Item 2.01 Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On November 13, 2006, pursuant to the previously announced Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) between UnionBancorp, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as New Centrue) and Centrue Financial Corporation (Old Centrue) dated June 30, 2006, New Centrue and Old Centrue completed the merger in which Old Centrue merged with and into New Centrue, with New Centrue as the surviving corporation.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each share of Old Centrue common stock outstanding at the effective time of the Merger was converted into the right to receive 1.2 shares of New Centrue. New Centrue will deliver approximately $50 million in New Centrue common stock to Old Centrue stockholders, based on Old Centrue shares outstanding as of the effective time and the closing price of New Centrue common stock on November 9, 2006.

This description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement, as amended, included as an exhibit hereto.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Principal Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Principal Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(a) The following directors of UnionBancorp, Inc. resigned effective with the merger: Robert J. Doty, I. J. Reinhardt, Jr. and John A. Trainor. Their resignations were not the result of any disagreement with the company.

(c) In addition to Thomas A. Daiber being appointed President and Chief Executive Officer of New Centrue and Kurt R. Stevenson being appointed Interim Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the board of directors appointed the following individuals as executive officers of New Centrue:

Rick Parks	Market President
Mike O Gorman	Market President
Don Brown	Market President
Diane Leto	Head of Operations
Dave Conterio	Head of Financial Services
Everett Solon	Market President
Steve Flahaven	Commercial Manager
Ken Jones	Chief Credit Officer
Heather Hammitt	Director of Human Resources
Bob Davidson	Chief Investment Officer
Roger Dotson	Senior Operations Officer
Larry Nona	Retail Manager

Mr. O Gorman, Mr. Brown and Mr. Parks have entered into employment agreements with New Centrue. Each agreement is substantially identical. Initially the agreements are effective for a one-year term. On the first anniversary of the date the agreements become effective, the term will be extended an additional year, unless either party gives written notice of non-renewal to the other party. The agreements specify a minimum annual base salary for each senior officer ranging from $100,000 to $135,000. Each senior officer will have the opportunity to receive annual performance bonuses of up to 25% of base salary. Each senior officer is entitled to not less than twenty-three days of paid time off as well as benefits at least as favorable to the benefits provided to all other employees of New Centrue. Each agreement provides that in the event of a termination of the senior officer s employment by New Centrue without cause during such period, during the first twelve months of the agreement, or by the senior officer due to constructive discharge during such period, the senior officer will be entitled to certain severance benefits including payments of the senior officer s annual compensation for twelve months. Annual compensation is the senior officer s base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period. The senior officer would also be entitled to receive reimbursement for premiums the senior officer pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the senior officer and the senior officer s dependents. During the twelve months following a change of control of New Centrue, if the senior officer voluntarily terminates his employment due to constructive discharge or if New Centrue terminates the senior officer s employment for any reason other than cause, the senior officer will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to the senior officer s annual compensation, which is the sum of the senior officer s base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period, plus reimbursement for premiums the senior officer pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the senior officer and the senior officer s dependents. The employment agreements include customary provisions prohibiting the senior officer from competing with New Centrue and other activities that would be harmful to New Centrue. Payments under the employment agreements will be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent any portion of the payments from being treated as a nondeductible excess parachute payment under the federal tax laws. The foregoing discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of employment agreement included as Exhibit 10.1 hereto.

New Centrue also entered into employment agreements with Mr. Daiber and Mr. Stevenson. Except as described below, each agreement is substantially identical. Initially the agreements are effective for a three-year term. On the second anniversary of the agreements effective date, the term will be extended an additional day so that the term is always one year, unless either party gives written notice of non-renewal to the other party. The agreements provide for annual base salary of not less than $290,000 for Mr. Daiber and $170,000 for Mr. Stevenson. The executives will have the opportunity to receive annual performance bonuses of up to 50% of base salary in the case of Mr. Daiber and up to 30% of base salary in the case of Mr. Stevenson. The agreements provide for the award of incentive stock options to each executive on July 7, 2006. Mr. Daiber was awarded options to purchase equal to 12,500 shares of New Centrue stock after the merger and Mr. Stevenson was awarded options to purchase 7,500 shares of New Centrue stock. Each executive is entitled to not less than twenty-three days of paid time off as well as benefits at least as favorable to the benefits provided to all other employees of New Centrue. Each agreement provides that in the event of a termination of the executive s employment by New Centrue without cause or by the executive due to constructive discharge prior to the end of the term of the agreement, the executive will be entitled to certain severance benefits including payments of the executive s annual compensation for the greater of twenty-four months or the remaining period left in the employment agreement s term. Annual compensation is the executive s base salary plus the performance bonus for the most recent performance period. The executive would also be entitled to receive reimbursement for premiums the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive s dependents. During the twelve months following a change of control of New Centrue, if the executive voluntarily terminates his employment due to constructive discharge or if New Centrue terminates the executive s employment for any reason other than cause, the executive will be entitled to receive a lump sum payment equal to three times the executive s annual compensation, which is the sum of the executive s base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period, plus reimbursement for premiums the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive s base salary and the performance bonus for the most recent performance period, plus reimbursement for premiums the executive pays for the continuation of medical benefits for the executive and the executive s dependents. The employment agreements include customary provisions prohibiting the executive from competing with New Centrue and other activities that would be harmful to New Centrue. Payments under the employment agreements will be reduced to the extent necessary to prevent any portion of the payments from being treated as a nondeductible excess parachute payment under the federal tax laws. The foregoing discussion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the employment agreements of Messrs. Daiber and Stevenson included as Exhibits 10.2, 10.3, and 10.4 hereto.
