non-Employee Directors (the "Stock Plan for Directors") non-employee directors may elect to receive their annual director fees and meeting fees in the form of common stock of the Corporation or in cash or both. Elections have been made to receive shares in lieu of cash fees and to defer receipt of said shares. In 2001, four non-employee directors received a portion of their 1999 and 1998 deferred compensation under the Stock Plan for Directors totaling an aggregate of 2,442 shares of the Corporation's Common stock. The aggregate balance of said deferred shares remaining in the Stock Plan for Directors was 11,630 as of December 31, 2001. The shares issued to the four non-employee directors are included in the table on page 6. The aggregate balance of shares remaining in the Stock Plan for Directors has not been included in the table on page 6, since these shares have not yet been issued. In addition, in accordance with the terms of the Stock Plan for Directors each non-employee director on the board in 1996 received 516 restricted shares of common stock in 1996. S. Marce Fuller received 389 restricted shares in April 2000 after her election to the board of directors at the 2000 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. In June 2001, the restrictions on the initial stock grants to Messrs. Busey, Mitchell, Myers, Sihler, and Stewart lapsed. Pursuant to the terms of the Stock Plan for Directors, Messrs. Busey, Mitchell, Myers, Sihler, and Stewart received 311 restricted shares of Common stock for serving five years as directors from the date of the initial grant in 1996. The shares will remain restricted for a period of five years from the date of grant and during that period may not be sold or transferred and are subject to forfeiture if the director resigns or declines to continue serving as such during that period. These shares are included in the table on page 6. For each director who is not an employee, the Corporation also provides group term life insurance coverage in the amount of $150,000.

PROPOSAL 3
AMENDMENT OF THE CORPORATION'S
1995 LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN

The Corporation's stockholders are being asked to approve an amendment of the Corporation's 1995 LTI Plan, to increase the number of shares of the Corporation's common stock, both Common and Class B, reserved for issuance under the 1995 LTI Plan by 500,000 shares. The board of directors unanimously adopted this amendment, subject to stockholder approval at the Annual Meeting.

The proposed amendment will assure that a sufficient reserve of common stock remains available for issuance under the 1995 LTI Plan to accommodate the Corporation's recent growth in 2001 and anticipated growth in 2002 as well as allow the Corporation to continue to utilize equity incentives to attract and retain the services of key individuals and other personnel essential to the Corporation's long-term growth and financial success. The Corporation relies significantly on equity incentives in the form of stock option grants and performance units in order to attract and retain key employees and other personnel and believes such equity incentives are necessary for the Corporation to remain competitive in the marketplace for executive talent and other key employees.

Option grants made to newly hired or continuing employees will be based on both competitive market conditions and individual performance. The following is a summary of the principal features of the 1995 LTI Plan. The summary, however, does not purport to be a complete description of all the provisions of the 1995 LTI Plan. Any stockholder of the Corporation who wishes to obtain a copy of the actual plan document may do so without charge upon written request to the Corporate Secretary at the Corporation's principal executive offices in Lyndhurst, New Jersey, or locate a copy attached as Exhibit A to the Corporation's Definitive Proxy Materials filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 22, 1995.

THE LONG-TERM INCENTIVE PLAN GENERALLY

The board originally adopted and shareholders approved the 1995 LTI Plan in May 1995. The 1995 LTI Plan has been amended from time to time since its initial adoption. Currently, awards may not be granted pursuant to the 1995 LTI Plan after May 5, 2005. The 1995 LTI Plan provides for the grant of performance based awards to key employees, including employees who are officers and members of the board. Non-employee directors may not receive awards under the 1995 LTI Plan. The Corporation currently has approximately 200 employees who are eligible to participate in the 1995 LTI Plan. Option based awards may be granted under the 1995 LTI Plan in the form of incentive stock options or non-qualified stock options.

SHARES AVAILABLE UNDER THE PLAN

As of December 31, 2001, options covering 794,957 shares reserved for issuance have been granted. The Board proposes to amend the Plan to increase the number of shares that can be issued from 1,000,000 to 1,500,000. The number of shares that can be issued and the number of shares subject to outstanding options may be adjusted in the event of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or other similar event affecting the number of shares of Curtiss-Wright's common stock.

PLAN ADMINISTRATION

The compensation committee of the board of directors administers the 1995 LTI Plan. Subject to the specific terms of the 1995 LTI Plan, the committee determines eligibility as well as the timing, type, amount and terms of grants. The committee also interprets the 1995 LTI Plan and the terms of any awards granted under the 1995 LTI Plan. The committee also makes all other determinations necessary or advisable for the 1995 LTI Plan's administration. No award to any individual employee during any calendar year may exceed fifty thousand (50,000) shares, subject to any adjustment for a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or other similar event affecting the number of shares of the Corporation's stock.

21

STOCK OPTIONS

The committee may grant a participant the option to purchase shares of the Corporation's securities through incentive stock options qualified under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or options not qualified under Section 422 of the Code ("non-qualified stock options") or a combination of both. Incentive and non-qualified stock options must be granted at not less than 100% of the fair market value of the underlying common stock on the date the option is granted, except for up to 25% of the shares which may be granted in the form of non-qualified stock options priced at no less than 50% of the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the date of grant. Upon exercise, the option price is to be paid in full in cash, in shares of common stock, in such other consideration, as the committee may deem appropriate, or through an arrangement with a broker. Options will be exercisable in whole or in such installments and at such times as may be determined by the committee, provided that no incentive stock option may be exercisable more than ten years after the date of its grant.

STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

The committee may grant key employees the right to receive a payment equal to the appreciation in market value of a stated number of shares of any security from the date of the agreement granting the stock appreciation right (the "base price") to its date of exercise. These stock appreciation rights may or may not be granted in tandem with stock options. Stock appreciation rights granted in tandem with stock options will be exercisable only to the extent the related stock option is exercisable and upon exercise of such a tandem stock appreciation right, the related stock option shall be canceled to the extent of the number of stock appreciation rights exercised and such shares will not thereafter be eligible for grant under the 1995 LTI Plan. The base price for a tandem stock appreciation right will be determined by the committee, but it must not be less than the exercise price of the related stock option.

Freestanding stock appreciation rights will be exercisable at the time or times determined by the committee. The base price for a free-standing stock appreciation right will be determined by the committee, but it must not be less than the fair market value of the security on the date of the grant of the stock appreciation right.

LIMITED STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHTS

The committee may grant key employees the right to receive a payment in cash equal to the appreciation over the base price by the greater of either the highest price of shares of common stock paid in connection with a change in control or the highest price of the shares of common stock during the 60 days prior to the change in control. These limited stock appreciation rights may be granted at the time the option or stock appreciation right is granted or at any time thereafter. Limited stock appreciation rights are exercisable in full for a period of seven months following the date of a change in control. If limited stock appreciation rights are exercised, any stock options and stock appreciation rights to which they are attached can no longer be exercised. If the stock options or stock appreciation rights are exercised or terminated, the limited stock appreciation rights are simultaneously canceled.

RESTRICTED STOCK AWARDS

The 1995 LTI Plan permits the committee to award restricted stock to key employees of the Company (without payment of consideration by the participant) with such terms, conditions, restrictions or limitations as the committee deems appropriate. While the restrictions are in effect, the committee may permit a participant the right to vote shares and the right to receive any dividends. Restricted stock awards may be evidenced by stock certificates, book-entry registrations or in such other manner as the committee determines.

22

PERFORMANCE SHARES AND PERFORMANCE UNITS

The 1995 LTI Plan permits the committee to grant performance shares and performance units to key employees, which entitle the participant to convert the performance shares or performance units into shares of common stock or into cash or into a combination thereof, as determined by the committee, if pre-determined performance targets or goals are met. Performance goals include one or more of the following: net earnings, operating income, cash flow, return on equity, return on capital employed, return on assets, and total stockholder return. The committee determines the length of the performance period. Award payments made in cash rather than by the issuance of shares do not result in additional shares being available for reissuance under the 1995 LTI Plan. No participant shall receive a cash award of more than $500,000 in any plan year.

EMPLOYMENT; TRANSFERABILITY

The Committee is authorized under the 1995 LTI Plan to adopt policies regarding the entitlement of participants who cease to be employed by the Company because of death, disability, resignation, termination or retirement. These policies may vary depending upon the specific circumstances and the individual involved. The rights and interests of a participant under the 1995 LTI Plan, including his or her rights under any award issued or granted under the 1995 LTI Plan, may not be assigned, sold, encumbered or transferred except by will or the laws of descent and distribution in the event of the death of the participant.

TAX CONSEQUENCES

Edgar Filing: CURTISS WRIGHT CORP - Form DEF 14A

Participants in the 1995 LTI Plan do not recognize taxable income by reason of the grant or vesting of an option, and the Corporation does not receive a tax deduction by reason of either event. At exercise, the federal tax consequences vary depending on whether the award is an incentive stock option or a non-qualified stock option.

Incentive Stock Options. Incentive stock options under the 1995 LTI Plan are intended to meet the requirements of Section 422 of the Code. Under this section of the Code, if an option holder acquires stock upon the exercise of an option, no income results to the option holder and the Corporation is not allowed a deduction as a result of such exercise if the following conditions are met: (a) at all times during the period beginning with the date of the grant of the option and ending on the date three months before the date of such exercise, the option holder is an employee of the Corporation or of a subsidiary; and (b) the option holder makes no disposition of the stock within two years from the date the option is granted nor within one year after the option is exercised. In the event of a sale of such stock by the option holder after compliance with these conditions, any gain realized over the price paid for the stock will ordinarily be treated as a long-term capital gain, and any loss will ordinarily be treated as a long-term capital loss, in the year of sale. The exercise of an incentive stock option may result in alternative minimum tax liability to the option holder. If the option holder fails to comply with the employment or holding period requirements discussed above, he will be treated as having received compensation taxable as ordinary income or having received a capital gain in accordance with the provisions of the Code. If the option holder is treated as having received compensation because of this failure to comply with either condition above, an equivalent deduction from income will be allowed to the Corporation in the same year.

Non-Qualified Stock Options. An option holder who exercises a non-qualified stock option generally realizes compensation taxable as ordinary income in an amount equal to the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise, and the Corporation is entitled to a deduction from income in the same amount. The option holder's basis in such shares will be the fair market value on the date exercised, and the long-term or short-term capital gain or loss, depending on the holding period of the shares, will be recognized in the year of sale.

Stock Appreciation Rights. The grant of a stock appreciation right does not result in tax consequences to the Corporation or to the option holder. An option holder who exercises a stock appreciation right will realize compensation taxable as ordinary income in an amount equal to the cash or the fair market value of the shares received on the date of exercise, and the Corporation will be entitled to a deduction in the same amount. If an employee allows a stock appreciation right to expire, otherwise than as a result of exercising the related option, the Internal Revenue Service may contend that the employee will have taxable income in the year of expiration equal to the amount of cash or the fair market value of stock which he would have received if he had exercised his stock appreciation right immediately before it expired. In addition, under Treasury Regulations governing incentive stock options, a stock appreciation right with respect to an incentive stock option must be granted at the same time the incentive stock option is granted in order to ensure that the incentive stock option remains qualified as such.

Limited Stock Appreciation Rights. The grant of a limited stock appreciation right will not result in tax consequences to the Corporation or to a participant. A participant who exercises a limited stock appreciation right will realize compensation taxable as ordinary income in an amount equal to the cash or the fair market value of the shares received on the date of exercise, and the Corporation will be entitled to a deduction in the same amount. A participant who does not exercise at the time of a change in control and allows the limited stock appreciation rights to lapse could be taxed as though exercise had occurred at either of those two dates.

Restricted Stock Awards. Restricted stock awards granted under the 1995 LTI Plan will constitute taxable income to the recipient, and a deductible expense to the Corporation, in the year in which the restrictions lapse unless the participant elects to recognize income in the year the award is made. Unless such an election is made, the amount of the taxable income and corresponding deduction will be equal to the excess of the fair market value of the stock on the date the restrictions lapse over the amount, if any, paid for such stock. The Corporation is also allowed a compensation deduction for dividends paid to participants (provided they have not elected to recognize income at the time of the award) on restricted stock while the restrictions remain in force.

Performance Shares and Performance Units. Performance shares and performance units awarded under the 1995 LTI Plan will not constitute a taxable event to the recipient until such time as the recipient actually receives shares of common stock or cash related to such award. The amount of taxable income will be equal to the amount of cash received or the fair market value of stock received at such time. The Corporation will be entitled to a compensation deduction in the same year.

PLAN AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

Currently, the 1995 LTI Plan will terminate on May 5, 2005. The committee may suspend, reinstate and terminate the 1995 LTI Plan or any portion thereof at any time. In addition, the committee may, from time to time, amend the 1995 LTI Plan in any manner, but may not without stockholder approval adopt any amendment which would (a) increase the number of shares of common stock which may be issued under the 1995 LTI Plan (except in the event of certain extraordinary distributions of cash or shares of stock, as described in the 1995 LTI Plan), or (b) change the employees or class of employees eligible to participate in the 1995 LTI Plan.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The board of directors unanimously recommends a vote FOR the amendment of the 1995 Long-Term Incentive Plan.
