As previously announced, the United States Attorney for the District of South Carolina is conducting an investigation of WebMD Corporation. The United States Attorney announced today that William Kottage, a former employee of Medical Manager Health Systems, Inc., currently known as WebMD Practice Services, Inc. (a subsidiary of WebMD Corporation), has agreed to plead guilty to one count of Mail Fraud and one count of Tax Evasion for acts committed while he was employed by Medical Manager Health Systems, Inc. and its predecessor. Kottage was the Director of Operations of the Northeast region of Medical Manager Health Systems until the termination of his employment in April, 2002. According to the documents filed by the United States Attorney in the District Court of the United States for the District of South Carolina Beaufort Division, Kottage participated in schemes similar to those engaged in by three other former employees of Medical Manager Health Systems, Robert Davids, Kevin Kennedy and Glen Moss, who similarly entered guilty pleas in January of this year. The information contained in the court documents filed by the United States Attorney today is consistent with the information filed by the government in January, which is described, together with additional information about the United States Attorney's investigation, in WebMD's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004.
