ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by and on behalf of the Board of Directors of Getty Realty Corp. (hereinafter called the Company or Getty), to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders to be held at 270 Park Avenue, 11th Floor, New York, New York, on May 16, 2006 at 3:30 p.m., and at any adjournments or postponements thereof, for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors, ratifying the appointment of independent auditors and transacting such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

At the close of business on the March 31, 2006 record date for securities entitled to vote at the meeting, 24,719,465 shares of Getty common stock were outstanding. Each outstanding common share is entitled to one vote. The common shares vote as a single class. In order to constitute a quorum at the meeting, there must be present, or voting by proxy, holders of a majority of the outstanding common shares. With respect to the proposals regarding the election of directors and ratification of auditors, abstentions and broker non-votes will not be treated as votes cast and, therefore, will not affect the outcome of any such matter, although they will be considered present for the purpose of determining the presence of a quorum.

This Proxy Statement and form of proxy will first be sent to stockholders on or about April 7, 2006.

DIRECTORS MEETINGS, COMMITTEES AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Directors Meetings

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Board of Directors held four regular meetings and one telephonic special meeting. Each of the directors, other than Mr. Wintrub, attended all of the meetings of the Board of Directors, and of the Committees of the Board on which the director served. Mr. Wintrub participated telephonically in all Board meetings and all but one of the meetings of the Committees of the Board on which he served. Each of the directors, other than Mr. Wintrub, attended the annual stockholder meeting in May 2005 and each of the nominees, except Mr. Wintrub, plan to attend this year's stockholder meeting to be held on May 16, 2006.

Independence of Directors

The Board of Directors has determined that Messrs. Cooper, Coviello, Safenowitz and Wintrub are independent as defined in the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the NYSE). In making these determinations, the Board of Directors considered all relevant facts and circumstances, including the independence standards set forth in Section 303A.02 of the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. In doing so, the Board of Directors affirmatively determined that none of the directors or any of their family members, other than Mr. Leo Liebowitz (who is the Chief Executive Officer of Getty), has had any material relationship with Getty (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organization that has a relationship with the Company), other than as a shareholder and director of Getty, within the last three years. Accordingly, the Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that each of the directors, other than Mr. Liebowitz, is independent. It has been and will continue to be the practice of the Board of Directors to meet at least twice annually and have Mr. Liebowitz, as Chairman, chair such meetings. Additionally, it has been the practice of the independent directors to meet in executive session, without Mr. Liebowitz attending, at least twice annually, and to have Mr. Wintrub chair such sessions. The independent directors plan to continue this practice and have Mr. Cooper chair such sessions.

Committees

The Board of Directors has an Audit Committee, a Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee and a Compensation Committee, the membership and functions of which are described below.

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee, consisting of Messrs. Coviello (Chairman), Safenowitz and Wintrub, met formally four times last year. The Committee selects the firm of independent public accountants that audits the consolidated financial statements of Getty and its subsidiaries, discusses the scope and the results of the audit with the accountants and discusses Getty's financial accounting and reporting principles as well as the adoption of new accounting pronouncements. The Committee also examines and discusses the adequacy of Getty's financial controls with the accountants and with management. In addition to the formal meetings, at least one Audit Committee member meets telephonically with management and Getty's independent auditors to review the Company's annual and quarterly reports and other reports, as appropriate, prior to their filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The entire Audit Committee met with management and Getty's independent auditors to review the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and recommended to the Board of Directors that the financial statements be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for such fiscal year. Additionally, the Audit Committee reviews, and discusses with management, management's specific disclosures contained in Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is independent and that each is financially literate as such term is defined in the listing standards of the NYSE. In addition, the Board has determined that each member of the Audit Committee meets the independence tests set forth in Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and regulations promulgated thereunder by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC), and that Mr. Coviello and Mr. Wintrub each qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under the relevant rules of the SEC, and has the requisite accounting/financial management expertise required by the listing standards of the NYSE. Mr. Cooper, who served on the Audit Committee until February 24, 2005, also was deemed to be independent and financially literate as defined by the NYSE listing standards and independent under SEC rules.

The Charter of the Audit Committee provides that members of the Audit Committee may not be members of the audit committee of three or more other public companies unless such other memberships have been disclosed to the Board and the Board has determined that such simultaneous service does not impair the ability of such member to serve effectively on the Audit Committee. For 2005, Mr. Wintrub disclosed to the Board that he is a member of the audit committee of three other public companies and the Board has determined that such simultaneous service does not impair Mr. Wintrub's ability to serve effectively on Getty's Audit Committee. Additionally, Mr. Coviello confirmed to the Board that his retirement from Latham & Watkins LLP, his former law firm that continues to provide legal services to the Company, was effective as of December 31, 2003, and that the law firm has confirmed, that no portion of his retirement benefits are derived from fees paid to the firm by Getty.

The Audit Committee serves as the Company's Qualified Legal Compliance Committee in accordance with SEC rules under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act.

Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee

The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee, consisting of Messrs. Safenowitz (Chairman), Cooper, Coviello and Wintrub, met twice last year. The Committee recommends nominees for election to the Board and reviews the role, composition and structure of the Board and its committees. The Committee also recommends candidates to the Board for election as officers.

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Committee is independent as such term is defined in the listing standards of the NYSE. The Nominating/Corporate Governance Committee charter includes policies with regard to stockholder recommendations of nominees to the Board of Directors.

Stockholders wishing to recommend candidates for election to the Board must supply information in writing regarding the candidate to Andrew M. Smith, President and Secretary of the Company, at Getty's executive offices. This information should include the candidate's name, biographical data and an analysis of the candidate based on the director candidate criteria described below. The recommendation must also include all information relating to the proposed director nominee that would be required to be disclosed in a solicitation of proxies for election of directors in an election contest under applicable securities law. Stockholders wishing to nominate a candidate must comply with the advance notice requirements in our By-Laws. Please refer to our By-Laws for more specific information. Additional information regarding proposed nominees may be requested by the Committee.

Each nominee must possess fundamental qualities of intelligence, honesty, good judgment, and high standards of ethics, integrity, fairness and responsibility. The Committee also will consider the following criteria, among others the Committee deems appropriate, including the specific needs of the Board at the time:

experience in corporate management, such as serving as an officer or former officer of a publicly held company, and a general understanding of marketing, finance and other elements relevant to the success of a publicly-traded company in today's business environment;

the director's past attendance at meetings and participation in and contributions to the activities of the Board (if applicable);

experience in our industry and with relevant social policy concerns;

understanding of our business on a technical level;

educational and professional background and/or academic experience in an area of our operations;

experience as a board member of another publicly held company;

practical and mature business judgment, including ability to make independent analytical inquiries;

independence, as defined by the New York Stock Exchange listing standards;

financial literacy;

standing in the community; and ability to foster a diversity of backgrounds and views and to complement the Board's existing strengths.

On the basis of the information gathered in this process, the Committee will determine which nominees to recommend to the Board. Recommendations received prior to any Committee meeting where director nominees are to be considered will be considered at that meeting. The Committee uses the same process for evaluating all nominees, regardless of the source of the recommendation. This process includes, among other things, personal interviews, discussions with professional references, background checks, credit checks and resume verification.

The Committee has never received any recommendation for a director nominee from any stockholder or group of stockholders owning more than 5% of the common stock of Getty for more than one fiscal year.

Compensation Committee

The Compensation Committee, which met twice last year, consists of Messrs. Wintrub (Chairman), Cooper and Safenowitz. The Compensation Committee administers Getty's supplemental retirement plan, the stock option plan, and the Getty Realty Corp. 2004 Omnibus Incentive Compensation Plan (the 2004 Plan) (which is the equity compensation plan approved by the stockholders at the Annual Meeting in May 2004), and reviews the compensation of the directors and officers of Getty.

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Committee is independent as such term is defined in the listing standards of the NYSE.

Website Access to Charters

The charters for each of the Committees, the Corporate Governance Guidelines, and our Business Conduct Guidelines (which serves as our code of ethics under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and our code of business conduct and ethics under the NYSE rules), may be accessed through the Getty website at www.gettyrealty.com by clicking on Corporate Governance. Additionally, copies may be requested in writing by submitting the request to Andrew M. Smith, President, Secretary and Chief Legal Officer, at the address for Getty's executive offices provided in this Proxy Statement.

OTHER EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In December 1994, Getty entered into agreements with certain key employees that, as amended, require Getty, under certain circumstances, to pay at least a minimum guaranteed annual compensation to such employee as long as he or she remains a Getty employee. The agreements also require Getty, in the event of a change of control and termination of employment by Getty without cause, or if the employee is assigned to materially less favorable job responsibilities, to make payments to such individual at an annual rate of not less than the minimum guaranteed annual compensation, reduced by the amount of compensation the individual receives from any other employer during the covered period. Mr. Stirweis currently is the only employee covered by these arrangements, and his agreement has a 12-month benefit period.

Pursuant to a long-standing arrangement, upon the death of Mr. Liebowitz, benefits in an amount equal to twelve months' salary will be paid to his estate. In the event of termination of Mr. Liebowitz' employment due to illness or incapacity for a period of one year or longer, benefits equal to twenty-four months' salary will be payable to Mr. Liebowitz.

Mr. Liebowitz receives an annual payment of $3,500 from a subsidiary's defined benefit retirement plan which was terminated effective October 1, 1985. He will continue to receive this amount during his employment with, and following his retirement from, the Company.

Stock Option Plan

Our 1998 Stock Option Plan, as amended, that has been approved by our stockholders (the Stock Option Plan), authorizes the grant of long-term incentive share awards in the form of options (Options) to purchase shares of Getty common stock to directors, officers and other key employees of Getty and its subsidiaries. The Stock Option Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee. The maximum number of shares which may be the subject of outstanding Options under the Stock Option Plan is 1,100,000, subject to adjustments for stock dividends and stock splits. The maximum number of shares which may be subject to Options granted under the Stock Option Plan to any individual in any fiscal year shall not exceed 250,000. As of December 31, 2005, 84,378 shares of Getty common stock were issuable upon the exercise of Options outstanding under the Stock Option Plan. No grants may be made under the Stock Option Plan after January 30, 2008. The number of remaining shares available for grant under the Stock Option Plan was 665,870 as of March 31, 2006.

The recipients, terms (including price and exercise period) and type of Option to be granted under the Stock Option Plan are determined by the Compensation Committee. However, the Option price per share under the Stock Option Plan generally must be at least equal to the fair market value of a share of Getty common stock (110% of that amount in the case of Incentive Stock Options granted to any individual who owns stock representing more than 10% of the voting power of Getty common stock) on the date the Option is granted. Historically, the exercise price of the options granted by the Company has been the same as the market price at closing on the date of the grant. Subject to certain limitations, Options granted under the Stock Option Plan may be either Incentive Stock Options (within the meaning of Section 422(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code)) or Non-Qualified Stock Options. With certain limited exceptions, Options may not be exercised for a period of twelve months following the grant of the Option and are exercisable in installments as specified in the Stock Option Plan or the terms of each Option. The exercise period of an Option may not extend more than 10 years beyond its grant date.

2004 Incentive Compensation Plan

At the Annual Meeting in May 2004, the stockholders approved the 2004 Plan for officers and other valued employees of the Company and its subsidiaries and members of the Board.

The 2004 Plan provides for the grant of restricted stock, restricted stock units, cash, stock or other performance awards, dividend equivalents, deferred stock awards, stock payments and stock awards to eligible individuals. The 2004 Plan does not provide for the grant of stock options. In this regard, the Stock Option Plan will continue to remain in effect. The 2004 Plan also permits a grant to each employee of 10 shares of common stock on or about December 31st of each year (which, in the case of 2005, were granted to each full-time employee), as well as a grant to each employee, on each fifth anniversary of his or her employment, of 10 shares of common stock for each five years of employment.

Table of Contents

The 2004 Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee, which has the power to determine eligibility, the types and sizes of awards, the price and timing of awards, terms of vesting, the acceleration or waiver of any vesting restriction and the timing and manner of settling vested awards.

An aggregate of 1,000,000 shares of common stock are available for grant pursuant to the 2004 Plan, subject to adjustments for stock dividends and stock splits. These shares will be authorized but unissued shares. The aggregate maximum number of shares of common stock that may be subject to awards granted under the 2004 Plan to all participants during any calendar year is 80,000.

The Compensation Committee may terminate, amend, or modify the 2004 Plan at any time; provided, however, that stockholder approval must be obtained for any amendment to the extent required in order to comply with any applicable law, regulation or stock exchange rule, or to increase the maximum number of shares which may be issued, in any year or in aggregate, under the 2004 Plan.

In no event may an award be granted pursuant to the 2004 Plan on or after the tenth anniversary of the last date on which Getty's stockholders approved or amend or modify the 2004 Plan.

Getty will generally record compensation expense with respect to the grant of awards under the 2004 Plan using the fair value method of accounting. Under generally accepted accounting principles, Getty will record compensation expense for a restricted stock award equal to the excess of the fair market value of the award determined as of the date of the grant over the amount (if any) the participant pays for the stock, and will recognize this amount as compensation expense ratably over any applicable service vesting period. Awards of restricted stock units will be treated similarly. Awards subject to performance vesting conditions will result in similar compensation expense measured at the grant date, which may be adjusted periodically as vesting becomes more or less likely, and amounts recognized as compensation expense in any period in which vesting occurs. Getty will charge retained earnings in the amount of any payment of dividend equivalents granted under the 2004 Plan.

The following chart presents information regarding Getty's equity compensation plans, as of December 31, 2005, except as noted:

Retirement Plans

Getty has a retirement and profit-sharing plan with deferred 401(k) savings plan provisions (the Retirement Plan) for employees meeting certain service requirements. Under the terms of the Retirement Plan, the annual discretionary profit sharing contribution is determined by the Board of Directors. For the 401(k) portion of the Retirement Plan, the Board of Directors has elected to contribute to the Retirement Plan for each participating employee an amount equal to 50% of the employee's contribution to the Retirement Plan, but in no event more than 3% of the employee's compensation.

Getty also has a supplemental retirement plan for executives (the Supplemental Plan). Under the Supplemental Plan, which is not qualified for purposes of Section 401(a) of the Code, a participating executive may receive in his trust account an amount equal to 10% of his compensation, reduced by the amount of any contributions allocated to the executive under the Retirement Plan. The amounts paid to the trustee under the Supplemental Plan may be used to satisfy claims of general creditors in the event of Getty's or any of its subsidiaries' bankruptcy. The trustee may not cause the Supplemental Plan to be other than unfunded for purposes of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. An executive's account vests in the same manner as under the Retirement Plan and is paid upon termination of employment. Under the Supplemental Plan, during any fiscal year the Board of Directors may elect not to make any payment to the account of any or all executives.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

To Our Stockholders:

This report addresses our policies with respect to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers during fiscal year 2005. The Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the Compensation Committee) is responsible for setting the policies which govern base salary compensation, bonuses, the Retirement Plan, the Supplemental Plan, the Stock Option Plan, and the 2004 Plan, and for determining amounts payable under these plans.

Compensation of Getty s executive officers (with the exception of the Chief Executive Officer) is reviewed by the Chief Executive Officer with the Compensation Committee and is discussed, reviewed and approved by the full Board of Directors. The compensation of the Chief Executive Officer is discussed, reviewed and approved by the Compensation Committee.

Chief Executive Officer and Other Executive Officer Compensation

The members of this Committee believe that Getty s success is attributable in large part to the talent and dedication of its employees and, in particular, to the management and leadership efforts of its executive officers. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee is committed to developing and maintaining compensation policies, plans and programs which are intended to retain its executive officers and promote the enhancement of cash flows and earnings and, consequently, increased stockholder values, by aligning the financial interests of Getty s executive officers with those of its stockholders.

Getty s Chief Executive Officer is the Company s largest stockholder. Accordingly, the Committee believes that he is totally committed to promoting the enhancement of cash flows and earnings and, consequently, increased stockholder values, and that his financial interests are totally aligned with those of the Company s stockholders without regard to his compensation. In setting the Chief Executive Officer s compensation, the Committee is guided by what is adequate or fair, in view of his daily contribution to the Company s performance.

Getty relies, to a large degree, on a combination of annual compensation and deferred compensation, including stock based grants, to retain its other executive officers, with stock based grants being viewed as the primary means of aligning the financial interests of Getty s executive officers with those of its stockholders.

Getty s compensation program for executive officers (other than the Chief Executive Officer) is designed to provide such officers with a total compensation package that is adequate to retain those executive officers. With its objective being to retain capable people, Getty endeavors to ensure that each officer s total compensation is relative to his or her ability, effort and achievement.

The Compensation Committee considers Getty s performance, each executive officer s performance and subjective features, such as individual experience, in determining base salaries. Cash compensation and bonuses, when paid, deferred compensation and the number of restricted stock units and dividend equivalents (paid with regard to such restricted stock units) granted annually, are in amounts which the Compensation Committee, after due consideration of corporate and individual performance, changes in job function or title and previously awarded grants, considers appropriate to adequately compensate and motivate its executive officers, particularly in light of Getty s focus on managing its portfolio of retail motor fuel and convenience store properties as well as petroleum distribution terminals while minimizing expenses.

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code denies publicly-held corporations the federal income tax deduction for compensation in excess of $1.0 million paid to its chief executive officer and four other most highly compensated officers during a fiscal year unless the compensation is performance-based . At this time the compensation paid to our chief executive officer and other officers do not approach the limits imposed by the Section 162(m) limitations on deductibility. In the event that the compensation of any officer approaches the Section 162(m) limitations in the future, the Compensation Committee will consider such limitations in determining such officer s total compensation.

Equity Compensation

In prior years, stock options were granted by Getty to encourage and facilitate personal stock ownership by the directors, officers and certain other key employees and thus strengthen their personal commitment to Getty and provide a longer-term perspective to their managerial responsibilities. No stock options were granted in 2005. Instead, the Compensation Committee, to better link the officers and employees interests with those of the stockholders of Getty, pursuant to the 2004 Plan, granted equity based awards consisting of restricted stock units and dividend equivalents (paid with regard to such restricted stock units) that were consistent with the grants made in 2004 and are intended to align the financial interests of Getty's officers and employees with those of its stockholders.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

To Our Stockholders:

This report addresses our compliance with rules of the SEC and the listing standards of the NYSE designed to enhance audit committee effectiveness, to improve public disclosure about the functioning of corporate audit committees and to enhance the reliability and credibility of financial statements of public companies.

Independence/Qualifications

The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee satisfies the independence tests set forth in Section 301 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and regulations promulgated thereunder by the SEC and, therefore, is independent, that each member who served on the Audit Committee for 2005 is financially literate as such term is defined in the listing standards of the NYSE, and that Mr. Coviello and Mr. Wintrub each qualifies as an audit committee financial expert under the relevant rules of the SEC and has the requisite accounting/financial management expertise required by the listing standards of the NYSE.

Sarbanes-Oxley Act Compliance

During the past year, the Audit Committee met regularly with management to assure that the Company's internal financial controls continued to meet applicable standards under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act and are compliant with the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange. The Company's internal financial controls were extensively reviewed and tested by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, our independent auditors, who have issued an unqualified audit report on our internal financial controls. Their report is included with the consolidated financial statements in our Annual Report to Shareholders. At the Audit Committee meeting held on February 16, 2006, the Committee reviewed our internal financial controls with management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, and determined that Getty is fully compliant with the requirements applicable to it.

Financial Statements

With regard to our audited financial statements, the Audit Committee has:

- (1) reviewed and discussed the audited financial statements with management and with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP;
- (2) discussed with PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, as modified or supplemented;

for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005 for filing with the SEC.

The Audit Committee Chairman, prior to filing with the SEC of each of the Company's quarterly reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended March 31, June 30 and September 30, 2005, reviewed with the Company's management and PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP the Company's interim financial results to be included in such reports and the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61.
