This Proxy Statement is furnished with respect to the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Nautica Enterprises, Inc. (the "Company") for the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held at 10:00 a.m. on July 10, 2001 and at any adjournment or adjournments thereof, at 40 West 57th Street, 7th floor, New York, New York. The approximate date on which the Proxy Statement and form of proxy was first sent or given to stockholders was June 8, 2001.

As of the close of business on May 30, 2001, the date for determining the stockholders of record entitled to notice of and to vote at the Annual Meeting and any adjournment or adjournments thereof, there were issued and outstanding 33,084,392 shares of the Company's Common Stock, the holders thereof being entitled to one vote per share. The presence at the Annual Meeting of a majority of such shares, in person or by proxy, are required for a quorum. All shares that have been properly voted, whether by telephone, Internet or mail, and not revoked, will be treated as being present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting and will be voted at the Annual Meeting.

The form of proxy solicited by the Board of Directors affords stockholders the ability to specify a choice among approval of, disapproval of, or abstention with respect to, each matter to be acted upon at the Annual Meeting. Shares represented by the proxy will be voted and, where the solicited stockholder indicates a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted as specified. If any other matters are properly presented for consideration at the Annual Meeting, the persons named in the proxy will have the discretion to vote on those matters.

The expense of the solicitation of proxies for the meeting, including the cost of mailing, will be borne by the Company. In addition to mailing copies of the enclosed proxy materials to stockholders, the Company may request persons, and reimburse them for their expenses with respect thereto, who hold stock in their names or custody or in the names of nominees for others to forward copies of such materials to those persons for whom they hold stock of the Company and to request authority for the execution of the proxies. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, it is expected that some of the officers, directors, and regular employees of the Company, without additional compensation, may solicit proxies on behalf of the Board of Directors by telephone, telefax, and personal interview.

Stockholders of record may vote by telephone, via the Internet or by mail. A toll-free telephone number and web site address are included on the proxy card. For stockholders who choose to vote by mail, a postage-paid envelope is provided.

Voting by Telephone. Stockholders of record may vote by using the toll-free number listed on the proxy card. Telephone voting is available 24 hours a day. Easy-to-follow voice prompts allow stockholders to vote their shares and confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded. The Company's telephone voting procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders by using individual control numbers provided on each proxy card. Stockholders who vote by telephone need not return the proxy card. Please see the proxy card for specific instructions.

Edgar Filing: NAUTICA ENTERPRISES INC - Form DEF 14A

CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

The Company and Messrs. The Company has obtained policies of life insurance on the lives of such stockholders for the purpose of utilizing the proceeds from such insurance for the purchase of the shares. The agreement provides for the Company to purchase the shares of the deceased stockholder at a value which is equal to the average of the last sale price as reported on the National Market List of the NASDAQ (or the closing price if the shares are listed on a national securities exchange) for the thirty trading days prior to the date of death of the deceased stockholder. The Company's obligation to purchase the Common Stock of the deceased stockholder is limited to the life insurance proceeds received by the Company on the death of such stockholder. The agreement also provides, as soon after the death of the stockholder as is practicable, for the filing of a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for a secondary offering to provide for the sale of the balance of the shares owned by the deceased stockholder.

Mr. David Chu, Executive Vice President of the Company and President of Nautica Apparel, Inc. and Nautica International, Inc., both wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company, is entitled to receive 50% of the net income Nautica Apparel, Inc. receives from all royalty income earned with respect to the Nautica name and trademarks. For the year ended March 3, 2001, Mr. Chu earned net royalty income of $8,779,431. Through a separate arrangement, Mr. Chu is entitled to receive, subject to certain conditions, a design fee of

SECTION 16(A) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors and executive officers, and persons who own more than ten percent of its Common Stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"). Officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders are required by the Commission to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

The Company believes that, based solely on its review of the copies of such forms received by it, or written representations from certain reporting persons that no reports on Form 5 were required for those persons, during fiscal year

2001 all filing requirements applicable to its officers, directors and greater than ten percent stockholders were complied with.

EMPLOYEE CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has entered into agreements with Messrs. Sanders, Chu and Varvatos providing that in the event of a change in control of the Company, as defined in the agreements, each has the right to receive a lump sum payment upon termination of employment other than for cause or permanent disability or resignation for good reason within three years after the change in control. At March 3, 2001, the maximum amount payable to Mr. Sanders, Mr. Chu and Mr. Varvatos under such agreements was $4,319,700, $3,754,200 and $3,206,100, respectively.

The Company has entered into split-dollar agreements with trusts established by each of Mr. Sanders and Mr. Chu, and with Mr. Varvatos. Pursuant to each of the agreements, the Company pays the annual premium on specified life insurance policies owned by each of the trusts and by Mr. Varvatos, net of the amount of the "economic benefit" attributable to each of the employees. The amount of the premiums paid by the Company constitutes indebtedness from each of the trusts and Mr. Varvatos to the Company and is secured by collateral assignments of each of the insurance policies to the Company. The annual premium payable by the Company for the benefit of Mr. Sanders' trust is $57,232, for Mr. Chu's trust, $48,113 and for Mr. Varvatos, $89,336. Upon termination of each of the agreements, the Company is entitled to receive from each of the trusts the amount equal to the aggregate premiums which it has paid. The face value of the policy for Mr. Sanders' trust is $5,000,000, for Mr. Chu's trust, $4,950,000 and for Mr. Varvatos, $5,000,000.

The Company has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Varvatos which provides for continued service by Mr. Varvatos in his present position as President of John Varvatos Company ("JVC") until February 28, 2002, subject to extension for additional three year segments unless either the Company or Mr. Varvatos provides notice of non-extension. During fiscal year 2002, Mr. Varvatos is entitled to receive a salary of $735,000. Thereafter, any increases are determined by the Board of Directors, subject to a minimum increase of no less than 5%. Mr. Varvatos is entitled to annual bonuses in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time. The employment agreement includes the change in control provisions set forth above and provides that if during the term of employment Mr. Sanders is no longer employed by the Company then the Company shall exercise one of the following options: (i) spin-off to the Company's shareholders the shares of JVC with Mr. Varvatos serving as its Chief Executive Officer; (ii) sell JVC to Mr. Varvatos at fair market value, or (iii) pay to Mr. Varvatos an annual amount equal to 10% of JVC's net income (after taxes) for so long as he remains JVC's Chief Executive Officer. The Company can elect to cease making the annual payments provided for in clause (iii) above by making a lump sum payment to the executive in an amount equal to two times the JVC average annual net income (after taxes) for the prior three years; provided, however, such sum shall not exceed $50 million. Mr. Varvatos has assigned to the Company all of his right, title and interest in and to the names John Varvatos, Varvatos and John Varvatos Company, and any derivations thereof.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE INTERLOCKS AND INSIDER PARTICIPATION

Robert B. Bank and Ronald G. Weiner serve as members of the compensation committee (the "Compensation Committee") of the Board of Directors.

Edgar Filing: NAUTICA ENTERPRISES INC - Form DEF 14A

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors consists of two non-employee directors. The Compensation Committee reviews the Company's executive compensation policies and practices and develops recommendations to the Board with respect to compensation for the Company's senior executives. In fiscal year 1998, the Board adopted an executive compensation program to provide a framework for administering the Company's executive compensation program. The Committee also administers the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan and the 1996 Stock Incentive Plan.

The goals of the Company's compensation policies are as follows:

- to attract, retain, reward and motivate executive officers and employees by establishing compensation levels generally competitive with the marketplace;
- to align executive compensation with the Company's business objectives;
- to position compensation to reflect the individual's performance as well as the level of responsibility, skill and strategic value of the executive; and
- to align the interests of the Company's employees with those of its stockholders.

In setting compensation, the Compensation Committee reviews, with the assistance of independent compensation consultants, available information for similar positions or levels at comparable companies. Such companies include a diverse range of apparel manufacturers with sales within, below and above the range of sales of the Company. The Compensation Committee has adopted a policy to seek to maintain executive compensation within the deduction cap of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code").

The Company's executive compensation program consists of three main components: base salary, cash bonus or incentive awards, and long-term stock-based incentives. Base salaries are determined with reference to a competitive norm and job grades with consideration given to the executive's strategic value, experience, proficiency and performance. Ranges of salary are assigned to each grade with a minimum salary representing the lowest entry level, a midpoint salary representing a market value of experienced good performers and a maximum salary representing the highest value for the most experienced and proficient employees. Cash bonuses to eligible employees are based upon a formula to provide a direct "pay-for-performance" vehicle. The annual bonus also serves to focus executives on those activities that most directly affect shareholder value which are within their control and for which they are held accountable. At the beginning of the fiscal year, specific performance measures and goals are established based upon corporate and/or business unit profitability and individual performance. Each participant is assigned a target bonus award opportunity that relates to his or her level. That target award level represents the level of bonus payment the participant can expect to earn in the event all performance goals are achieved at 100% during the ensuing fiscal year. When performance levels exceed or fall below expectations, actual awards are proportionately increased or decreased from the target, with bonuses "at risk." In fiscal year 2001, the target levels established at the corporate and business unit levels were based upon earnings before income taxes.

With respect to certain senior executives, including Harvey Sanders, the Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, David Chu, the Executive Vice President of the Company, Alex Cannon, President -- Merchandising of Nautica International, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and John Varvatos, President of John Varvatos Company, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, annual incentive award opportunities are set in accordance with the Company's Incentive Compensation Plan (the "Plan"). At the start of each fiscal year, the Compensation Committee, in consultation with management, establishes target levels of either earnings before income taxes, net earnings and/or return on equity for the Company or a business unit. In fiscal year 2001, threshold levels of earnings were established. If the designated minimum level of earnings was not achieved, the participants would have received no incentive award for fiscal year 2001 performance under the Plan (although in its discretion, the Compensation Committee could have authorized an award outside of the Plan). During such year, the minimum threshold level was exceeded and the participants received an incremental proportionately greater payment than the minimum. The Compensation Committee has established target levels for fiscal year 2002 based on earnings and has granted incentive award opportunities for such year to each of Messrs. Sanders, Chu, Cannon and Varvatos.

The Company's senior executives are eligible to receive stock options and/or restricted stock in accordance with the Company's 1996 Stock Incentive Plan. The objectives of such participation are to align executive and stockholder long term interests and to enable executives to develop a stock ownership position in the Company. The Compensation Committee has the responsibility of granting stock options and restricted stock awards to executive and management employees. In granting stock options, the Compensation Committee takes into account Company performance, subsidiary performance and individual performance, utilizing the same factors as those used in the determination of cash compensation. The Compensation Committee also takes into account the number of options held by an individual and the total number of stock options outstanding. No stock options were granted to senior executives in fiscal year 2001.

The Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company is Harvey Sanders. The criteria by which the Compensation Committee determines salary, bonus and the grant of stock options for senior executives, as set forth above, is also utilized by the Compensation Committee in determining cash compensation and stock option awards for Mr. Sanders.
